dear senator, i will check with brookstone tomorrow to determine why the chair has not been delivered. are you and cas feeling better? the flu is so miserable. lily went to cal-berkely to watch justin box saturday night, see called to confirm what he said which was that he easily won the fight but lost the decision due to 3 of the 5 judges being from berkely. hope you are both feeling better and i will let you know about the chair. my bes, bob
