dear catherine, i'll get an address for that jerk hannah and send it to you. there is no hurry on the others, next week will be fine. i'm not doing that much, rocky is the one who is carrying the ball and bill is seeing to it that we have ample help. deanna and i had a great time with justin, i don't have to tell you how great it is to spend time with your child.[even though they are grown]. see you next week. my best, bob
