V. $200 Penalty for Late Filing

Any individual who is required to file this report and does so more than 30 days after the date the report is required to be filed, or, if an extension is granted, more than 30 days after the last day of the filing extension period shall be subject to a $200 penalty (fine). Such penalty must accompany the disclosure report when filed with the Secretary of the Senate and must be made payable for deposit in the U.S. Treasury. In extraordinary circumstances the Select Committee on Ethics may waive this fee. A waiver of the penalty fee must be requested in writing and should indicate the circumstances believed to justify the waiver.

VI. Timeliness of Filing

Reports shall be deemed to have been filed in a timely manner if they are delivered or postmarked on or before the due date. Please note, however, that the Postal Service will not postmark envelopes bearing the frank unless specifically requested. In the event that May 15th or other filing date falls on a weekend or a holiday, the filing deadline shall be the next business day.

A report filed more than 30 days after the date it is required to be filed, or more than 30 days after the last day of any filing extension granted by the Committee, must be accompanied by a certified check or money order in the amount of $200 made payable to the U.S. Treasury in order for the form to be deemed filed in accordance with the Ethics in Government Act.

VII. Extensions

The Select Committee on Ethics may, in its discretion, grant reasonable extensions of time for filing reports. To obtain an extension, you must submit a written request to which the Committee shall respond in writing. The total of any extensions granted for any one report may, not exceed 90 days under the law. An extension granted to a candidate is ineffective past the date such extension will result in a report being filed later than 30 days prior to an election in which the reporting individual is a candidate. The Committee will accept extension requests by facsimile.

VIII. Failure to File or Falsifying Reports

Knowing or willful falsification of information, or failure to file or report information required to be reported by section 102 of the Act may subject you to a civil penalty of not more than $11,000 and to disciplinary action by the Select Committee on Ethics and/or any other appropriate authority under section 104 of the Act. #### IX. Review

The information contained in your report and any attachments thereto will be reviewed by the Select Committee on Ethics within 60 days of filing to determine whether such report is in compliance with applicable laws, rules, and regulations. If the review indicates an apparent error, omission, or discrepancy in your report, you will be notified and asked to correct or clarify the information by amendment within a certain time period. An amendment may be in the form of a revised report, corrected pages of your previously filed report, or an explanatory letter.

If you believe the amendment was requested in error, you must contact the Committee to indicate why you believe the request is in error. The Committee can then determine whether such an amendment or clarification is needed. Amendments should be filed with the Secretary of the Senate, Office of Public Records.

X. Public Access

Your report may be disclosed within 30 days by the Secretary of the Senate to any requesting person pursuant to section 105 of the Act or as otherwise authorized by law. You may inspect applications for public access of your own form upon request at the Office of Public Records, 232 Hart Senate Building, Washington, D.C. 20510. # B. Disclosure of Information Concerning Spouse and Dependent Children

In addition to your, individual financial information, you are required to report information concerning your spouse and dependent children in several Parts of the form unless they meet the three-part exemption test (See Definitions of Terms: Exemption Test). You must also make the appropriate notation for each entry on each part to indicate that the asset, interest, obligation, income, etc. is that of your spouse or dependent child. Assets not so identified are presumed to be assets of the filer. The extent of the reporting requirement is noted in each Part. It is the responsibility of each reporting individual to ascertain whether a spouse or dependent child has, or had, any items reportable on the public disclosure report.

No report is required with respect to your spouse if he or she is living separate and apart from you with the intention of terminating the marriage or permahent separation. In addition, no report is required with respect to the receipt or payment of alimony, child support, or other property settlement arising from the dissolution of a marriage or the permanent separation from a spouse. There are other exceptions to the reporting of assets and income, transactions, and liabilities of a spouse or dependent child, which are discussed in the instructions applicable to those subjects.

C. Definitions of Terms

Category of Amount

Reportable financial interests are disclosed either by actual amount or by category of amount, depending on the interest, as specified by the form. You may, but you are not required to, indicate an actual amount where the form provides for a category of amount or value. You may not indicate a category of amount where an exact amount is required.

Dependent Child

The term "dependent child" means your son, daughter, stepson, or stepdaughter if such person is either: (1) unmarried, under age 21 and living in your household, or (2) a "dependent" of yours within the meaning of section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Excepted Investment Fund

As "excepted investment fund" is a mutual fund, common trust fund of a bank, pension or deferred compensation plan, or any other investment fund, which is: (1) widely held (i.e. has more than 100 participants or investors); and (2) publicly traded (or available) or widely diversified; and (3) held under circumstances where you neither exercise control over nor have the ability to exercise control over the financial interests held by the fund. A fund is widely diversified when it holds no more than 5% of the value of its portfolio in the securities of any one issuer (other than the U.S. Government) and no more than 20% in any particular economic or geographic sector.

