

SABIT GROUP PROGRAM TIMBER AND WOOD PROCESSING FOR RUSSIA JULY 12 – AUGUST 9, 2008

PROGRAM TOPICS

Forest and Timber Management

Timber harvesting
Timber supply
Environmental and economic sustainability
Enforcement of forest code
Logging leases

Forest Products Management and Economics

Value added products
Log exporting
Tariffs and taxation
Legislation
Certification
Grading
Dimension accuracy
Supply and quality control
Primary log break
Inventory control
Pricing

Harvesting and Logging Equipment and Transportation

Bucking
Bunching
Chipping
Debarking
Delimiting
Felling
Forwarding
Loading
Piling
Skidding
Slashing
Topping
Yarding
Log skidders
Log lifting

Harvesters
Forwarders
Equipments for bundling
Wood disbaring

Wood Processing Technologies and Equipment

Secondary wood products
Woodworking automatic lines
Kiln drying
Sawmills
Finger-joint
Edge gluing
Primary break-down

Products

Sawnwood
Lumber
Plywood
Veneer and laminated veneer lumber (LVL)
Medium density fiberboard (MDF)
Oriented strand board (OSB)
Chipboard
Furniture

Business and Financial Management

Sources of finance
Leasing
Market analysis and marketing
Human resources
Global business
Operations management

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Nancy Luther, Program Recruiter
International Trade Administration
U.S. Department of Commerce, SABIT Program
Voice: (202) 482-3644
Fax: (202) 482-2443
E-mail: Nancy.Luther@ita.doc.gov
Web: <http://www.mac.doc.gov/sabit>

