Agenda

- Situation and Strategy
- Reviews by key initiative
- International
- Questions and feedback

Situation - Browser Share

May data

AOL 27% share of internet access

Situation - Estimated Web usage

	Today	FY 97 Projection
Source of Browser	% of Current Users	Number of users Number of Users*
Total
ISP - AOL, Compuserve, Netcom etc.	31%	3.41M
From work	21	2.31
Downloaded it	15	1.65
Came with PC	8	.88
Retail Store	4	.44
In the mail	3	.33
Don't know	14	1.54
		8.5M

Assuming we reach 25M web users we would need to go from less than 1M users today to 7.5M users next year

Situation Web Presence

Link to IE	2,954
Link to Navigator	99,582
Link to microsoft.com	171,386
Link to netscape.com	357,656

This data is very rough and varies significantly, order of magnitude is probably correct

Netscape key weapons & strategy

- Market share, defacto standard, the java company
- The internet company, wider variety of products
- Viewed as the leader on the intranet too - carries their browser
- Cross platform
- Home Page
- Netscape press darling, very effective at getting lots of coverage as the Internet innovator, capturing mindshare
- Leveraging those that want Microsoft to lose
- Claiming independence
- Courting partners

Turning this around

- Key objective is winning the platform API battle
 - Internet Explorer share is key
- Need critical mass and momentum with:
 - Influentials
 - End users
 - Create demand &
 - Broad distribution
 - Builders of websites
 - Developers
- Retention

Turning this Around

What can we do that Netscape can't

- Building on our Windows assets
 - Integration, a customer win, we can do this better
 - Other technology assets (direct, active etc.)
 - Incentives
- Broader set of products to support strategy
 - Tools, Front Page, Internet Studio, Office, IMD
- Partners
 - OEMs, ISVs, channel
- Our sales force

IE 3 Key Objectives

- Drive adoption of key Microsoft stds (Active X)
- 30% market share by end of CY '96; 45% by end of FY '97
- Achieve leadership position in public eye by IE3/4 launches:
 - Establish IE3 as best of breed browser before IE 3.0 launch (take technology lead from Netscape)
 - Establish Internet Explorer 3/ActiveX as the ticket to the coolest sites on the Internet by IE3.0 launch
 - Establish IE4 as taking “what’s cool on the net” to the next level before IE4 launch
- Drive traffic to Microsoft Web Sites

Internet Explorer Positioning

Microsoft Internet Explorer 3.0, with ActiveX, puts you a step ahead on the Internet

- Provides users the best browsing experience on the Internet
- Provides webmasters/developers next generation platform for creating cool Internet content/apps
- Provides organizations lowest cost of desktop migration to the Intranet

Game Plan Tools

- Website - Done beta 1
- 30 pg. Reviewer's Guide - Done beta 1
- 1 page overview - due 5/31
- Competitive Comparison - due 6/3
- 6 pg. Datasheet - due 6/9
- Comm plan - ongoing
- Reviewer's Workshop - IE3/4 launch
- ISK give away diskette - IE3 launch

Winning the Influentials

Winning the Influentials

Key Strategies

- Beta 1 was the launch for influentials
- Set conventional wisdom: "IE3 is a step ahead"
- Build a groundswell among frequent surfers
- Massive trial - Switch Netscape Navigator users

How?

- All out assault to win reviews
- Frequent personal contact with key influentials
- Effective use of the web as a medium
 - Focused, crisp, impactful materials
 - Advertising
- Dramatic switchers campaign to capture mindshare

Winning with Press/Influentials

- Win head-head reviews; get “must d/I recommendation”
 - Face time with testing labs every 2 months
 - Detailed reviewers guide to shape criteria
 - Reviewers workshop at IE3 and IE4 launch
 - Won’t win all but need to win some. C/Net big win.
- Achieve a 4.0 out of 5.0 on weekly news
 - New ‘active’ press center on website
 - Get press to use IE3: convert press websites
 - Generate rolling thunder of IE3/ActiveX momentum news

Winning Press/Influentials

(con't)

- Quotes and commentary from key influentials to reflect IE3 positioning
 - Quarterly analyst/influential tour with execs
 - Bring key folks in for paid consulting
 - Assist folks in setting up their websites
 - Participate on panels, online forums; focus on Mac
- Promote technical design reviews; partners