Exemption Test

The reporting individual is not required to report assets, transactions, and/or liabilities which the reporting individual certifies: (1) represents the spouse's or dependent child's sole financial interest or responsibility and which the reporting individual has no knowledge of; (2) which are not in any way, past or present, derived from the income, assets, or activities of the reporting individual neither derives, nor expects to derive, any financial or economic benefit.

Note: It is EXTREMELY difficult for an asset to meet all three parts of this test, especially (3). For instance, if you file a joint tax return with your spouse, you derive a financial or economic benefit from the items involved and you are charged with knowledge of those items.

Honoraria

The term "honoraria" means payments of money or anything of value for an appearance, speech, or article, excluding any actual and necessary travel expenses incurred by the individual (and one relative) to the extent that such expenses are paid or reimbursed by any other person, and the amount otherwise determined shall be reduced by the amount of any such expenses to the extent that such expenses are not paid or reimbursed.

Relative

The term "relative" means an individual who is your father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, great uncle, great aunt, first cousin, nephew, niece, husband, wife, grandfather, grandmother, grandson, grandfather, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, stepson, stepdaughter, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother, half sister, your spouse's grandfather or grandmother, or your flance or fiancee.

Necessary Travel Related Expenses

The term "necessary travel related expenses" means the cost of transportation, and the cost of lodging and meals while a Member, officer, or employee, or a relative of any such individual is away from his or her residence or principal place of employment.

Value

The term "value" means a good faith estimate of the dollar value if the exact value is neither known nor easily obtainable and is not otherwise required by the instruction.

For personal property, you may use any of the following options to determine the value:

Option 1: value based upon a recent appraisal of the property interest;

Option 2: the book value of non-publicly traded stock, or the exchange value of corporate; stocks, or the face value of corporate bonds or comparable securities;

Option 3: the net worth of your interest (as in a business partnership or other jointly held business interest);

Option 4: the equity value of your interest (as in a solely owned business or commercial enterprise);

Option 5: statement balance (e.g., personal savings accounts, excepted investment fund; or any investment portion of an insurance policy);

Option 6: any other recognized indication of value (but any individual using this option must describe the method used to determine the value); or

Option 7: where the value of real property or a real estate partnership is not ascertainable without an appraisal; (a) the assessed value of real property for tax purposes adjusted to reflect current market value if the tax assessment is computed at less than 100% of current value (but an individual using this option should describe the method used to determine this value and list an actual amount rather than a category of value on the financial disclosure report); or (b) the actual purchase price of the real property and the date of purchase (but both should be listed on the report form).

Stock Options: If the options are contingent upon the occurrence of some future event, including the passing of time, then the options would not be considered a vested interest for purposes of disclosure and would not have to be reported. If the options are vested (i.e. could be exercised at the close of the reporting period), then they should be valued at either the difference between the fair market price within 31 days of the close of the, reporting period and the option price, or other reasonable means.

COVER PAGE

The form has two COVER PAGES. If you are an Annual or Termination filler, choose the COVER PAGE which indicates at the top that it is for Annual and Termination Reports. If you are a Candidate or New Employee; choose the COVER PAGE which indicates at the top that it is for Candidate and New Employee Reports. It is extremely important that you choose the correct COVER PAGE, since the questions correspond to the PARTS applicable to that type of filer. Using the wrong COVER PAGE could lead to an incomplete report which will subsequently require amendment.

Filer Information

At the top of the form, please complete the boxes required for your full name, complete office mailing address, and office phone number. Candidates must also complete the Confidential Address Form so the committee may be able to contact candidates with questions about the employed. Termination fliers must indicate the agency in which they are employed. date of their employment and the office or position and identify the office or agency in date on which they terminated their filing the office or agency in which they are report (generally the prior calendar year) and for your filing status. # Questions on Reportable Items

The COVER PAGE contains multiple questions which must be answered. In order to answer these questions, it is important that you first read the instructions. Once you have determined what your filing requirements are, then you should answer each question asked on your COVER PAGE. If the appropriate COVER PAGE for your report does not ask you questions about a particular PART, then that PART is not applicable to you.

