

WINNING THE WAR ON TERROR

“As long as the United States of America is determined and strong, this will not be an age of terror; this will be an age of liberty, here and across the world.”

—President George W. Bush

Defeat of Regimes Supporting Terror

Afghanistan:

- Dismantled the repressive Taliban regime.
- Denied al-Qaida safe-haven from which to plan, train, and conduct operations.

Iraq:

- Defeated a regime that developed and used weapons of mass destruction, that harbored and supported terrorists, committed outrageous human rights abuses, and defied the just demands of the United Nations and the world.
- Shut down the Salman Pak training camp where members of al-Qaida had trained.
- Eliminated from Iraq the Abu Musab al-Zarqawi network, which had established a poison and explosives training camp in northeastern Iraq.

Worldwide Cooperation Against Terror

The U.S. sponsored (and the UN Security Council unanimously adopted) Resolution 1373, which reaffirmed the Council’s condemnation of the September 11 terrorist attacks and obligated UN members states to deny financing, support, and safe harbor for terrorists.

Law Enforcement:

- Nearly two-thirds of the senior al-Qaida leaders, operational managers, and key facilitators have been killed or taken into custody.
- Almost all of those directly involved in orchestrating the September 11 attacks are now in custody or confirmed dead, including 9/11 mastermind Khalid Sheikh Muhammad and key plotters Ramzi bin al-Shibh and Abu Zubaydah.
- More than 3,000 al-Qaida associates have been detained in over 100 countries.
- Pakistan has taken more than 500 suspected Taliban and al-Qaida operatives into custody.
- Cells have been disrupted in Singapore, Italy, and else-

TRACKING TERRORISTS