Dramatic Trial

- “Take the IE Challenge”
 - Hire 3rd party firm to run study finding 4 out of 5 folks prefer IE over Navigator
 - Place ‘taste test’ on website, cyber cafes
 - Step by step instructions on how to try IE
 - Internet Education Tour starting with IE3 Inch
- IE Field Champs and “Club IE”
 - Arm & educate 1 field rep in each district to be IE champ; 300 rabid online supporters of IE

Effectively Sell with the Website

- Communicate message
 - Effectively demonstrate features/benefits; showcase IE3 and ActiveX technologies
 - Create new pr website for news
- Drive down loads for IE3
 - Make it simple, painless and quick
 - Step by step instructions on how to switch from

NS

Effectively Sell with the Website

- Deepen usage of IE3/IE4, help retention
 - Host ActiveX controls list; point to IE3 enhanced sites; update regularly
 - Encourage learning: tips and tricks, webmaster resource center
 - Sell Internet Plus! features; provide additional themes; shareware
 - Build community with Club IE

Advertising

Momentum (May-December)

- IE Beta 1.0/2.0: Download campaign
 - Approx. 6.5M Impressions ($250K)
 - Target IEU sites: Browser Watch, Shareware, C|Net, Real Audio...
- Launch: Provide customers with compelling content/experience as reason to switch
 - Co-promotion campaign highlighting IE 3.0 optimized sites and benefits of IE (>8M impressions, $400K)
 - Additional media properties to highlight partners and IE
 - WSJ, Yahoo Internet Life, CMP, Ziff Davis

End Users

- Need a compelling proposition for normal customers - A “hook”
- 3rd parties as primary vehicle to reach new users.
 - Leverage IAPs, OEMs, resellers, etc
 - Moving AOL and CompuServe quickly super key

End User Hook

Network Operators

- We have over 700 ISPs
 - But they are mostly small guys who prefer free Internet Explorer over paid Navigator
- Issues
 - Cross-Platform browser/email/news gates signing or distribution. Pricing not issue for big guys.
 - In-box terms delay adoption -- browser exclusivity
 - Closing in-box contract -- Home Page URL

Network Operators

- What we are doing to improve the situation
 - Evangelized referral server solution at Network Operators Summit
 - Finalized standard in-box contract and terms
 - Aggressively working each account with PN Sales

OEM - Status

- All Win95 licensee are automatically licensed for IE 3.0 as long as we ship it in an OSR
- Several OEM's/IHV's have licensed IE 3.0 for a product other than a PC.
 - Compaq (Support CD-based on HTML)
 - Mitsumi (Distributing with CD ROM drives)
 - Creative
- MDA requires all OEMs to ship updated code within 90 days of receipt if we provide it to them before September 1.
- MDA also incents (reduced royalty) the OEM to create a web page on their site that displays the IE Logo and links to MS Web site.

OEM - Status

- 8 of top 24 OEMs ship Netscape Navigator on at least 1 machine (per OEM Marketing)

First, some facts about “web pros”

(a “web pro” is anyone who creates websites as all or part of their job)

- As of early May, approx 800K - 1MM individuals create websites for work (66% full-time, 34% part-time)
 - 75% work in teams (mean size = 14/median = 6)
 - implies there are at least 50K teams building websites today
- Technical background is most common
 - 60% of web pros claim “technical” backgrounds
 - 39% have a formal computer-related degree
 - 51% are professional developers (get paid to write code for others)
 - 75% claim to have written some program code
 - 20% claim predominantly creative background
 - 20% claim business background
- Titles are all over the map
 - 34% have “VP, GM, Director, Manager” type titles
 - 1% actually call themselves “Producer”
 - 2% “Webmaster” and 2% “Designer”

MS' influence over this audience is weak

- 54% of web pros, unaided, say Netscape sets the standards for the Internet (9% mention Microsoft)
- 24% of web pros, unaided, say Netscape supplies leading edge technology (18% mention Microsoft)
- 74% claim to optimize their site for Navigator (7% optimize for IE)
- Planned/current use of programmability technologies