If you checked "NO" to a question, you need not attach the corresponding PART If you checked "YES," then that PART must be completed and attached to your COVER PAGE. Please check "YES" even if you have attached the completed PART If you checked "NO" to every question, then only the COVER PAGE must be filed.

Please sign and date your COVER PAGE in the space provided. Your signature certifies that this page and all attached pages and statements are true, complete, and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. Do not write in the box reserved for the signature of the reviewing official.

PART I: PAYMENTS TO CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION IN LIEU OF HONORARIA

General Instructions

Report payments made directly to a charitable organization on account of a speech, appearance, or article by you. You must report the date the payment was made (or, if unascertainable, the late of the speech, article, or appearance), the name and address of the organization making the payment, the activity generating the payment, and the exact amount of the payment.

Although you may transmit a check made out by the sponsor to the charitable organization, you may not accept payments made to you which you then donate to charity. Accepting payment for a speech, article, or appearance may be an honoraria which may not be accepted by you even if you subsequently donate the amount to charity. If you have questions about the honoraria ban, please contact the Committee.

On a separate confidential report, you are also required to identify the charitable organization to which the payment was made. A separate, confidential report which names the charitable organizations receiving such payments must be filed directly with the Select Committee on Ethics.

PART II: EARNED AND NON-INVESTMENT INCOME

General Instructions

For yourself, report the name and address of the source, type, and the actual amount of non-investment and earned income exceeding $200, from any one source in the appropriate columns on the form. For your spouse, report the name and address of the source and type, but not the amount, of earned income exceeding $1,000. If you wish, you may indicate that the amount of salary is "over $1,000", but the last column may be left blank. No report of earned income of your dependent children is required.

Ban: For you and/or your spouse, report the name and address of the source of honoraria income received which aggregates $200 or more by exact amount. Give the date and describe the activity (speech, appearance, or article) generating such honoraria payment. For payments which are received by an individual through a speaker's bureau, list the actual payer as the source. Do not include payments in lieu of honoraria reported on Part I.

Include all income from non-investment sources including fees, commissions, salaries, income from personal services, retirement income, pension payments, royalty payments, or similar non-investment income. For example, if you earned $450 teaching at a law school, your entry should read . . . "John Jones Law School, Rockville, MD; Salary $450". If you earned $75 for teaching in one law school and $250 from teaching at another school, report only the $250 amount. If you have a property interest or asset (including a retirement plan) related to the item of income, list that item on Part IIIA or B as appropriate.

If you or your spouse is self-employed in a business or profession, for example as a practicing attorney who earned $50,000 during the year, to report that income you would show: For you: "self-employed practicing attorney"; Bethesda, MD; salary; and "$50,000" in the appropriate columns. For your spouse: "self-employed practice psychologist-spouse"; Bethesda, MD; salary; and "over $1,000" or you may leave the last column blank. If you or your spouse is not self-employed, then the name of the employer would be listed in the first column. Note: If this is your First Report, you are also required to complete Part X.

Exclude income from employment by the United States Government including military pay from Federal Reserve Programs, social security income, and retirement income from the United States government.

Examples:

The first example on the form represents the proper method of reporting the source of $15,000 of earned income (salary) from computer programming services the reporting individual had earned from a second job while an employee of the Senate. The second example represents acceptable- reporting of a spouse's income. Note that no amount of income for the spouse is reported, and that the filer attributed this income to the spouse

NOTE: Disclosure of income earned from outside employment is not a substitute for obtaining the approval of the Supervisor of your employing office as required by Senate Rule 37.3. Additionally, Senate Rule 36 limits outside earned income of individuals paid at or above 120% of the GS-15 rate of pay. However, not all types of income reportable in this Part are limited by Rule 36.

PART IIIA: PUBLICLY TRADED ASSETS AND UNEARNED INCOME SOURCES

General Instructions

Aside from "barned" income, you must also report sources of "unearned" income and assets held for investment or the production of income. This form separates the reporting of publicly traded assets and unearned income sources from reporting of non-publicly traded assets and unearned income sources. Although the reporting is similar, greater information is required for those non-public assets and unearned income sources because there is no publicly available information which can supplement the information provided on your form.

PART IIIA is designed to enable you to report assets and unearned income sources where those reportable items are publicly traded. Generally a description of your, your spouse's, and your dependent child's publicly traded assets and sources of unearned income is required to be listed in BLOCK A of this PART Reading from left to right across the page from each description of the asset or income source" you will be able to report in BLOCK B the value of each asset, and in BLOCK C the type and amount of income generated by that asset or received from the source. Unless specifically excepted, the specific instructions following refer to you, your spouse, and your dependent children even if the instructions refer only to "you".

