Itradecurrency USA, LLC,
Stephen E. Moore, and
Anthony Iannuzzi,

Defendants.

Order for Entry of Default Judgment,
Injunctive Relief, Civil Monetary
Penalty, and Ancillary Equitable
Relief against Defendant
Itradecurrency USA, LLC

On November 18, 2003, the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission

("Commission") filed a Complaint charging defendant Itradecurrency USA, LLC ("ITC" or "Defendant") and others with the sale of illegal off-exchange futures contracts and fraud in violation of Sections 4(a) and 4b(a)(2) of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (the "Act"), 7 U.S.C. §§ 6(a) and 6b(a)(2) (2001), and Commission Regulation 1.1(b), 17 C.F.R. § 1.1(b) (2002). The Complaint also charges ITC, pursuant to Section 2(a)(1)(B) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(a)(1)(B) (2001), and Commission Regulation 1.2, 17 C.F.R. § 1.2 (2002), with liability for any violations of Section 4b(a)(2) of the Act and Commission Regulation 1.1(b) by its officers, directors, managers, employees, and agents, in that all such violations were within the scope of their office or employment with ITC.

On November 19, 2003, ITC was properly served with the Complaint pursuant to Rule 4(h)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("Fed. R. Civ. P."). ITC failed to answer the Complaint within the time permitted by Rule 12(a)(1) of the Fed. R. Civ. P. Accordingly, on March 25, 2008, the Clerk of this Court entered a certificate of default against ITC for this Complaint.

The Commission has now submitted its Application for Entry of Judgments by Default with Injunctive Relief, Civil Monetary Penalties and Ancillary Equitable Relief against Defendants Stephen Moore and Itradecurrency USA, LLC ("Application") pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b)(2) and Local Rule 55.2(b). The Court has carefully considered the Complaint, the allegations of which are well-pleaded and hereby taken as true, the Application, and other written submissions of the Commission filed with the Court, and being fully advised, hereby:

GRANTS the Commission's Application against ITC and enters findings of fact and conclusions of law relevant to the allegations in the Complaint. The Court further grants the Commission's request for entry of a default judgment, injunctive relief, damages and ancillary equitable relief. Accordingly, the Court now issues this Order for Entry of Default Judgment, Injunctive Relief, Civil Monetary Penalty, and Ancillary Equitable Relief against Defendant Itradecurrency USA, LLC ("Order").

I. FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. Jurisdiction and Venue

This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and ITC pursuant to Section 6c of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1, which authorizes the Commission to seek injunctive relief against any person whenever it shall appear that such person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order thereunder.

Venue properly lies with this Court pursuant to Section 6c(e) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1, in that ITC was found in, inhabited, or transacted business in this district, and the acts and practices in violation of the Act occurred within this district, among other places, and ITC benefited from these acts and practices.

B. Findings of Fact

ITC is a New York limited liability company. ITC was owned and operated by Defendants Stephen E. Moore and Anthony Iannuzzi. ITC has never been registered with the Commission in any capacity. ITC is not a financial institution, a broker or dealer, an associated person of a broker or dealer, an insurance company, a financial holding company, a futures commission merchant, or an affiliate of a futures commission merchant.

From at least December 2000 to November 2003, ITC fraudulently obtained funds from customers for the purpose of trading foreign currency contracts which were, in fact, illegal off-exchange foreign currency futures contracts. Instead of actually trading all of its clients' funds, a substantial portion of these funds were misused and misappropriated by ITC without any investment made in foreign currency contracts.

ITC defrauded customers in the amount of $970,573, and these ill-gotten gains were used by ITC for purposes other than for trading on behalf of customers.

The contracts sold by Defendant were for future delivery and were cash settled in U.S. dollars. The prices or pricing formulas were established at the time the contracts were initiated and the contracts were settled through offset, cancellation, cash settlement or other means to avoid delivery. The customer account agreement provided that customers must provide and maintain margin requirements and that the transactions in the customer accounts were leveraged. The customer account agreement further provided that stop loss orders may be placed on trades and the agreement also discussed settlement dates and offsets.

The contracts at issue were marketed to the general public. Defendant did not require clients to set up banking relationships to facilitate delivery of the foreign currencies and the transactions at issue did not occur on a board of trade designated by or registered with the Commission as either a contract market or a derivatives transaction execution facility for such commodity.