The Internet outside of the US

- No reliable hard figures
- Estimates :
 - 30 to 40 million users worldwide
 - 40 to 60% outside of the US
- Gaining browser share means
 - 30% 10 M users
 - 50% 17 M users
- Top 10 countries have 76% of non-US hosts
 - 1. Germany

Browser usage

How we compare to Netscape

	Microsoft	Netscape
• Browser share	???
• Product localization	23	10 (+3 by distis)
• People (dedicated)	125	67 (+150 at distis)
• Geog. coverage	42	11 (+22 w/ distis)
• Retail presence	21	25

• We are not in an overwhelming position of superiority

What Netscape is doing

- Signed all top ISPs, everywhere
- Retail presence : just launched in the rest of Europe
- Pushing hard for OEM deals (Vobis, Siemens, Bull...)
 - Nav on desktop, SuiteSpot on servers
- Trying to build a VAR channel and leverage others corporate sales force (HP, Novell, Andersen Consulting ...)
- Opening new subs (Australia, Spain, Hong Kong)
- Not much visible marketing yet
 - Roadshow with SGI

What we have done

- Licensing to ISPs (218 contracts signed to date)
- ISK available in 20 countries by end of this month (104k units sold-in ytd)
- Webmaster conference in 9 countries (4,000 attendees) - re-launched logo program
- Developer training (5,000 ytd)
- Multitude of Press events
- Many creative things
 - Japan : ad campaign with OEMs
 - Germany : program with ad agencies
 - Holland : IE disk sent to all reg users for all MS products

Next steps

- Scale up all current activities (ISP licensing, dev training, SP training, intensive PR)
- Get IE3/ActiveX local showcases
 - (130 accounts identified)
- Launch 1:many programs for webmasters
 - Put muscle behind logo program
- Improve local web sites
- Leverage Intranet Day and follow up with seminars
- Prepare ISK/Plus launches

Metrics: Measuring Impact

1. web pros as individuals, usage, preference, satisfaction with
 - a. companies (MS, Netscape, and other competitors)
 - b. platforms (client and server)
 - c. standards (API, HTML extensions, object models)
 - d. tools (media creation and integration, development)
2. site builder orgs (internal and for hire) we'd measure share of
 - a. actual business relationships (partner program participation)
 - b. number of 3rd parties publicly supporting stds (LOAs, press releases)
3. websites, low bar logo program and high bar "showcase" sites
 - a. share of top 200 based on investigation (MS, NS, both)
 - b. share of total sites based on automated counts
4. traffic - share of content seen (Nielsen ratings of sites, segmented by degree of support for standards used)
 - a. marketshare of hits on MS vs. NS, logo sites and showcase sites

* need more complete mechanism for correlating traffic and standards support
5. users: browser share
 - a. marketshare: browser ownership and usage
 - b. mindshare: awareness, preference, and satisfaction by browser and co.

Website Evangelism Priorities

5/29/96

Number of Sites

First, some facts about “web pros”

(a “web pro” is anyone who creates websites as all or part of their job)

- As of early May, approx 800K - 1MM individuals create websites for work (66% full-time, 34% part-time)
 - 75% work in teams (mean size = 14/median = 6)
 - implies there are at least 50K teams building websites today
- Technical background is most common
 - 60% of web pros claim “technical” backgrounds
 - » 39% have a formal computer-related degree
 - » 51% are professional developers (get paid to write code for others)
 - » 75% claim to have written some program code
 - 20% claim predominantly creative background
 - 20% claim business background
- Titles are all over the map
 - 34% have “VP, GM, Director, Manager” type titles
 - 1% actually call themselves “Producer”
 - 2% “Webmaster” and 2% “Designer”

MS' influence over this audience is weak

- 54% of web pros, unaided, say Netscape sets the standards for the Internet (9% mention Microsoft)
 - 24% of web pros, unaided, say Netscape supplies leading edge technology (18% mention Microsoft)
 - 74% claim to optimize their site for Navigator (7% optimize for IE)
 - Planned/current use of programmability technologies

Strategies to build “Site Share”

