

Ordering Eagle Parts and Feathers from the National Eagle Repository

For hundreds of years, Native Americans have used eagle parts and feathers for religious and cultural purposes, including healing, marriage, and naming ceremonies. Recognizing the significance of eagles to Native Americans, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (Service) established the National Eagle Repository (Repository) in the early 1970s to provide Native Americans with the carcasses, parts and feathers of golden and bald eagles for religious purposes.

Who may obtain eagle carcasses, parts, and feathers from the Repository?

Only enrolled members of federally recognized tribes may apply to receive and possess eagle carcasses, parts, and feathers from the Repository for religious purposes.

How do I apply for these items from the Repository?

To apply for an eagle carcass or parts or feathers from the Repository for the first time, you must submit a Permit Application & First Order request, and a Certificate of Enrollment in a Federally Recognized Tribe (Form 3-200-15A) to the Regional Migratory Bird Permit Office responsible for the State in which you live. The Permit Office will process your permit application and, if approved, issue you a permit to possess for religious purposes eagle carcasses or parts (including feathers) provided by the Repository. The Permit Office will simultaneously transmit your First Order to the Repository for filling. If you wish to order additional carcasses or parts at a later time, you must submit a Re-order Request (Form 3-200-15B) directly to the Repository.

Did the permit process change recently?

Yes, the Service recently streamlined the permitting process for eagle carcasses and parts. Previously, a first-time applicant submitted a permit application and shipping request to his/her Regional Migratory Bird Permit Office, and the Permit Office transmitted the order to the Repository. The applicant did not receive his/her permit until after receiving the shipment and mailing back a signed Acknowledgement of Receipt to the Permit Office. Each subsequent shipping order was sent to the Permit Office to be forwarded to the Repository. The permit was amended when the Permit Office received the signed Acknowledgement of Receipt for the re-order.

Now, the Permit Office will process only the initial permit application and, if approved, issue the permit right away. The permit will authorize the applicant to possess eagle carcasses and parts provided by the Repository and will be the only permit needed, regardless of the number of requests filled by the Repository. The Permit Office will then forward the first order to the Repository for filling. An applicant will not have to send an Acknowledgement of Receipt to the Permit Office in order to get their permit. Permit holders will send any subsequent Re-Order

Requests directly to the Repository. The permit will not have to be amended to cover re-orders. The original permit will be valid for the life of the permit holder.

In summary, now you will obtain your life-time permit from your Regional Migratory Bird Permit Office. After your first order has been filled, you will deal directly with the Repository for any re-orders. You will contact your Permit Office only if you wish to make name or address amendments to your permit.

What items may Native Americans order from the Repository?

Native Americans may order up to one whole golden or bald eagle or equivalent parts at a time. They may also order specific eagle parts or loose eagle feathers.

What kinds of parts are available?

Orders may be placed for a pair of wings, tail, head, pair of talons, or trunk. You may not order more of any part than is found in one whole eagle.

How many loose eagle feathers may an individual request?

There are two types of loose feather requests:

- 10 Quality Loose Feathers: These consist of 8 wing feathers and 2 tail feathers which are hand picked. Because supplies are limited, no more than 2 tail feathers will be provided per order. Wing feathers will be selected half from the left and half from the right wing, unless specified all from one side. Spike feathers will be utilized unless specified. Efforts are made to match the best quality feathers.
- 20 Miscellaneous Eagle Feathers: These consist of assorted bald or golden eagle feathers and may include various size feathers (such as primaries, secondaries, tail, and plumes). Quality may vary. Applicants may not customize orders.

May a school request eagle feathers for graduation?

Yes, schools may request eagle feathers to present at graduation to Native American students who are enrolled members of federally recognized tribes. A representative from the school who is an enrolled member of a federally recognized tribe should apply at the beginning of the school year under the miscellaneous eagle feather category, which has the shortest turn around time. More than one representative may apply; however, only one order per applicant (including requests for feathers for personal use) may be placed or awaiting shipment at a time. Upon receipt of feathers, applicants may reorder and may continue to do so throughout the year until the number of feathers needed have been acquired.

How long does it take the Repository to fill orders?

The demand for eagle carcasses, parts, and feathers is high, and supplies are limited. The time needed to fill requests will vary depending on the items ordered. Estimated time frames for various items are provided below. (Please note that requests are filled based on current inventory.)

Whole immature golden eagles	Approximately 4 years
Whole adult golden eagles	Approximately 3½ years
Whole adult and immature bald eagles	Approximately 2½ years
Whole tail only	Approximately 3½ years
Pair of eagle wings	Approximately 1 year
10 loose quality feathers	Approximately 6 months
20 miscellaneous feathers	Approximately 3 months
Trunks only	On receipt of request
Head only	On receipt of request
Talons only	On receipt of request

Instructions for Re-Ordering
Eagle Parts for Native American Religious Purposes

IMPORTANT: Use this Re-Order Request (Form 3-200-15B) only if you already have a permit to possess eagle carcasses, parts, and feathers from the National Eagle Repository (Repository). If you do not already have a permit, do not use this form. Instead, you need to apply to your Regional Migratory Bird Office that serves the State where you live. See instructions on page 3 under “Applying for a Permit.”

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service administers the Bald and Golden Eagle Protection Act, the primary Federal law protecting bald and golden eagles. This law provides for the use of eagle parts and feathers for religious purposes by Native Americans. Eagle carcasses, parts, and feathers are accumulated by, and made available to Native Americans through, the Repository. In order to receive material from the Repository, you must first obtain a permit from the Service Regional Migratory Bird Permit Office responsible for your State. You only need to obtain a single permit. That one permit will authorize all future shipments of eagle carcasses, parts, and feathers from the Repository. Once you have that permit, you may make future requests directly to the Repository using this form each time. If you do not have a permit yet, see the instructions on page 3 under “Applying for a Permit.”

The Repository serves Native Americans throughout the entire 50 states. Shipments are prioritized according to the date the Repository receives a completed Re-Order Request form. You can avoid delays in the processing of your Re-Order Request by ensuring that the information you provide is complete and legible. We must have your current address and telephone number for the Repository to contact you when your request is ready to be filled. ***IMPORTANT: Notify the Repository at (303) 287-2110 if you change your address or telephone number. The Repository will not ship any orders without prior telephone contact.

Because the supply of eagle carcasses, parts, and feathers is limited, you may have only one request pending at a time, and you may not request both a whole bird and additional parts in the same request. Requests for whole carcasses average 2½ to 4 years to fill (shorter wait for bald eagles, longest wait for immature golden eagles). Requests for loose feathers can usually be filled between 3 and 6 months. An order for parts may not exceed the equivalent of a whole bird. A request for 10 quality feathers includes 8 wing feathers, two tail feathers. Please refer to page 3 for descriptions of different eagle parts and feathers.

Use this Re-Order Request (Form 3-200-15B) only if you already have a permit. (If you do not have a permit yet, see instructions below.) When filling it out, make sure you request either a whole bird or parts. Do not ask for both. Be sure to fill in your permit number. You do not need to resubmit your Certification of Enrollment. Mail the Reorder Request to:

National Eagle Repository
Building 128
Rocky Mountain Arsenal
Commerce City, CO 80022

IMPORTANT: Notify the Repository at (303) 287-2110 if you change your address or telephone number. The Repository will not ship any eagles, feathers, or parts without prior telephone contact.