The parties involved in these foreign currency futures transactions were not eligible contract participants or enumerated regulated counterparties. None of the parties was a financial institution, a broker or dealer, an associated person of a broker or dealer, an insurance company, a financial holding company, or an investment bank holding company. In addition, none of the parties was a futures commission merchant or an affiliate of a futures commission merchant.

C. Conclusions of Law

1. Violations of Section 4b(a)(2) of the Commodity Exchange Act and Commission Regulation 1.1(b)

From at least December 2000 to November 2003, Defendant cheated or defrauded or attempted to cheat or defraud customers and willfully deceived or attempted to deceive customers by, among other things, misappropriating funds received from customers in violation of Section 4b(a)(2) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6b(a)(2), and Commission Regulation 1.1(b), 17 C.F.R. § 1.1(b). Defendant's conduct was in connection with the orders to make, or the making of, contracts of sale of commodities for future delivery, made or to be made, for or on behalf of any other persons, and such contracts for future delivery were or could be used for the purposes set forth in Section 4b(a)(2) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6b(a)(2).

Defendant ITC is also liable, pursuant to Section 2(a)(1)(B) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(a)(1)(B) (2001), and Commission Regulation 1.2, 17 C.F.R. § 1.2 (2002), for any violations of Section 4b(a)(2) of the Act and Commission Regulation 1.1(b) by its officers, directors, managers, employees, and agents, in that all such violations were within the scope of their office or employment with ITC.

2. Violations of Section 4(a) of the Act

From at least December 2000 to November 2003, the Defendant offered to enter into, executed, confirmed the execution of, or conducted an office or business in the United States for the purpose of soliciting, accepting any order for, or otherwise dealing in transactions in, or in connection with, a contract for the purchase or sale of a commodity for future delivery when: (a) such transactions were not conducted on or subject to the rules of a board of trade which was designated or registered by the Commission as a contract market or derivatives transaction execution facility for such commodity, and (b) such contracts were not executed or consummated by or through such contract market.

3. Defendants' Transactions Were Futures Contracts

The Commission has jurisdiction over the transactions in this matter because these transactions were foreign currency futures contracts. These contracts were fulfilled through offset to avoid delivery. Further, these foreign currency futures transactions were offered to or entered into with customers who were not eligible contract participants pursuant to Section 1a(12) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1a(12). The counterparty to the customers was not a proper counterparty or an affiliate of a proper counterparty pursuant to Section 2(c)(2)(B) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(B). The Commission has jurisdiction over these transactions.

4. Appropriate Relief

Permanent injunctive relief is warranted in light of the egregious nature of ITC's conduct in misappropriating customer funds through the sale of illegal foreign currency futures contracts from December 2000 to November 2003 as well as the high level of scienter in participating in this well-planned scheme to systematically defraud customers. These facts demonstrate a reasonable likelihood of future violations.

Imposition of a civil monetary penalty is appropriate in this case as ITC's violations of the Act were intentional. Likewise, restitution is appropriate to make the customers victimized by ITC whole.

II. ORDER FOR RELIEF

A. Permanent Injunction

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. ITC is permanently restrained, enjoined and prohibited from directly or indirectly:
 - A. Cheating or defrauding or attempting to cheat or defraud other persons, or willfully making or causing to be made to another person any false report or statement thereof, or willfully entering or causing to be entered for another person any false record thereof, or willfully deceiving or attempting to deceive another person by any means whatsoever in regard to any order or contract or the disposition or execution of any order or contract, or in regard to any act of agency performed with respect to any order or contract for another person, in or in connection with any order to make, or the making of, any contract of sale of any commodity for future delivery, made, or to be made, for or on behalf of any other person if such contract for future delivery is or may be used for:

2. ITC is further permanently restrained, enjoined and prohibited from engaging directly or indirectly in any activity related to trading in any commodity, as that term is defined in Section 1a(4) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1a(4), ("commodity interest"), including but not limited to the following:

- E. Entering into any commodity interest transactions for his own personal account, for any account in which he has a direct or indirect interest and/or having any commodity interests traded on his behalf; and/or
- F. Engaging in any business activities related to commodity interest trading.

3. ITC is further permanently restrained, enjoined and prohibited from filing a petition in bankruptcy without providing the Commission with prompt notice by Certified Mail of such filing pursuant to Part II.H.2 of this Order.

4. The injunctive provision of this Order shall be binding upon ITC, upon any person who acts in the capacity of officer, agent, employee, attorney, successor and/or assign of the ITC and upon any person who receives actual notice of this Order, by personal service or otherwise, insofar as he or she is acting in active concert or participation with ITC.

