During the production; performs as Lighting Director, assistant lighting director, studio and stage electrician, TV camera person, studio camera operator, video technician, videotape technician, floor director and coordinator for scenic elements and storage. During pre-production; interacts and gives creative ideas and comments to the language service director, producers and policy administrators. Performs preventative maintenance on a wide variety of professional equipment. Provides training on the basic operation of lighting control desks to other staff in the studio branch. Adjusts, monitors and analyzes the performance and makes appropriate adjustments to the equipment while the system is operating during a broadcast or production. Determines from sophisticated technical monitoring equipment, such as waveform monitors, vector scopes, meters and other test equipment.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EVALUATIONQUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

Applicants must have 1 year of specialized experience equivalent to the next lower grade level.

SPECIALIZED EXPERIENCE: Experience that equipped the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills and abilities to perform successfully the duties of the position, and that is typically in or related to the work described in this announcement under "major duties". An example of such experience includes working as a television lighting director in a broadcast production facility. Facilities may include TV studios, auditoriums, briefing rooms, control rooms, etc. They should have audio, video, sound mixing, equalizing and videotape recording capabilities.

HOW YOU WILL BE EVALUATED: Once the application process is complete, a review of your application will be made to ensure you meet the job requirements. Your resume and supporting documentation will be reviewed under merit promotion procedures and compared to your responses to the KSAs (as applicable) to determine if you meet the minimum qualifications for this position.

DIRECTIONS FOR COMPLETING KSA STATEMENTS: Consider what in your education and experience background best reflects your possession of each knowledge, skills, and ability (KSA). For each KSA, provide a clear, concise statement demonstrating your possession of the KSA as it relates to the position for which you are applying. Your statements should illustrate the degree to which your background has equipped you with each KSA, reflecting the scope and depth of your knowledge, skills, or ability and your level of responsibility. You may refer to paid or volunteer work, education or training, or any other applicable experience.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITY FACTORS: Relative numerical values equate to a total of 30 points.

1. Extensive skills in the operation and capabilities of a wide range of broadcasting equipment, including scopes, electrical meters, light meters and DMX testing equipment. (6)
2. Extensive knowledge of troubleshooting electrical distribution and data distribution systems. (6)
3. Demonstrated skill in reading schematics, drawings and specifications. (6)
4. Working knowledge and experience in the programming of the Strand Palette, Strand 200, Strand 300, Strand 301 lighting desks and ETC desks, including the Express. (6)
5. Knowledge of U.S. government purchase and acquisitions procedures. (6)

The submission of statements addressing the Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities (KSAs) listed above is highly encouraged so as to assure that your relevant experience for the position for which you are applying is clearly articulated and geared towards each KSA element. KSA statements should be clear, concise examples of your experience that shows the depth of your knowledge, level of skill or the degree of your ability related to the individual KSA elements.

If you do not submit KSA statements, your relevant experience will be gleaned from the information affected in your application or resume only in order to evaluate your credentials against the KSAs. Please note however, that failure to submit KSA statements may result in lower scores being assigned during the evaluation process, in comparison with other candidates who submit targeted KSA statements.
