

SABIT GROUP PROGRAM INFRASTRUCTURE: ROAD CONSTRUCTION FOR EURASIA

FEBRUARY 23 – MARCH 22, 2008

PROGRAM TOPICS

Business Related Themes

Project management
Strategic planning
Finance
Tenders
Life cycle cost analysis
Contractor/sub-contractor Relationship
Communication

Governmental Issues

Funding
Federal/state/local Relationship
Regulations and Laws
Federal Highway Administration
Industry associations and organizations

Road Construction Projects

Urban
High-volume roadways
Regional, interregional highways
Rural, low-volume roads
Bridges and tunnels
Road signs and markings
Extreme weather construction

Materials

Asphalt: hot mix and cold mix
Concrete
Aggregates and quarries
Additives
Bitumen
Reinforcements
Reclaimed materials
Waste materials

Equipment

Paving equipment
Asphalt producing equipment
Compacting equipment
Earthmoving equipment
Purchasing
Leasing

Concepts and Technology

IT applications in road construction management
Quality control and inspection
Construction scheduling
Design and engineering
Material testing and development

Environmental Issues

Environmental impact studies
Construction waste management
Worker safety

Host companies are invited to discuss these and other topics related to Road Construction. For more details on specific interests, or to learn how you can participate, please visit the SABIT website.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Nancy Luther, Program Recruiter
International Trade Administration
U.S. Department of Commerce, SABIT Program
Voice: (202) 482-3644
Fax: (202) 482-2443
E-mail: Nancy.Luther@mail.doc.gov
Web: <http://www.mac.doc.gov/sabit>