Normally you will have to list an item only once in BLOCK A with all other, value and income information associated with that item shown on the same line to the right. However, when you have a number of different kinds of financial arrangements and income involving one entity, full disclosure of all the required information for that entity may require more than one line. You may always use more than one line for clarification if you choose.

If you are unable to ascertain through publicly available reference material or an investment advisor or broker whether an asset is publicly available, you may wish to report it, along with the additional information, on PART IIIB. Reporting the item on PART IIIA indicates to the Committee that this item is appropriately reported in this section.

Identification of PUBLICLY TRADED ASSETS and UNEARNED INCOME SOURCES: BLOCK A

Report the complete identity and category of value of any interest in property (real or personal) attributable to or held by you, your spouse, or your dependent child, in a publicly traded business, for investment or the production of income which has a fair market value which exceeds $1,000 as of the close of the reporting period, and also report any interest in property from which you received or had accrued to your benefit unearned income in excess of $200 during the reporting period.

These interests include, but are not limited to, publicly traded stocks, bonds, pension interests which are excepted- investment funds or hold publicly traded assets, annuities, futures contracts, mutual funds, publicly traded IRA assets, personal savings or other bank accounts, excepted and qualified blind trusts.

Municipal Bonds: Municipal bonds must be identified by the name of the municipality offering the bond and the complete name of the bond that generally indicates its type. If the bond is a general obligation bond, you may so indicate by placing- "G.O." after the complete name of the bond.

Personal Savings Accounts: Report the complete name of the financial institution where you have personal savings accounts aggregating more than, $5,000 or which generated more than $200 in unearned income during the reporting period. This includes checking: savings, certificates of deposits, and any other type of account offered through a financial institution. You must aggregate all accounts with an institution to determine whether you have reached the reporting thresholds. Do not combine accounts at separate financial institutions.

Mutual Funds: A publicly traded mutual fund must be completely identified by its complete name; i. e., the name of the investment institution offering the mutual (e.g. Templeton, Vanguard, Merrill Lynch; etc.) and the specific identification of the fund (e.g. Total Return, Equity, Science and Technology, Gold, etc.).

However, under Block C, you must indicate that it is an excepted investment fund so that reviewers will know that the information may not be publicly traded. Reporting individuals other than Members or Candidates may be asked by a supervisor for further identification of the general nature of the investments of non-diversified excepted investment funds reported on your form. You may wish to' include this information when filing your disclosure report.

Prepaid Tuition Plans: College tuition plans or savings plans known as 529 plans. For prepaid tuition plans, name the plan and sponsor, the value and income value should be reported on Part IIIA. Each of the underlying investment choices should be reported as a separate line item, with value and income category checked. Most of the investment choices offered by these plans will be EJF's.

Trusts: On PART IIIA, report qualified blind trusts, excepted trusts, and any other attributable trust interest which is publicly traded. Once you have given the complete name of the trust, you must also identify the underlying assets of that trust. However, you need not give the underlying assets of a trust that is a qualified blind trust or an excepted trust (unless they are known to you).

A qualified bilind trust is one that has been certified by the Senate Select Committee on Ethics, in accordance with Senate Rule 34.

An excepted trust is one which:

A. was not created by you, your spouse, or your dependent child; and

B. has holdings or sources of income of which you, your spouse, and any dependent child have no knowledge.

Although you may know the total value of the trust, contributions by you, your spouse or your dependent child to the corpus of the trust, or payment of the trust taxes by you, your spouse or your dependent child will remove a trust from this "excepted" status.

In the case of these two special types of trusts, you must show in BLOCK A the complete name of that trust, and in BLOCK B show the category of value of the trust (unless the qualified blind trust was executed prior to July 24, 1995, AND precludes you from receiving information of the trust's fair market value). If the value of an "excepted trust" is unknown, you may indicate "unknown." In BLOCK C, classify the trust as a "qualified blind trust" or an "excepted trust." The category of amount of the trust income to you your spouse or dependent child, or paid on behalf of one or more of them, if it exceeded $200, must also be reported in BLOCK C.

Note: You may not "create" an excepted trust by instructing a trustee not to divulge information or otherwise avoiding previous sources of knowledge upon entering Government service. A qualified blind trust is not considered to be established until it has the written approval of the Select Committee on Ethics.