- Scalable, sustainable evangelism programs that reach all web pros
 - Massive outreach to establish relationships with the masses as well as the top SPs and ICPs
 - Tiered incentives and support depending on size and influence of SP or ICP
- Grow share by pushing Windows industry to the Internet
 - LEAD THE PARADE FOR EXISTING CUSTOMERS!
 - Lead existing Windows users onto the web with IE
 - Educate BDMs on how to make the Active web pay off for them [undone]
 - Merge Win API into the effective Internet API (ActiveX)
 - Evangelize millions of Windows developers to build the Web
- Grow an “economy” around ActiveX
 - 3rd party support infrastructure (publishers, trainers, user groups,)
 - Component developers - bigger, better market for active parts
 - Site designers and developers - more experts with better tools
 - SP organizations -for outsourced site development
 - ISPs - for outsourced hosting

1:1 Evangelism of Top Sites

- Execute a tiered attack strategy to target the top web development (SPs) and content companies (ICPs)
- Create a “business deal” by providing a set of technical and marketing incentives in return for specific site wins, and possible IE redistribution agreements
- Foster long-term relationships. With SPs make them surrogate evangelism force that recommends Microsoft solutions first.

Media Consultancy

- SWAT team chartered with bringing up priority websites in very aggressive timeframes
- Includes site design and development (client + server) resources
- Closely integrated into evangelism process
- Key technical interfaces into product groups
- Leverage early code and documents for broad evangelism- MSDN
- Considering building more complete SWAT team

Internet Advisory Board

- WHO: Technical decision makers at the top companies
 - ICPs: Walmart, Viacom Interactive Media, Turner Broadcasting, Time Warner Pathfinder, MCA/Universal, Cap Cities/ABC, CNET, CUC International, Hearst New Media, Bantam Doubleday Dell
 - SPs: @Radical.Media, AND Interactive, Broadway Interactive Group, CKS Interactive, Digital Foundry, DimensionX, Ikonic, Magnet Interactive, OnRamp, Novo Media Group
 - ISVs: Borland, SoftQuad
- WHY: Solicit feedback on new MS Internet technologies and to update them on these technologies
- HOW:
 - Quarterly meetings for design previews.
 - Monthly video-teleconferences about key technologies
 - Access to a "members only" web site which will feature newest MS internet technology.
- Kickoff: May 29th

Evangelism Issues

- NBC Deal
- Need decision on IMD vs. IPTD ownership of in-the-box (customizable start page, themes in the box, etc.)
- Fortune 500: What is field sales force doing for IIS and IE (Internet & Intranet)?
- Need International Mirror Sites for downloads. Lots of feedback that this is very poor.
- Cross Platform story

ICP Status

- Incentives
 - In the box incentives
 - » Nashville Theme (in box for top 10, gallery for others)
 - » Favorites
 - On-Line incentives
 - » Partner Gallery, Customized start page real estate
 - Promotional incentives
 - » Co-advertising, MS subsidized ads, co-promotions
 - » Partner distribution of customized browser
 - » Contests

ICP Issues

- Many Web designers are not professional software developers
 - Writing controls not an option
 - Need set of controls to choose from for easy implementation
- Sites want to wait to see how technology catches on
- Moving from model where NS logo was displayed free
 - to browser neutral or wanting $$

Logo Program

- Two new logos, static and animated, live 5/25
 - Static: No change in base qualification criteria to host
 - Animated (Active): Need to host an ActiveX control
 - Sign-up, Streamlined documents, Free Logo compliant template

Logo Sign-up

IE Logo Sign-up per week

Logo Marketing

- Link presence significantly behind Netscape (50x or more)
- Identify Significant and New Internet sites
 - Currently done manually
 - Working with MS research group to automate
 - » capture new www sites from XXXX list
 - » Automated analyses and challenge of the “best viewed” for sites that are viewed equally well with IE 3.
 - » Automated monitoring for compliance coupled with informative pings on new technologies and opportunities.

Logo Incentives

- Increased Exposure on IE page - Top 10 list
- Regular electronic communication
 - » Includes first drop of well developed HTML samples to integrate on their page.
- ICP contest - (requires logo compliance)
 - » MS subsidized advertising for commercial sites, USA today.
- Others being considered
 - » training and support awards.
 - » free trip to W3 summit, Internet World.

