To: Chris Bertram
Assistant Administrator for Financial Services/CFO

The Office of Inspector General plans to conduct an audit of the Workers' Compensation Program within the Federal Aviation Administration's (FAA) Air Traffic Services. The objective of this audit is to evaluate FAA's oversight of the Workers' Compensation Program within the Air Traffic line of business to ensure that workers' compensation cases are properly managed to prevent unnecessary costs.

We will contact your audit liaison officer within the next week to arrange an entrance conference. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Daniel Ravielle, Project Manager, at (202) 366-1405, or Richard Kaplan, Program Director, at (202) 366-1402.