Exclusions

Exclude any retirement benefits from Federal Government employment (including the Thrift Savings Plan) and any social security benefits. Exclude also any deposits aggregating $5,000 or less in personal savings accounts in a single financial institution (unless listed as a source of income). (Personal savings accounts include any certificate of deposit or any other form of deposit in a bank, savings and loan, credit union, or other similar financial institution.) You may-also exclude any assets of your spouse and dependent child which meets the three part exemption test defined above.

Valuation of Assets: BLOCK B

After you have identified the asset or income source in BLOCK A, you must show the category of value attributable to that interest by checking the appropriate column in BLOCK B. Only the category of value, rather than the actual value of the property interest or asset, must generally be shown. Please note that Option 7 requires that you give the exact value. If the value is below the reporting threshold, check the first (or "none") column.

The "Over $1,000,000" category of value only applies if the specific asset is/was held independently by the spouse or dependent child. If the asset is/was held by the filer or jointly with the spouse or dependent child, use the other categories of value, as appropriate.

You need not disclose which valuation methods you selected unless you chose either option 6 or 7 described under Definition of Terms: Value. If you prefer to give the exact value, you may.

Type and Amount of Unearned Income: BLOCK C

Report the type and amount of investment or unsarned income received by (or accrued to the benefit of) you, your spouse, or your dependent child which exceeded $200 from any one source during the reporting period in Block C of the same line where the source is identified in Block A. Those types of unearned income, which are listed at the top of columns on the form, may be reported by checking the appropriate type of income in the column and by then checking the appropriate category of amount of income. If there was no unearned income: from the related holding, or if the income was below the reporting threshold, check the "None (or less than $201)" column.

The "Over $1,000,000" dategory of income only applies if the specific asset is/was held independently by the speuse or dependent child. If the asset is/was held by the filer or jointly with the spouse or dependent child, use the other categories of income, as appropriate. If the unearned income is not of a type already listed on the form in Block C, you must specify the type under the "Other" column and give the actual amount of the income. Only unearned income of those types listed on the form may be reported by category. However, you may give the actual amount of unearned income even if the type is specified on the report.

In addition, show payments accrued or received from such interests as mineral leases, rental or lease of business equipment, or other similar interests. Identify the source of such income and check the category of amount.

OTHER INVESTMENT INCOME: In Block C, report any items of investment income from publicly traded assets and income sources which are not addressed above by identifying the specific type and actual amount of the income which exceeded $200 during the reporting period. This may include items such as annuities, the investment portion of life insurance contracts, endowment contract or estate income, or a distributive share of a publicly traded partnership or joint business venture income.

Exclude: You need not report unearned income received or accrued to your benefit from any retirement system of the United States (including the Thrift Savings Plan).

Exemption Test: At the bottom of the page you must indicate whether any asset of a spouse or a dependent child was not reported because it met the three-part exemption test defined previously in these instructions.

Examples: On PART IIIA are two examples which are representative of the reporting scheme of this PART The first example represents the proper method of reporting a stock of IBM Corporation (which is publicly traded) held at the end of the reporting period which is identified in Block A. Because it had a value of $55,000 at the close of the reporting period, in Block B, the category "$50,001-$100,000" is checked. The individual had also received dividends of $500, reported in Block C by checking the "Dividends" column and the "$201-$1,000 column. If the IBM Corporation stock had been completely sold during the reporting period, there would be a check in the "None (or less than $1,001)" column in BLOCK B because the individual no longer owned any of the stock at the end of the reporting period. In Block C, there may be an entry for capital gains income (as well as dividend income) if such income were realized from the sale during the reporting period.

Normally you will have to identify an item only once in BLOCK A with all other value and income information associated with that item shown on the same line to the right. However, when you have a number of different kinds of financial arrangements and income involving one entity, full disclosure of all the required information for that entity may require more than one line. You may always use more than one line for clarification if you choose.

Identification of NON-PUBLICLY TRADED ASSETS and UNEARNED INCOME SOURCES: BLOCK A

Report the name, address (city and state), and the nature of the business or a description of the holding of any interest in property (real or personal) held by you, your spouse, or your dependent child, in a non-publicly traded trade or business, for investment or the production of income, which has a fair market value which exceeds $1,000 as of the close of the reporting period. These interests include, but are not limited to, non-public stocks, pension interests, non-public IRA assets, private tax shelters, beneficial interests in trusts or estates, real estate, commercial crops, livestock, accounts (or other funds) receivable, and collectable items held for resale or investment.

