APPENDIX D

AGENCY RESPONSE TO DRAFT REPORT

U.S. Department of Labo SEP 2 0 2007	or Office of the Assistant Secretary for Administration and Management Washington, D.C. 20210
MEMORANDUM FOR	ELLIOT LEWIS Assistant Inspector General for Audit
FROM:	EDWARD HUGLER Deputy Assistant Secretary for Operations
SUBJECT:	Audit of a Complaint Involving DOL's Competitive Sou Finance and Accounting Positions; Draft Report No. 03-07-002-07-711	ircing of fice of the Inspector General's audit of a complaint about a n involving finance and accounting positions.	the process of in December, 2005. In Secretary for Administr	the competition of DOL finance and accounting positions July, 2006 OIG initiated this audit with the Office of the A ation and Management (OASAM) and Office of the Chief ad agency for the competition of finance and accounting p	Assistant f Financial the complaint was that l re-classification in the p accounting positions. N classified from inherent activities, which are app agency's FAIR Act Inve the Inventory, and the F	hat the complaint originated with a particular DOL agency. TE in the FY 2005 DOL FAIR Act inventory were being reliminary planning process for the competition of finance totably, seven of this same agency's FTE were subsequent by governmental—and thus not subject to competition—to propriate for inclusion in A-76 competitions. These correct entory were completed, in accordance with the formal pro- TE were subsequently included in competition of finance legislative action (PL 110-28) eliminated this agency's po-	g examined for the and tly properly re- to commercial tions to the cess of revising and accounting
the initial phase of the p of Competitive Sourcin FAIR Act Inventory "m	at the OCFO did not use the FAIR Act Inventory as the st reliminary planning process, the OIG concluded that OAS g (OCS) did not have an explicit policy that position class ust" be used as the staring point for competition studies. the Inventory "can" be used as the staring point.	SAM's Office ifications in the Administration and Ma performing competitive Inventory as a staring p	inding, the OIG recommended that the Assistant Secretary nagement establish and implement a policy that requires the sourcing studies use the position classifications in the FA bint, unless it is changed though approved processes—the d to re-classify the agency FTE discussed above.	hat agencies IR Act
SEP 2 6 2007

