Chapter 35) requires that the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) provide interested Federal agencies and the public an early opportunity to comment on information collection requests. ## DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Office of General Counsel Federalism; Intergovernmental Consultation

AGENCY: Office of the General Counsel, Department of Energy.

ACTION: Notice of statement of policy.

SUMMARY: The Department of Energy (DOE) is publishing a statement of policy on intergovernmental consultation in the development of regulations that have federalism implications. This statement of policy implements provisions in President Clinton's Executive Order on Federalism that require Federal agencies to consult with State and local governments in the development of regulatory policies that may have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This policy is effective March 14, 2000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Michael W. Bowers, Office of the Assistant General Counsel for Regulatory Law, U.S. Department of Energy, 1000 Independence Avenue, S.W., GC-74, Washington, D.C. 20585, (202) 586-2902.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The President issued Executive Order 13132, "Federalism," on August 4, 1999 (64 FR 43255, Aug. 10, 1999). Section 6(a) of the Order requires each covered Federal agency to have "an accountable process to ensure meaningful and timely input by State and local officials in the development of regulatory policies that have federalism implications." The term "State and local officials" is defined in section 1(d) of the Order to mean "elected officials of State and local governments or their representative national organizations." "Regulatory policies that have federalism implications" refers to actions that have "substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government." E.O. 13132, section 1(a).

On October 28, 1999, the Administrator, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, within the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), issued to heads of executive departments and agencies guidance for implementing Executive Order 13132. Pursuant to section 6 of the Order, the Administrator requested that each agency federalism official submit a description of the agency's consultation process to OMB by January 31, 2000. The General Counsel, who is the DOE federalism official, has submitted this statement of policy to OMB.

The intergovernmental consultation procedures required by Executive Order 13132 and by the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Pub. L. 104-4) are similar. For that reason, DOE has modeled this statement of policy on its final policy statement on intergovernmental consultation under the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995, which DOE published on March 18, 1997 (62 FR 12820). This will permit DOE to use the same basic consultation process for development of a regulation that both contains a significant Federal intergovernmental mandate and has federalism implications.

The intergovernmental consultation process required by Executive Order 13132 expands and supersedes the consultation procedures under Executive Order 12875, "Enhancing the Intergovernmental Partnership" (58 FR 58093, Oct. 28, 1993). E.O. 13132 section 10(b). However, Executive Order 13132 supplements, but does not supersede, the requirements in Executive Order 12372, "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs" (3 CFR, 1982 Comp., p. 197). E.O. 13132 section 10(a). Executive Order 12372 directs Federal agencies, to the extent permitted by law, to rely on State and local processes for consultation with elected State and local government officials that would provide the non-Federal funds for, or that would be directly affected by, proposed Federal assistance or direct Federal development.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on February 11, 2000.

Mary Anne Sullivan,
General Counsel.

DOE adopts the following Statement of Policy:
