PART II. EARNED AND NON-INVESTMENT INCOME

Report the source (name and address), type, and amount of earned income to you from any source aggregating $200 or more during the reporting period. For your spouse, report the source (name and address) and type of earned income which aggregate $1,000 or more during the reporting period. No amount needs to be specified for your spouse (see page 3, Part B of the Instructions). Do not report income from employment by the U.S. Government for you or your spouse.

Individuals not covered by the Honoraria Ban:

For you and/or your spouse, report honoraria income received which aggregates $200 or more by exact amount, give the date of, and describe the activity (speech, appearance or article) generating such honoraria payment. Do not include payments in lieu of honoraria reported on Part I.

SECOND AND CONSTITUTION AVENUE, NE.
WASHINGTON, DC 20510-8425
TELEPHONE (202) 224-2981

August 6, 1999

The Honorable Ted Stevens
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Stevens:

This responds to your recent letter to the Select Committee on Ethics regarding your receipt of the Dwight D. Eisenhower Leadership Prize (the "Prize"). The Prize includes a one-time cash grant of $25,000. You have asked the Committee if, pursuant to the Senate Gifts Rule (Rule 35), you may accept this cash grant.

According to your letter and to information provided to the Committee by the Eisenhower Institute (the "Institute"), the Institute sponsors the Prize in honor of the memory of the late President Dwight D. Eisenhower. The Institute is a nonpartisan, not-for-profit entity which does not lobby and which takes no positions on legislation. The Prize was first awarded in 1991. The prior recipients of the Prize are: Secretary of Defense Cohen (1998), Nobel Laureate Elie Wiesel (1997), Former President Bush (1996), Former Senator Dole (1995), Former Senator Bentsen (1994), General Colin Powell (1993), and Lieutenant General Brent Scowcroft (1992).

Award recipients are chosen annually by the Chair of the Institute, the President of Gettysburg College and the Executive Committee of the Institute. In selecting the Prize recipient the Institute looks to its published guiding principles to select someone whose lifetime accomplishments reflect President Eisenhower's legacy of (i) integrity and leadership, (ii) promoting broader understanding of America's role and responsibilities in world affairs, and (iii) fostering leadership development and public service in America and its youth.

In material provided to the Committee, Ms. Mary Eisenhower Atwater, grand-daughter of President Eisenhower, discussed the basis for your selection as the Prize recipient:

"(You have been) a pillar in American political culture for over 30 years. (Your) intuition, dedication, and experience have also served as a bridge, a bridge that brought the great territory of Alaska closer to her family in the United States, and also a bridge that has brought the integrity, brilliance, devotion, and hope of the '50's carefully and gently through the quagmires of the recent events."

The Committee understands that you did not solicit the Prize nor did you participate in anyway in the process through which you were selected. The Committee further understands that neither you nor any member of your family is affiliated with either the Prize or the Institute.

Senate Rule 35 prohibits a Member, officer or employee of the Senate from receiving any gift of a value of $50 or more, or gifts (of $10 or more) from one source aggregating $100 or more in one calendar year; there are a number of exceptions to Rule 35 pursuant to which certain gifts exceeding these dollar value limits may be accepted. One such exception, set forth at paragraph 1(c)(11) of Rule 35, provides that a Member, officer or employee may accept

Honorary degrees (and associated travel, food, refreshments, and entertainment) and other bona fide, nonmonetary awards presented in recognition of public service (and associated food, refreshments, and entertainment provided in the presentation of such degrees and awards). [Emphasis added.]

In elaborating upon this provision the Committee has stated--in the Senate Ethics Manual, 1999 ed. at page 43--that "Members, officers, and employees who are the intended recipient of a cash award that is bestowed in connection with an event not open to the public may accept the honor of the award, but the proposed cash award should be given directly to a designated charity."

The Prize is not "open to the public" as that term has been construed previously by the Committee for purposes of the Gifts Rule. Thus, absent a decision by the Committee to grant a waiver you could not accept the cash component of the Prize in conformity with the requirements of Rule 35. The Committee has authority to grant a waiver of Senate Rule 35 relating to acceptance of gifts pursuant to Rule 14(a)(3) of its Rules of Procedure. Paragraph 1(c)(21) of Rule 35 provides an exception to the limits of the Rule for "[a]nything for which, in an unusual case, a waiver is granted by the" Committee.

Based on the specific facts before it in this matter, as set forth above and as summarized below, the Committee has determined that it will grant a waiver of Senate Rule 35, the Gifts Rule, to allow you to personally accept and retain the $25,000 cash grant which accompanies the 1999 Dwight D. Eisenhower Leadership Prize. In granting this waiver the Committee notes its consideration of the following factors presented by this particular matter: neither the Prize nor the Institute has a direct interest in or takes positions on legislation; the Prize is an established program of recognition under which the Prize has been awarded on a regular basis in the past; the Institute looks to its published guiding principles to select the Prize recipient; the selection process for the Prize appears to be designed to minimize the potential for arbitrary or preferential decision making; the Prize has not "targeted" elected officials as recipients; the Institute, which sponsors the Prize, is a not-for-profit, nonpartisan entity and the Prize is bestowed on a nonpartisan basis; the Prize is being bestowed upon you based on your sustained accomplishments over the course of your long career; you did not solicit the Prize or participate in any way in the selection process; and neither you nor any member of your family is affiliated with the Institute or the Prize.

Note that, should you decide to accept the Prize's cash grant, the value of that grant should be reported on Part V, relating to gifts, on your annual financial disclosure form.

If you have any further questions about this matter, please do not hesitate to contact the Committee.

Sincerely,

Bob Smith
Chairman

Harry Reid
Vice Chairman