REAL PROPERTY: A personal residence held for investment or production of income, such as a summer home rented during parts of the year, must be reported. Conversely, property which is held or maintained purely, for recreational or vacation purposes need not be reported. However, if any portion of the personal residence or recreational property was rented or offered for rent for any period of time during the reporting period, or if the property includes a working farm, ranch, mineral excavation, or other buildings for rent, that property is used for the production of income and must be reported.

PERSONAL PROPERTY: Personal property not held for investment or the production of income need not be reported. Intermittent sales from personal property such as collections of antiques or art holdings demonstrate that the items are held for investment or the. Production of income and should therefore be reported.

NON-PUBLIC SECURITIES OR PARTNERSHIP INTERESTS: To report interests held by you, your spouse, or your dependent child in a business, a partnership, or joint venture, give the complete name of the interest and its location (city, state), identify the character of the interest, and the nature of the business or, property. You must disclose the primary trade or business of non-public entities, as well as interests and activities which are hot solely incidental to such a trade or business. For example, if you hold an ownership interest in a private real estate rental company which primarily owns (and rents) real estate and which also buys stock in a bank, you must disclose not only the real estate owned (by type and location), but also that the company holds stock in a bank (name and location).

INTERESTS IN ESTATES: Report any interest in an estate in which you, your spouse, or dependent child has a beneficial interest by giving a brief and general statement of any interest prior to distribution. Report assets distributed during the reporting period and income for the estate in the same manner as other assets and income. (See IR 311)

Exceptions: Exclude your personal residences unless rented and any personal liability owed to you (or your spouse or dependent child) by: a spouse or dependent child; or by a parent, brother, sister or child of you, or your spouse, or your dependent child.

Valuation of Assets: BLOCK B

Once you have identified the holding in BLOCK A, show the value of the holding at the close -of the reporting period in BLOCK B. Only the category of value, rather than the actual value of the property interest or asset, must be shown. You need not disclose which valuation methods you selected unless you chose either option 6 or 7 described under Definition of Terms; Value. If the item is listed as a source of unearmed income and has no value at the close of the reporting period, check the "None (or less than $1,000)" column. The "Over $1,000,000" category of value only applies if the specific asset is/was held independently by the spouse or dependent child. If the asset is/was held by the filer or jointly with the spouse. or dependent child, use the other categories of value, as appropriate.

Type and Amount of Unearned Income: BLOCK C

In BLOCK C, indicate the type and value of any unearned or investment income over $200 from any one source received by or accrued to the benefit of you, your spouse or dependent child during the reporting period. For purposes of determining whether you meet the over $200 threshold from any one source, you must aggregate all types of investment income from that same source. Report these items on the same line as any related interest in property, if any. Note that some property interests or other assets will not have a related item of income. In such a case, check "None (or less than $201)" in BLOCK C under category of amount.

For your spouse or dependent child investment income is only required to be reported if the source of that income must be reported in BLOCK A as an interest or asset described above.

Unearned (or investment) income includes, but is not limited to income derived from dealings in property, interest, rents, dividend, capital gains; income from annuities, the investment portion of life insurance contracts, endowment contracts, or from discharge (forgiveness) of debts owed by you, your distributive share of partnership or joint venture income, gross business income, and income from an interest in an estate or trust.

If more than one type of income is derived from the same asset, check all relevant types which pertain to the category of amount or categories of amount indicated (unless an excepted investment fund). Categories of amounts may be distinguished by using the abbreviations D (for dividends), R (for rent), I (for interest), and CG (for capital gains) in the appropriate boxes in lieu of checks.

RENT: Show income received or accrued by you, your spouse, or your dependent child as rental or lease payments for occupancy or use of personal or real property in which anyone ot you have an interest. In addition, show payments accrued or received from such interests as mineral leases, rental or lease of business equipment, or other similar interests. Check the type and category of amount of all rental income.

General Instructions

Under identification of assets, name or otherwise identify the property or securities involved in the purchase, sale or exchange, and give the date of the transaction. An exchange takes place when one or more items are given directly for another item(s) of equal value. Sale of an item and subsequent purchase should be listed as a sale and purchase, not an exchange. Identify which items are given and received in any reportable exchange.

Where multiple transactions have occurred which involve the same asset, you may list the item once, check purchase and/or sale, and note "biweekly," "monthly," or other appropriate frequency, and check the category for the aggregate amount of the sales and purchases. Your supervisor may request more specific information on the dates of multiple transactions. Reporting an exchange generally requires reporting two items since one item is exchanged for another.

