 - Challenge to upgrade - most ISPs don't send out CDs to base
- Breadth important - over 60% of the dial up market
 - Doing direct e-mail campaign for IEAK and Mac IEAK

Priorities

- Germany
- Japan
 - they catch a cold we get very sick
- Canada
 - get Sympatico and upgrade them

Germany: key focus area

- T-Online - the 800 lb gorilla
 - Represents huge share opportunity for Germany (Switch 50% of base to IE = 8% IE share)
 - Sub trying to do the right things
 - Got parity IE shipments last June
 - Dedicated technical MS SE with the account to customize browser
 - Offered DMI mil in mkt money (about US$60K) in exchange for OE commitment and switcher program. Efforts currently stalled
 - Head is personal friend of NS GM; likes playing MS and NS to T-Online's advantage
- Germany - trying to do the right things elsewhere
 - AOL - Spring '97 upgrade
 - Internet Services switcher program planned.
 - Recently signed Nacamar to preferred IE from parity - another upgrade opportunity

Netscape

- 24 International Netcaster channels (1/12) - Australia 6, UK 2, Germany 8, Hongkong 3, Japan 5
- Channel Finder:
 - no multi-lingual, multi-country search.
- Netcaster localized only to German and Japanese.
- No local bookmarks.
- Few pre-populated folders pointing to old or no information
- No local Netcenter - the start page is a localized subset of www.netscape.com.
- InBox Direct has 27 International content providers

Active Channels - Lessons learned

- WW design is possible
- When we optimize for USA we make mistakes
 - Hard coded content
 - Cached content
 - Hard wired contracts
- Evangelism is weak WW
 - Localization (AndreasT) did all the evangelism and training
- We could have gotten more from the ICPs

Active Channels - Next steps

- Enforce existing technology commitments
 - 1st round of quality control already done by Localization for subscription method and NS logos
 - 2nd round will dive into more detail (DHTML, other IE logos, ActiveX..)
- Enforce existing promotional commitments
 - Use version 2 of the Channel Guide as a reminder
 - CG contract renewal/negotiation in April/May
- IE5 planning and spec review
 - Suggested to use local HMCs as the distribution medium for content partners, also adds immediate user value = retention

What do we know?

- If it is an important strategy for USA -
 - It's equally important for International
- Existing design
 - Little end user value, low traffic, no local resources, not a technology showcase, not leveraging partners
- Subs want a “portal”
 - Dublin meeting made that clear
- We already did the hard work
 - We have the biggest brands
 - We did the Channel Guide

If we go ahead

- February-March
 - Development of packaged solution and business guidelines
- April-May
 - Rollout in International with regional workshops
- June-July
 - RTM

Kudos

- Local Subs
- Andreas Traem and his Irish team

Org Push - ECU/OCU Strategy

- Internal Public tracking of Measurements
 - Status emails, Website, Contest
- Focus on standardization & switchers
- Deliverable Plan
 - Provide a menu of US and local programs, subs can choose what will assist them most as appropriate.
 - Deliver components required not in US menu.
 - Focus on tracking and deliverables.
 - Consistent local and w/w corporate PR.

Org Push - Recommended Tactics

- Use the appendix slide criteria for tracking
- Identify and answer key blocks to standardization
- Start new specific efforts to boost actual deployment results short-term.
- Aggressively drive IT department trials and/or usage of IE and IEAK.
- Leverage existing programs or communications targeted at corporates (CSB, TSB, or local programs)
- Regularly promote standardization wins, switchers, deployment milestones, implementation of Active Desktop or Channel technology in PR.

Specific actions for ECU to consider

- Measure and track, understand your market
 - Complete the Appendix ECU slide as part of MYR prep -->.
- Aggressively drive IT department trials and/or usage of IE and IEAK.
 - Key account IT departments should be trialing IE & IEAK.
 - Identify and incent specific deployment opportunities.
- Identify and answer key blocks to standardization
 - What specifically is holding up deployment in key accounts.
- Implement deployment Squads with SE's and MCS staff
 - The UK has implemented something similar
- IEAK evaluation version should be in all top accounts
 - Are named accounts IEAK licensees? If not why not?
 - UK distributed keycodes and IEAK's to Select customers, this is now even easier with this eval version.
- Raise awareness of IEAK - the business benefits
 - MS ECU staff should have greater understanding of IEAK functions than of IE itself. Integrate IEAK into TCO efforts.
- Actively feed corporate standardization wins, switchers, or deployment milestones into PR

Measurement & Incentive suggestions

- An account is not “standardised” on IE until:
 - IE deployment \geq country IE share (from hits).
 - Customer is an IEAK licensee.
- Each ECU Account Manager to deliver 2 references:
 - One for internal referencing
 - One for PR release.
- Make IE deployment the .5 swing factor in July ratings.
- Internal competition for Account teams based on deployment & switchers.
- Use the IEAK Eval database as a simple way to track progress.
