NEWS RELEASE

Eisenhower Presidential Library and Museum Announces New Holiday Hours

President George W. Bush has signed an Executive Order excusing most Executive Branch employees from duty on December 24. As a result, the Eisenhower Presidential Library and Museum announced today new hours for this holiday season.

On December 24, all offices, the Research Room, Visitors Center and Boyhood Home will be closed. The Place of Meditation and Library exhibit areas will be open. The Museum will be open without charge. The Library exhibit areas and Museum will be open from 9:00 a.m. until 4:45. The Place of Meditation will be open dawn to dusk.

Buildings will close at 4:00 p.m. on December 31, although visitors may stay in the Museum until 5:00 p.m.

On Christmas Day, December 25, and New Year's Day, January 1, all buildings will be closed.

For information about the Eisenhower Presidential Library and Museum, please call 785-263-6700 or toll free 1-877-RING-IKE. The Eisenhower Presidential Library and Museum is one of twelve presidential libraries operated by the National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, D.C.
