Prisoner Reentry—What is Being Done to Assist Returning Offenders?

CSOSA to Use Video Link With a Federal Prison in North Carolina to Prepare Offenders for Return to DC

Scheduled activities available at www.csosa.gov at the top of the page.

Who: Approximately 200 adult offenders within three months of returning to the District of Columbia and representatives of the agencies listed below.

What: A daylong presentation of realities of reentry and overviews of services available to returnees.

When: Wednesday, July 20, 2005 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Where: CSOSA headquarters at 633 Indiana Ave. NW. , Training Center Room 4A

Why: CSOSA is emerging as a national leader in the field of community supervision. The agency has pioneered the use of video technology to deliver information about community-based resources and services to returning offenders. The Community Resource Day videoconference complements the release preparation activities currently available to offenders returning from the Rivers Correctional Institution, in Winton, NC.