Taking it to the masses

- Scalable, sustainable evangelism to the new market
 - Segmentation & messages
 - Own the influentials - build credibility with rolling thunder PR
 - Start a relationship - get their attention with broad outreach programs and incentives...
 - ...then flood them with information, training, and resources
 - » Online (MS and 3rd party websites, internet forums)
 - » Print (magazines, newsletters, trade books)
 - » Live (WebDays, Worldwide Live, PDCs, industry events)
- Move the Windows industry to the Internet
 - ActiveX tools, BOB/WAR
 - Fill existing dev. programs with Internet content
- Metrics

Top-level Messages

Content with impact

- ActiveX empowers you to create end-user experiences with the most impact (rich multimedia, high interactivity)
- Evidence: TNC and 10+ other showcase sites (inc. MS.COM)

Broad reach

- ActiveX is open and cross platform -- it works in Netscape and on the Mac!
- Evidence: Mac IE, MetroWerks, NCompass plug-in

Best tools

- All the best tools create ActiveX content - use what you know
- Evidence: MS tools, 3rd party tools, ActiveX controls

Supports standards

- ActiveX embraces and extends Internet and industry standards
- Evidence: Java, W3C HTML 3.2 extensions (stylesheets)

Rolling Thunder PR

Credibility and reach

- Major message themes
 - Developer Madness: WW Live, DevDays, User Groups
 - ActiveX gets real: controls, quantity/quality of sites
 - MS technology firehose: continuous client, server, tools, standards, announcements - brute force mindshare
- Target press
 - Interactive magazines and ezines (NewMedia, [Hot]Wired, C|Net, Interactivity, Interactive Age, Ad Age, AdWeek, Digital Media, Edge, Internet World, Interactive Week, Net Guide, Web Developer, Web Week, Mondo 2000, etc.)
 - Business and popular press (WSJ, Time, Newsweek, etc.)
 - PC trades (weeklies & monthlies, reviews, news, features)
 - Analysts (technical, financial, strategic)

Online Evangelism

To have credibility with web pros we too must master the web

- Show we get it!
- Make our own websites the definitive resource
 - Critical information sources for website developers and designers
 - Showcase of cool ActiveX technology in action and various design philosophies (executing formal RFPs for 15 design firms to design and implement unique front-ends to our site, evaluating feasibility of multiple active front-ends)
- ActiveX showcase of 3rd party sites make it real (more important to be high cool than high traffic)
- “CyberCops” to patrol newsgroups and forums

Site Builder Program

BFG9000 scalable partner recruiting and loyalty building program

- Cast broad net to reach and start relationships with over 80% of web professionals
- Provide incentives to join and then move deeper into the program
- Kick off at WorldWide Live (7/16/96)
- Rapidly evolving

Level One

- Cast the broad net - make sure every web pro knows about it
 - Targeted DM to individuals selected from web/design pubs, event lists, Adobe/Macromedia base
 - Online and print ads in deesigner/web media
- Capture their names - GET THEM ALL TO SIGN UP!
 - FREE TOOLS WITH SIGNUP! Get free Visual J++ (later could offer IStudio or Visual Basic).
 - FREE ACTIVE X WORKSHOP with collections of cool controls, comprehensive reference information, and examples.
 - ACCESS TO RESTRICTED BETA AREAS! Betas of IE, IIS, and tools.
 - ALL YOU HAVE TO DO TO REGISTER IS fill out the online eform giving us name, email, address, job title, URLs of sites you've done
- Once we have them, train and educate them
 - Use the database/listservers for direct communication, to drive MS website traffic and attendance at community training/evangelism events
- Activate them
 - Move them up in the program by upselling the benefits (technical and business) of doing IE and ActiveX sites

Level Two Benefits

resource package

- Do a (low-bar) qualifying IE Logo site and get:
 - All the benefits of Level 1 and the existing “logo” program plus
 - FREE MS SOFTWARE OF YOUR CHOICE
 - » Up to $2K online shopping spree of free MS product
 - DISCOUNTS ON TRAINING and EVENTS
 - Invitation to Private Technology Previews
 - Evaluating incident-based support package
 - Entry in Site Builder registry on Microsoft.Com
 - “Selling ActiveX to your customers” sales kit

