

EXPERIENCED WHITE COLLAR TRIAL ATTORNEY (GS-0905-13/14/15)
FRAUD SECTION
CRIMINAL DIVISION
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
WASHINGTON, D.C.
08-CRM-FRD-033

About the Office: The Fraud Section is a litigating unit that investigates and prosecutes complex white-collar crime cases throughout the country and implements and coordinates enforcement policy. Fraud Section cases focus on securities fraud, health care fraud, financial institution and insurance fraud, procurement fraud and international criminal activities such as violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

Responsibilities and Opportunity Offered: The Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, is seeking experienced attorneys to fill openings in the Fraud Section based in Washington, D.C. The Fraud Section, the largest litigating component of the Criminal Division, directs and coordinates the federal effort against fraud and white-collar crime. The section annually prosecutes over 80 fraud cases of national significance or great complexity. Currently, the section is prioritizing investigations of securities fraud, health care fraud and FCPA violations.

Qualifications: Required qualifications: Applicants must possess a J.D. degree, be duly licensed and authorized to practice as an attorney under the laws of a State, territory, or the District of Columbia and have at least three years of post-J.D. legal experience. Applicants should have a strong academic background as well as excellent research and writing skills.

Preferred Qualifications: Prior experience handling complex white collar cases. Clerkship with federal judge is highly desirable. Criminal trial experience and a demonstrated interest in securities fraud, health care fraud or enforcement of the FCPA is desirable.

Salary Information: Current salary and years of experience determine the appropriate salary level
