EOIR Announces Latest Disciplinary Actions Under Rules of Professional Conduct

Three Attorneys Immediately Suspended; Five Receive Final Orders

FALLS CHURCH, Va. – The Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) has taken disciplinary action against eight attorneys after charging them with violations of the Rules of Professional Conduct for immigration practitioners. These rules appear in Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR Parts 1003 and 1292). In most cases, the disciplinary action is initiated as a result of sanctions imposed by other jurisdictions or a criminal conviction.

Although the disciplinary process may vary according to the specific circumstances of each case, generally it includes the following steps:

Disciplinary proceedings begin with a Notice of Intent to Discipline filed with the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) by the Office of the General Counsel of either EOIR or the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). The BIA requires the attorney to respond to the alleged violations. In some cases, a Petition for Immediate Suspension also is filed and the BIA orders the attorney to be suspended immediately from practice before the immigration courts, the BIA, and the DHS. (DHS joins EOIR in taking the disciplinary action.) Disciplined attorneys are directed to notify promptly, in writing, their clients with pending immigration cases that they may no longer represent them before the BIA, the immigration courts, or the DHS. Disciplined attorneys must petition and be reinstated by the BIA before they can resume the practice of law before the BIA, the immigration courts, and the DHS.

Immediate Suspension

The BIA ordered the immediate suspension of the following attorneys:

- Chaim Howard Berglas: He was suspended from the practice of law for 1 year by the New York Supreme Court, Appellate Division, First Judicial Department, for engaging in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation. He was immediately suspended by the BIA on May 11, 2005, pending final disposition of his case.
- Brenda C. Brisbon: She was indefinitely suspended from the practice of law by the Maryland Court of Appeals for neglect and failure to communicate. She was immediately suspended on May 12, 2005, pending final disposition of her case.

• Walter Burrier: He was suspended from the practice of law by the Judicial District of Hartford, Conn., for 1 year for neglect and failure to communicate. He was immediately suspended by the BIA on May 13, 2005, pending final disposition of his case.

Final Orders of Discipline

The BIA issued Final Orders of Discipline against the following attorneys:

- Manlin Maureen Chee: She pleaded guilty in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina to conspiracy and fraud and misuse of visas/permits, in violation of federal law. She was immediately suspended by the BIA on March 18, 2005, pending final disposition of her case. The final order of April 8, 2005, expels her from practice before the immigration tribunals, effective March 18, 2005.
- Edward P. Gallagher: He was disbarred from the practice of law by the Maryland Court of Appeals for professional misconduct. He was immediately suspended by the BIA on March 3, 2005, pending final disposition of his case. The final order of April 19, 2005, expels him from practice before the immigration tribunals, effective March 3, 2005.
- Linda Irene Perez: She was suspended from the practice of law by the State Bar of Texas for 2 years for numerous violations of the state bar rules of professional conduct, including neglect, failure to communicate, and failure to take steps to protect a client's interest upon termination of representation. She was immediately suspended by the BIA on March 28, 2005, pending final disposition of her case. The final order of May 2, 2005, suspends her from practice before the immigration tribunals for 2 years, effective March 28, 2005.
- Richard P. Zipser: He was suspended from the practice of law by the Michigan Attorney Discipline Board for 180 days for failing to comply with court orders, failing to prosecute a matter timely and diligently, and failing to file an answer to a request for investigation. He was immediately suspended by the BIA on March 16, 2005, pending final disposition of his case. The final order of May 2, 2005, suspends him from practice before the immigration tribunals for 180 days, effective March 16, 2005.
- Ann Bitterman: She was suspended from the practice of law by the Supreme Court of Florida for 91 days for multiple violations of the state bar rules of professional conduct, including submitting false evidence, making false statements, and engaging in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation. She was immediately suspended by the BIA on March 18, 2005, pending final disposition of her case. The final order of May 12, 2005, suspends her from practice before the immigration tribunals for 91 days, effective March 18, 2005.

Background

The Rules of Professional Conduct include provisions specifying grounds for disciplinary action, requirements for receiving and investigating complaints, and procedures for conducting hearings. The rules also authorize the BIA to suspend immediately a practitioner who has been subject to disbarment, suspension, or resignation with an admission of misconduct as imposed by a federal or state court, or who has been convicted of a serious crime, pending a summary proceeding and final sanction. They are available on the EOIR website at http://www.usdoj.gov/eoir/vll/fedreg/2000/2001/fr27jn00R.pdf.

EOIR announces these disciplinary actions to inform the public about practitioners who are not authorized to represent clients in any matter before an immigration tribunal. EOIR also posts a "List of Suspended and Expelled Practitioners" on its website at http://www.usdoj.gov/eoir (near the bottom of EOIR's home page).

EOIR is responsible for adjudicating immigration cases. Specifically, under delegated authority from the Attorney General, EOIR interprets and administers federal immigration laws by conducting immigration court proceedings, appellate reviews, and administrative hearings. EOIR consists of three components: the Office of the Chief Immigration Judge, which is responsible for managing the numerous immigration courts located throughout the United States where immigration judges adjudicate individual cases; the Board of Immigration Appeals, which primarily conducts appellate reviews of immigration judge decisions; and the Office of the Chief Administrative Hearing Officer, which adjudicates immigration-related employment cases. EOIR is committed to providing fair, expeditious, and uniform application of the nation's immigration laws in all cases.
