“BILLY GOAT BANDIT” CHARGED WITH APRIL 2008 ROBBERY OF GULF SHORES BANK TRUST

A federal grand jury for the Southern District of Alabama has returned a one-count indictment charging Gary Clayton Walker, also known as “The Billy Goat Bandit” of Chickasaw, Alabama, with bank robbery. The indictment alleges that Walker robbed the Bank Trust located at 1700 Gulf Shores Parkway in Gulf Shores, Alabama, of $1,065.00 on April 15, 2008. The maximum penalty provided by law for the first offense is 20 years imprisonment.

As in all criminal cases, the Indictment returned by the Grand Jury is only an allegation, and the defendant is presumed innocent.

This case was investigated by the Gulf Shores Police Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The case will be prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney D. Andrew Sigler.
