2005 Day Runner Items Not Available

GSA Global Supply initially assigned NSNs to a handful of Day Runner planners and refills and listed those items in the September issue of Markettips. Unfortunately, contractual issues now make those items unavailable for 2005. Once the existing inventory of Day Runner items is depleted, requisitions will be cancelled. In some cases, customers may wish to accept a similar Franklin Covey item, but we will not make automatic substitutions. We apologize for any inconvenience and hope to resolve these issues so that we can once again distribute Day Runner products. We apologize for any inconvenience.
