Subject: [Fwd: Navigator blocked from home.microsoft.com]

If you go to the URL referenced in this message, namely <http://home.microsoft.com>, using Netscape Navigator, you're prevented from accessing it. You need to be using MS Internet Explorer to access
it. Seems pretty unfair...

Is this the first step in the direction of incompatible browsers?

Netscape Navigator is blocked from:

<http://home.microsoft.com>

while IE isn't.

Is there any way around this?
Do we care?