The amount to be reported, by the appropriate category of value, is the gross purchase or sales price or the fair market value in the case of an exchange. The gain or loss on sales is not required to be disclosed under this section, but should be disclosed under Part IIIA or B if it is over $200:

For investment clubs or other holding arrangements, report each of the underlying assets of the clubs or arrangements that were bought or sold during the reporting period where your (your spouse or dependent child's) interest in an asset was greater than $1,000.

You must report any underlying transactions of a non-public business or commercial enterprise, investment pool, or other entity in which you, your spouse, or your dependent child have a direct proprietary, general partnership or other interest unless (1) the entity is an "excepted investment fund," reported on Part IIIA or (2) the transaction is incidental to the primary trade or business or an entity as indicated by you on Part III B.

Transactions of a trust or other financial arrangement should be described in the same manner as any other transaction, but the reporting individual may indicate that these transactions were at the direction of a trustee Exclusions: You need not report a transaction involving: (1) Your personal residence(s); (2) a money market account or personal savings account; (3) an asset of your spouse or dependent child if the asset meets the three-part Exemption Test; (4) a holding of a "qualified blind trust," or an "excepted trust," (5) U.S. treasury bills, hotes; and bonds; (6) transactions which occurred prior to your Federal Government employment; and (7) transactions solely by and between you, your spouse, or your dependent child.

Example: The example on the form shows the proper way to disclose ABC Corporation common stock which the reporting individual purchased for $50,000 on 2/1/0X.

Exemption Test: With respect to transactions involving interests of a spouse or a dependent child, do not report transactions involving items which meet the three part exemption test described in the Definitions above. If you do not report any transaction for any item for a spouse or dependent child because that Item meets the above three-part test, you must indicate so at the bottom of the page.

PART V: GIFTS

The Act requires you to disclose the receipt of gifts by you, your spouse, or your dependent child from any one source other than the U.S. Government. This reporting requirement applies to gifts received by your spouse or dependent child to the extent the gift was not given to him or her totally independent of the relationship to you. A "gift" means any payment, forbearance, advance, rendering or deposit of money, or anything of value, unless consideration of equal or greater value is received by the donor (see Interpretative Rulings 327 and 414).

General Instructions

If an item is given jointly to you (or your spouse or dependent child) and any other person, and is not readily divisible, the gift must be reported as if the entire gift was given to you (or your spouse or dependent child) individually (see Interpretative Ruling 201).

Exclusions: In determining which tangible gifts must be reported or aggregated; exclude these items:

Gifts having a value of $122 or less;

- Gifts received from "relatives" (see Definitions of Terms; Relative);
- 3. Bequests and other forms of inheritance:

- Gifts given to a spouse or dependent child totally independent of the relationship to you:
- Gift items in the nature of communications to your office, such as subscriptions to newspapers and periodicals;

- 11. Gifts of personal hospitality on the donor's personal or family premises (personal hospitality must be for a non-business purpose; may only be from a person rather than a business or other entity; and does not include transportation; see Interpretative Ruling 139).

Note: Disclosure of gifts does not authorize their acceptance in violation of Senate Rule 35 or any other applicable law. Some gifts may qualify under an exception to the Gifts Rule and thus be acceptable; such gifts are still required to be reported here under the gifts over $305).

PART VI: REIMBURSEMENTS

You must report reimbursement (payments to cover travel related expenses) received by you, your spouse, or your dependent child during the reporting period which aggregate more than $305 from any one source other than the U.S. Government (see Interpretative Ruling 284). This reporting requirement applies to you regardless of whether the trip was officially connected, personal or campaign (but see exclusions). This reporting requirement applies to reimbursements received by your spouse or dependent child to the extent that the reimbursement was not given to him or her totally independent of the relationship to you.

Members are also required to disclose as a "reimbursement" the use of any campaign funds to defray otherwise unreimbursed expenses incurred in connection with official duties. Disclosure must include the identity of the campaign committee from which funds were received, the date and purposes of the disbursement, the amount, and the individual or organization to whom payments were made. This disclosure is not required, however, if disbursements are itemized in reports filed under the Federal Election Campaign Act (see Interpretative Ruling 389).

General Instructions

Report the source and a brief description (including a travel itinerary, dates, and the nature of expenses provided) of any reimbursements (except those from the United States Government or otherwise excluded) aggregating more than $305 which you, your spouse, or your dependent child received from any one source. Amounts of reimbursements need not be specified unless they were made from campaign funds.

