On November 8, 2002, the Department's Office of the Inspector General identified its list of the top ten most serious management challenges for the Department. This year, the OIG has provided the Department with two lists: one that does not include any INS issues, and another that addresses INS management issues exclusively. The Inspector General's memorandum (with attachments) to the Attorney General is provided in Appendix D, and can be accessed electronically on the Department's web site at
