

It is my feeling that these are a long needed area of address and fully endorse the new safety regulations. Though I am not a miner myself; I am actively involved in a mine training program, and if there are new areas of safety training, we will see to this immediately.

David Pelphrey, Dean
Community, Workforce, Economic Development
Big Sandy Community and Technical College