- Target NS logo sites, upsell Level one members

Level Three Benefits

Co-mktg focus

- Deploy ActiveX (high bar) sites and cash in on the “Frequent Builder” incentive campaign
 - All deliverables in levels 1-2 plus
 - Co-marketing dollars - up to $30K per company, usable for any of several comktg programs
 - Business development engine (referral program, access to prospect database, co-op ads and DM)
 - Links from Site Builder website
 - Booth Space at Industry Shows
 - Case Studies on Microsoft.com
 - Speaking opportunities at site builder conferences

Level Four Benefits

elite sites

- Direct 1:1 account management if you own a high traffic ActiveX site
 - All deliverables in levels 1-3 plus
 - Direct DRG Support
 - LOA custom business development support
 - Participation in “Hall of Fame” National Advertising Campaign

Worldwide Live! Activating the Internet

Objective: Educate and engage web pros to use our tools and platforms to create active web sites.

Audience: Anyone involved in creating web sites (web pros)- artists, designers, HTML authors, administrators, musicians, project leaders, scriptors, editors.

Key Message: Worldwide Live! Activating the Internet. Spend a day with Microsoft's Internet experts and partners to learn how to create active web sites.

- AX is real - IE, tools, components - shipping!
- AX Empowers your team to deliver the most impactful content (best enduser experience)
- AX is cross-platform and cross-browser (works in netscape and Mac)
- AX embraces and extends Internet standards
- All the best tools (from MS and 3rd parties) create AX content

Tactics:

- on 7/16/96 broadcast an 8 hour program live to 50 movie theaters in major US and Canadian cities
- Make satellite coordinates available for downlink to places outside the US and Canada.
- Support existing Internet broadcast technologies (Mbone, Real Audio)

Reach: 10,000 web pros in movie theaters.

WEB RD's and Web Days

- Objectives: A core group of Web technology, design and solution experts, who can both expound the virtues of MS Strategy, as well as utilize the web itself to work as our online positioning and information advocates.
- Key Message: Web Days provides a forum for Webheads to gather (both in face-to-face and online) to illustrate the technical and strategic advantages of utilizing IPTD technology for the Web. Web RD's are activated as the virtual "SWAT" team running rampant on the web.
- Tactics:
 - Web Days: Executed like DevDays, MS builds "infrastructure" for community run web design program and pushes information to the masses. Three Tracks for Webheads: Site Developer Track, Site Designer Track, Business Development Track. 18 Cities, 10K attendees Q3 FY'97
 - Web RD's: Partnership marketing with key experts delivering the MS message on the web. Their playing field is the WEB, and their expertise is web design and development. These advocates are used in every community activity we build. Recruitment and established RD's: Q2 FY'97 - 20 N. American RDs. 10 International RDs.
- Critical Success Factors: Recruiting of Expert RD's, Design Tools available for design track, BDM Case Studies, Design Partner participants

Interactive Media Conference 96

Objective:

- Educate attendees on Internet Studio, FrontPage, IE, IIS, ActiveX technologies, Merchant Server, Media Server, "Dolly", "Llama", SST, Digital Signatures, etc.
- Showcase IE as the browser of choice
- Introduce DevOffice Pro, position it as the suite of products targeted to web developers
- Get commitment from the web development community to our tools and technologies by articulating our web design/development and business strategy
- Demonstrate strong third-party tools, controls and applications in keynotes and trade show - send a strong message to the press!

Audience: Web designer, developer, producer, administrator, site owner, new entry to this market, BDMand press.

Key Message:

- Microsoft has the tools and technologies you need for web site development
- ActiveX technologies enable you to make the coolest web sites
- Internet Explorer's features make it the premier browser - it's what you want customers to use to view your site
- Leveraging existing investment in Windows development to the Internet

Tactics: Looking for space in late October, west coast preferably, general session daily, 3 breakout tracks (designer, developer, business decision maker), tradeshow w/50-75 3rd parties, 100 machine hands on area, 100 machine communications network, promote via direct mail, web, SP's, ATEC's, user groups, online pubs etc

Reach: ~3000 attendees

Owner: ToniJ

5/29/96

Publications: ActiveXpert Magazine, ActiveX Newsletters and MS internet strat focused pubs.

