

April 6, 2005

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Pursuant to section 2207 and other relevant provisions of the Emergency Appropriations Act for Defense and for the Reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan, FY 2004 (P.L. 108-106), attached is the sixth quarterly report on the planned use of funds made available by P.L. 108-106 under the heading Iraq Relief and Reconstruction Fund (IRRF).

This report updates information contained in the report submitted on January 5, 2005, and constitutes the reprogramming notification required for the report and reallocation of funds among sectors, as depicted in the chart on page 13 of the Executive Summary.

Funds that will be used as described in this report and that were provided in the Emergency Wartime Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2003 (P.L. 108-11) are subject to reporting provisions in section 1506 of that Act that are similar to the requirements in section 2207 of P.L. 108-106. The attached report reflects the information required by both statutory provisions.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Reynolds
Acting Assistant Secretary for
Legislative Affairs

The Honorable
Thad Cochran, Chairman
Committee on Appropriations,
United States Senate.

April 6, 2005

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Pursuant to section 2207 and other relevant provisions of the Emergency Appropriations Act for Defense and for the Reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan, FY 2004 (P.L. 108-106), attached is the sixth quarterly report on the planned use of funds made available by P.L. 108-106 under the heading Iraq Relief and Reconstruction Fund (IRRF).

This report updates information contained in the report submitted on January 5, 2005, and constitutes the reprogramming notification required for the report and reallocation of funds among sectors, as depicted in the chart on page 13 of the Executive Summary.

Funds that will be used as described in this report and that were provided in the Emergency Wartime Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2003 (P.L. 108-11) are subject to reporting provisions in section 1506 of that Act that are similar to the requirements in section 2207 of P.L. 108-106. The attached report reflects the information required by both statutory provisions.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Reynolds
Acting Assistant Secretary for
Legislative Affairs

The Honorable
Jerry Lewis, Chairman
Committee on Appropriations,
House of Representatives.

April 6, 2005

Dear Mrs. Lowey:

Pursuant to section 2207 and other relevant provisions of the Emergency Appropriations Act for Defense and for the Reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan, FY 2004 (P.L. 108-106), attached is the sixth quarterly report on the planned use of funds made available by P.L. 108-106 under the heading Iraq Relief and Reconstruction Fund (IRRF).

This report updates information contained in the report submitted on January 5, 2005, and constitutes the reprogramming notification required for the report and reallocation of funds among sectors, as depicted in the chart on page 13 of the Executive Summary.

Funds that will be used as described in this report and that were provided in the Emergency Wartime Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2003 (P.L. 108-11) are subject to reporting provisions in section 1506 of that Act that are similar to the requirements in section 2207 of P.L. 108-106. The attached report reflects the information required by both statutory provisions.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Reynolds
Acting Assistant Secretary for
Legislative Affairs

The Honorable
Nita M. Lowey,
Committee on Appropriations
Subcommittee on Foreign Operations, Export Financing,
and Related Programs,
House of Representatives.

April 6, 2005

Dear Senator Byrd:

Pursuant to section 2207 and other relevant provisions of the Emergency Appropriations Act for Defense and for the Reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan, FY 2004 (P.L. 108-106), attached is the sixth quarterly report on the planned use of funds made available by P.L. 108-106 under the heading Iraq Relief and Reconstruction Fund (IRRF).

This report updates information contained in the report submitted on January 5, 2005, and constitutes the reprogramming notification required for the report and reallocation of funds among sectors, as depicted in the chart on page 13 of the Executive Summary.

Funds that will be used as described in this report and that were provided in the Emergency Wartime Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2003 (P.L. 108-11) are subject to reporting provisions in section 1506 of that Act that are similar to the requirements in section 2207 of P.L. 108-106. The attached report reflects the information required by both statutory provisions.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Reynolds
Acting Assistant Secretary for
Legislative Affairs

The Honorable
Robert C. Byrd,
Committee on Appropriations,
United States Senate.

