The Community Justice Partnership (CJP) between the Metropolitan Police Department's 3rd Police District and Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency for the District of Columbia (CSOSA) has assembled a Community Justice Advisory Network (CJAN). It is comprised of key stakeholders and includes collaboration with community groups, civic and tenants associations, Advisory Neighborhood Commissions, nonprofit organizations, schools, the faith community, businesses and government agencies.

CSOSA and the Metropolitan Police Department is conducting a meeting of the CJAN this evening, February 8, 2001, at the Frank Reeves Center, 2000 14th Street, NW, in the second floor community room. All interested parties are welcome to attend. For more information please contact, Ms. Rochelle Durant, Community Relations Specialist, (202) 220-5304.

CJAN's purpose is to serve as the advisory committee to the CJP to: identify priority public safety issues/concerns; identify community assets in order to build community capacity and develop and facilitate the implementation of strategies for community education and prevention and intervention activities. CJAN's mission is to impact the resolution of key public safety issues/concerns resulting in an improved quality of life throughout the community.
