

Senator METZENBAUM. I am not saying what somebody said he said. I am asking him what he said. He said that he did not remember Ms. Amy Graham, that he did not know Amy Graham.

You also indicated that she was white and 19. How did you know that?

Mr. DOGGETT. Senator, when your staff or the staff of the committee—

Senator METZENBAUM. My staff has not been in touch—

Mr. DOGGETT. Excuse me. When the staff of the committee—I corrected myself—made these allegations to me, one of the things I said, and if you read my complete statement, you will realize it is there, is that although I do not remember this person, that does not mean this person was not there; that it is possible that she did work at McKenzie and Company. I just do not remember her. I said that. OK?

The second thing I did after the staffers of committee hung up was to call an associate of mine who started at McKenzie in the company with me, at the same time, a man named Carroll Warfield, and I asked him if he remembered this woman because I did not remember her name at all. I did not remember her face. Nothing about her came into my mind, but I knew it was possible she could have been there. Senator, it has been eight or nine years and I, even I can forget people.

He said, "Oh, yes, I remember her," and he was the one who indicated to me that she was white. That, as far as the age 19, I believe you read that when you read statements that I responded to from the Senate Judiciary Committee staff, and that is how we got the age 19, sir.

Senator METZENBAUM. No, I think it was your statement, but we will just drop it, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. All right. Thank you. Now let me make one other thing clear. The exception to unsworn statements being placed in the record is when the witnesses stipulate that they are admissible, when the parties mentioned in the statements stipulate they are admissible, and when the committee stipulates they are admissible, which is the case of the Angela Wright stipulation. That is different, so no one is confused later, that there is a fundamental distinction.

Now, Senator, who had the—

Senator THURMOND. The distinguished Senator from Pennsylvania.

Senator SPECTER. Well, thank you, Mr. Chairman. I was in the midst of questioning Mr. Doggett and Professor Kothe when we had to take a brief recess for Professor Kothe, so I shall resume at this point.

I think it is worth noting, Mr. Chairman, to amplify what Mr. Doggett has said—if I could have the attention of the chairman for just a moment—

The CHAIRMAN. Yes. I'm sorry.

Senator SPECTER. Late yesterday evening when we caucused and the chairman stated his intention to try to finish the hearings today—

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.