April 6, 2005

Dear Mr. Obey:

Pursuant to section 2207 and other relevant provisions of the Emergency Appropriations Act for Defense and for the Reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan, FY 2004 (P.L. 108-106), attached is the sixth quarterly report on the planned use of funds made available by P.L. 108-106 under the heading Iraq Relief and Reconstruction Fund (IRRF).

This report updates information contained in the report submitted on January 5, 2005, and constitutes the reprogramming notification required for the report and reallocation of funds among sectors, as depicted in the chart on page 13 of the Executive Summary.

Funds that will be used as described in this report and that were provided in the Emergency Wartime Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2003 (P.L. 108-11) are subject to reporting provisions in section 1506 of that Act that are similar to the requirements in section 2207 of P.L. 108-106. The attached report reflects the information required by both statutory provisions.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Reynolds
Acting Assistant Secretary for
Legislative Affairs

The Honorable
David Obey,
Committee on Appropriations,
House of Representatives.

April 6, 2005

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Pursuant to section 2207 and other relevant provisions of the Emergency Appropriations Act for Defense and for the Reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan, FY 2004 (P.L. 108-106), attached is the sixth quarterly report on the planned use of funds made available by P.L. 108-106 under the heading Iraq Relief and Reconstruction Fund (IRRF).

This report updates information contained in the report submitted on January 5, 2005, and constitutes the reprogramming notification required for the report and reallocation of funds among sectors, as depicted in the chart on page 13 of the Executive Summary.

Funds that will be used as described in this report and that were provided in the Emergency Wartime Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2003 (P.L. 108-11) are subject to reporting provisions in section 1506 of that Act that are similar to the requirements in section 2207 of P.L. 108-106. The attached report reflects the information required by both statutory provisions.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Reynolds
Acting Assistant Secretary for
Legislative Affairs

The Honorable
Jim Kolbe, Chairman,
Committee on Appropriations,
Subcommittee on Foreign Operations, Export Financing,
And Related Programs,
House of Representatives.

April 6, 2005

Dear Senator Leahy:

Pursuant to section 2207 and other relevant provisions of the Emergency Appropriations Act for Defense and for the Reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan, FY 2004 (P.L. 108-106), attached is the sixth quarterly report on the planned use of funds made available by P.L. 108-106 under the heading Iraq Relief and Reconstruction Fund (IRRF).

This report updates information contained in the report submitted on January 5, 2005, and constitutes the reprogramming notification required for the report and reallocation of funds among sectors, as depicted in the chart on page 13 of the Executive Summary.

Funds that will be used as described in this report and that were provided in the Emergency Wartime Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2003 (P.L. 108-11) are subject to reporting provisions in section 1506 of that Act that are similar to the requirements in section 2207 of P.L. 108-106. The attached report reflects the information required by both statutory provisions.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Reynolds
Acting Assistant Secretary for
Legislative Affairs

The Honorable
Patrick J. Leahy,
Committee on Appropriations,
Subcommittee on Foreign Operations,
United States Senate.

April 6, 2005

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Pursuant to section 2207 and other relevant provisions of the Emergency Appropriations Act for Defense and for the Reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan, FY 2004 (P.L. 108-106), attached is the sixth quarterly report on the planned use of funds made available by P.L. 108-106 under the heading Iraq Relief and Reconstruction Fund (IRRF).

This report updates information contained in the report submitted on January 5, 2005, and constitutes the reprogramming notification required for the report and reallocation of funds among sectors, as depicted in the chart on page 13 of the Executive Summary.

Funds that will be used as described in this report and that were provided in the Emergency Wartime Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2003 (P.L. 108-11) are subject to reporting provisions in section 1506 of that Act that are similar to the requirements in section 2207 of P.L. 108-106. The attached report reflects the information required by both statutory provisions.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Reynolds
Acting Assistant Secretary for
Legislative Affairs

The Honorable
Mitch McConnell, Chairman,
Committee on Appropriations,
Subcommittee on Foreign Operations,
United States Senate.