Objective: Reach the masses and educate site developers on how to use our technology to create the coolest websites.

Audience: Site Developers and Designers

Key Message: This will be the premier community building vehicle for developers interested in ActiveX technology. It will be an advertising vehicle for third parties and will include a conference series.

Tactics or Description of program: Pinnacle will be the publisher of this on-line publication and conference series. Both will focus on "how to" studies. Cobb will author the first set of newsletters

Metric & Goal: 50,000 mag subscribers in first year, 5,000 newsletter subscribers

Owner: Eric Ewing

5/29/96

Web Community Programs:

Objective: Activate the web designer/developer community by building programs that are run via key 3rd-party partners to deliver IPTD product and technology information, support and business resources.

Key Message: There is an active, interactive and worldwide community of resources available for peer to peer exchange for the Web designer/developer.

Community programs:

- Web User Group program: Interactive Media, ActiveX and Web Design SIGs (target Mac /desktop publishing SIGs into "Webtop Publishing." 19 city Activate the Internet UG tour 6/11, 500 attendees per city.)
- Online Community Center: Creation of the ultimate on-line resources directory for both traditional development and web prouduction. Interactive medium for online threaded chats, hosted chats and support forums: Q1 FY'97.
- MVP@Large Program: Internet CyberCops - a swat team of online mavens who evangelize IPTD technology , negate FUD and support and inform electronic audiences. Target 50 MVPs by Q2 FY'97.
- Competitive Programs -Identify and cultivate relationships with competitive influentials via technical education and sustaining touch of IPTD personnel and information: Beginning with Java Summit 6/28 - target 75 Java influentials, sustaining plan to follow.
- WebDays and RD Program (see detail slide)
- Metric & Goal: Number of webheads involved with programs. Number of user groups. Amount of interaction on community pages. # of MVPs (target, 50 specific to the web)

Owner: Mikewe

3rd Party Events

- Objective: Educate “web producers” (producers, designers and business decision makers) on Microsoft’s Internet strategy including tools and technologies via 3rd party live marketing vehicles.
- Key Message: Microsoft is a leader in Internet technology, and we offer a wide set of tools and technologies for Internet and Intranet development.
- Tactics
 - 3rd Party Confernces/partner shows - Adobe developers conference, MIND conference, JavaOne, Macromedia roadshow and dev conference
 - Seminars - App Dev roadshow. 30 city tour that kicks off after IMC #2, approx 100 per city. International to follow w/ different partner.
 - Tradeshows - Identify and recommend participation in Internet and Web production/design shows. Focus and redefine our participation levles in current production/design shows (is Siggraph, Seybold).

Industry Shows (draft 1)

The following list includes industry shows where we recommend web producer targeted presence. This list doesn't include shows with MS speaker placement only. We are currently reviewing these shows and will make a final recommendation by June 15.

- Spring Internet World, San Jose, CA 4/30 - 5/2
- WWW 5th, Paris 5/6-10

Browser usage

Current Browser Usage in organizations (Jan 96)

How we compare to Netscape

	Microsoft	Netscape
• Browser share	???
• Product localization	23	10 (+3 by distis)
• People (dedicated)	125	67 (+150 at distis)
• Geog. coverage	42	11 (+22 w/ distis)
• Retail presence	21	25
• We are not in an overwhelming position of superiority

What Netscape is doing

- Signed all top ISPs, everywhere
- Pushing hard for OEM deals with little success
 - Have a special team of 10, focus on Euro OEMs right now (Vobis, Siemens, Bull...)
- Retail presence : just launched in the rest of Europe
- Trying to build a VAR channel and leverage others' corporate sales force (HP, Novell, Andersen Consulting ...)
- Opening new subs (Australia, Hong Kong, Holland, Spain)
- Not much visible marketing yet

What we have done

- Licensing to ISPs (218 contracts signed to date)
- ISK available in 20 countries now (104k units sold-in ytd)
- Webmaster conference in 9 countries (4,000 attendees) - re-launched logo program
- Developer training (5,000 ytd)
- Multitude of Press events
- Many creative things
 - Italy and UK sponsor the Euro 96 Soccer Championship
 - Japan : massive ad campaign with 14 OEMs
 - Holland : IE disk sent to all reg users for all MS products