For example, if you were reimbursed $400 for travel and lodging expenses in connection with a speech you made for the Denver Realtors Association, you would report this item on the form by showing under SOURCE... "Denver Realtors Assoc., 45 Bridge St., Denver, CO", and under BRIEF DESCRIPTION..."travel expenses for speech made in Denver: United Airlines round trip from Washington, D.C. 1/22/0X; lodging at Denver Airport Marriott". If your spouse made this speech and received the reimbursement totally independent of his or her relationship to you, no information for this item need be

PART VII: LIABILITIES

General Instructions

Identify and give the category of amount of the liabilities which you, your spouse or dependent child owed to any creditor which exceeded $10,000 at any time during the reporting period. You need only disclose liabilities which exceeded $10,000 at any time during the reporting period.

The "Over $1,000,000" dategory applies only if the obligation was, that of the spouse or dependent child. If the obligation was the filer's, or a joint obligation with the spouse or dependent child, use the other categories, as appropriate.

You must also indicate the type of liability and date the liability was incurred interest rate, and term (if applicable) of each liability. The category of value which must be checked is that which indicates the highest amount owed on that liability during the reporting period, not just at the end of the period. If the liability was completely paid during the reporting period, you may also note that en the form if you wish.

If you are only able to identify a fiduciary rather than the actual creditor, and you certify in the report that you have made a good faith effort to determine who the actual creditor is and were unable to do so, you may give the name and address of the fiduciary, rather than the actual creditor.

If the interest rate is not a set rate or is a variable one, indicate the range of the rate during the year, or the formula used to vary the rate if it can be determined by public reference, i. e. prime +2%; and under TERM the duration of the loan.

You are required to report any liability of any business, investment pool, or other entity, in which you, your spouse, or your dependent child have an interest, unless (1) the liability is incidental to the primary trade or business of the entity, (2) the entity is an excepted investment fund reportable in Part IIIA, or (3) the entity is publicly traded and described in standard reference manuals for publicly traded entities reportable in Part IIIA.

PART IX: AGREEMENTS OR ARRANGEMENTS

General Instructions

Under STATUS AND TERMS, describe the agreement or arrangement with appropriate specificity. Under PARTIES, show the name of the organization, or entity, and (if applicable) the name and title of the official, corporate officer, or principal person responsible for carrying out the terms of the agreement or arrangement. Under DATE, show the date of any such arrangement.

No report is required on this Part regarding your spouse or your dependent child.

You must disclose any negotiations for future employment from the point you and a potential private sector employer have agreed to your future employment by that employer whether or not you have settled all of the terms, such as salary, title benefits, and date employment is to begin. Your office or agency may require internal disclosure of negotiations much earlier and you should seek guidance before conducting any negotiations with persons with whom you do business.

Example: The example on the form shows the severance agreement under which the reporting individual expects to receive a lump sum payment from the law firm he has left in order to enter the Government. It also shows a continuing pension interest and describes the nexus between the organization and the pension interest, so that a determination of the individual's continuing financial interest in the firm and possible affiliation with the firm can be made.

PART X: COMPENSATION IN EXCESS OF $5,000 PAID BY ONE SOURCE

General Instructions

You must disclose sources of compensation in excess of $5,000 generated by you and a description of the nature of services you provided. This includes not only the source of your salary or other fees, but the disclosure of clients (other than the U.S. Government) for whom you personally provided $5,000 or more in services even though the clients' payments were made to your employer, firm or other business affiliation.

In identifying the source of compensation, you must report the name and address of the source of the payments and the nature of the duties performed or services rendered for each source (other than the United States Government) from which you derived or generated compensation in excess of $5,000 in the two preceding calendar years, and the present calendar year.

This Part does not require you to disclose the value of the compensation for these services; however, it does require a brief description of the services provided. When a source has paid you directly, you may have a corresponding entry for the income on Part II. A client who paid your business affiliation $5,000 or more for your services may appear only in this Part.

Exclude: (1) information to the extent that it is considered confidential as a result of a privileged relationship established by law, or (2) information about clients for whom services were provided by a business entity or affiliation of which you were a member, general partner, or employer unless you were directly involved in the provision of the services. The name of a client of a law firm is not generally considered confidential. No report is required regarding sources of compensation paid to your spouse or your dependent child.

Example: The examples on the form show the proper way to disclose the business affiliation which paid the reporting individual's salary (compensation), in this case a law firm, and a client of the firm for which the reporting individual personally provided over $5,000 worth of services.