1. Priority of Monetary Sanctions - All payments by ITC pursuant to this Order shall first be applied to satisfy ITC's Restitution Obligation. After satisfaction of ITC's Restitution Obligation, payments by ITC pursuant to this Order shall be applied to satisfy ITC's CMP Obligation.

2. Partial Payments - Any acceptance by the Commission and/or Receiver of partial payment of ITC's Restitution Obligation and/or CMP Obligation shall not be deemed a waiver of the respective requirement to make further payments pursuant to this Order, or a waiver of the Commission's and/or Receiver's right to seek to compel payment of any remaining balance.

E. Appointment of Permanent Receiver

1. Permanent Receiver: Brian Rosner, Esq., Rosner & Napierala, LLP, 26 Broadway, 22nd floor, New York, NY 10004-24424 (the "Receiver") is appointed as a permanent equity Receiver to take into his immediate custody, control, and possession all cash, cashier's checks, funds, assets, and property of Defendant, including funds or property of investors wherever found, whether held in the name of Defendant or otherwise, including, but not limited to, all books and records of account and original entry, electronically stored data, tape recordings, all funds, securities, contents of safety deposit boxes, metals, currencies, coins, real or personal property, commodity futures trading accounts, bank and trust accounts, mutual fund accounts, credit card line-of-credit accounts and other assets, of whatever kind and nature and wherever situated, and authorizing, empowering and directing such Receiver to collect and take charge of and to hold and administer the same subject to further order of the Court, in order to prevent irreparable loss, damage and injury to investors, to conserve and prevent the dissipation of funds, to prevent further evasions and violations of the Act and Commission Regulations by the Defendant and to satisfy Defendant's Restitution Obligation and to pay Defendant's CMP Obligation.

2. The Receiver shall oversee ITC's Restitution Obligation, and shall have discretion to determine the manner for distribution of funds in an equitable fashion to Defendant's defrauded customers, as appropriate, or may defer distribution until such time as it deems appropriate. In the event that the amount of restitution payments to the Receiver are of a de minimis nature such that the Receiver determines that the administrative costs of making a restitution distribution is impractical, the Receiver may, in its discretion, treat such restitution payments as civil monetary penalty payments, which the Receiver shall forward to the Commission following the instructions for civil monetary penalty payments set forth in Part II.B. above.

3. The Receiver, subject to approval of the Court, is entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of duties pursuant to this Order by it and all personnel hired by the Receiver, including counsel to the Receiver, and is also entitled to the cost of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them (the "Receivership fees and expenses").

serve upon the parties, a Distribution Plan setting forth the Receiver's methodology and protocol for disbursing funds to ITC's defrauded customers. Such Distribution Plan shall be consistent with the authority granted to the Receiver in Part II.E.2 above.

5. Since inception of the Receivership, the Receiver has made to the Court and served upon the parties requests for compensation containing periodic reports which state the status of the of the Receiver's activities in connection with the collection and disbursement of funds and which include the Receiver's request for compensation of Receivership fees and expenses. The Receiver shall continue to file such reports periodically over the course of the Receivership, in any event at least every (90) days.

6. The Receiver's requests for compensation of Receivership fees and expenses shall itemize the specific out-of-pocket expenses and the time and specific nature of services rendered by the Receiver and all personnel hired by the Receiver. The Receiver shall not increase the hourly rates used as the bases for such fee applications without prior approval of this Court. The Commission shall have the opportunity to review and to object to each such request for compensation. Compensation approved by this Court shall be paid from funds held in the Receivership Checking Account.

7. To the extent that any funds accrue to the U.S. Treasury as a result of the Restitution Obligation provided for in this Order, such funds shall be transferred to the Receiver for disbursement in accordance with the procedures set forth in paragraph II.E.2 above.

F. Cooperation

ITC shall cooperate fully with the Commission, the Receiver, and/or any government agency seeking to enforce the restitution and civil monetary provisions of this Order by providing any requested information relating to its financial status including, but not limited to, income and earnings, assets, financial statements, asset transfers, and tax returns.

G. Equitable Relief Provisions

The equitable relief provisions of this Order shall be binding upon ITC, upon any person insofar as he or she is acting in the capacity of officer, agent, servant or employee of ITC, and upon any person who receives actual notice of this Order, by personal service, email, facsimile or otherwise, insofar as he or she is acting in active concert or participation with ITC.
