OCTOBER 11, 2007

To celebrate the debut of a new work

“Mamie Doud Eisenhower: The General's First Lady”

A lecture by
Marilyn Irvin Holt
with remarks and introduction by Mary Jean Eisenhower, granddaughter of Mamie Doud Eisenhower

7:00 PM, October 11, Visitors Center Auditorium

Marilyn Irvin Holt, award-winning author, will speak about her new book, Mamie Doud Eisenhower: *The General's First Lady, which Fred I. Greenstein, author of The Hidden-Hand Presidency: Eisenhower as Leader calls “the first three-dimensional account of the wife of one of the leading figures of the twentieth century.”

A reception and book-signing will be held in the Mamie Doud Eisenhower Gallery of the Eisenhower Museum following the lecture. New exhibit items will be added to the gallery for this event. Reserve your copy of the book today.

The event is free and open to the public. Reservations are suggested. Please bring a friend!

For questions please call 785-263-6700, toll free 1-877-746-4453 or email: LindaK.Smith@nara.gov

The book lecture and reception is underwritten by Holm Automotive Center, Abilene, KS.

This program is a collaborative effort of the Eisenhower Presidential Library & Museum, The Eisenhower Foundation, and the University Press of Kansas. We are grateful to the Eisenhower Foundation for their support. Many of our programs such as the acclaimed Five Star Leaders, book lectures and Ike Birthday Week events would not be possible without crucial financial support of The Eisenhower Foundation. For more information about our programs, please visit our website at www.eisenhower.archives.gov.

Please join us for other Eisenhower Week events:

October 11th the annual Ike Day program

October 12th the Eisenhower Foundation Dinner & VFW Vigil

October 13th the Presidential Wreath-Laying & American Legion Pilgrimage

The Eisenhower Presidential Library and Museum is one of 12 presidential libraries administered by the National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, DC.
