Hunting is permitted on Seney National Wildlife Refuge with a valid Michigan hunting license. In addition to all applicable State regulations, the following regulations apply:

Hunting Regulations

- Baiting and artificial lures are prohibited for all species.
- Dogs may be used to hunt Snowshoe Hare, Ruffed Grouse, and American Woodcock. The use of dogs to hunt Black Bear is prohibited.
- If a wounded animal enters a closed area, call refuge headquarters, or track it without a firearm.
- White-tailed Deer may be checked at the refuge headquarters during normal business hours.
- State concealed handgun permits are not valid on federal lands.
- All-terrain vehicles and snowmobiles are prohibited on the refuge.
- Vehicles are allowed on refuge roads when gates are open. No off-road travel allowed with any motorized vehicle. Park along roads leaving room for vehicles to pass and do not block gates. Beware of soft shoulders and steep banks.
- Portable tree stands are permitted. Only one stand per hunter is allowed and it must be removed by the end of the season.
- No screw in steps or any objects that penetrate through the bark of a tree are allowed.
- Free standing ground blinds built of manufactured materials must be removed at the close of hunting season.
- Blinds and stands must be clearly marked, and readable from the ground, with the owner's name and address.
- No cutting any part of standing trees or shrubs (dead or alive) for any purpose.
- During the firearms and muzzle-loader seasons for White-tailed Deer, camping is allowed west of the Driggs River. However, no camping is allowed in the Wilderness or Natural Areas.
