

to use radioactive materials for environmental sample analysis purposes at the site. On November 9, 2004, Central Virginia Laboratories & Consultants, Inc. requested that NRC release the facility for unrestricted use. Central Virginia Laboratories & Consultants, Inc. has conducted surveys of the facility and provided information to the NRC to demonstrate that the site meets the license termination criteria in Subpart E of 10 CFR Part 20 for unrestricted use.

The NRC staff has prepared an EA in support of the license amendment. The facility was remediated and surveyed prior to the licensee requesting the license amendment. The NRC staff has reviewed the information and final status survey submitted by Central Virginia Laboratories & Consultants, Inc. Based on its review, the staff has determined that there are no additional remediation activities necessary to complete the proposed action. Therefore, the staff considered the impact of the residual radioactivity at the facility and concluded that since the residual radioactivity meets the requirements in Subpart E of 10 CFR Part 20, a Finding of No Significant Impact is appropriate.

III. Finding of No Significant Impact

The staff has prepared the EA (summarized above) in support of the license amendment to release the facility for unrestricted use. The NRC staff has evaluated Central Virginia Laboratories & Consultants, Inc.'s request and the results of the surveys and has concluded that the completed action complies with the criteria in Subpart E of 10 CFR Part 20. The staff has found that the radiological environmental impacts from the action are bounded by the impacts evaluated by NUREG-1496, Volumes 1-3, "Generic Environmental Impact Statement in Support of Rulemaking on Radiological Criteria for License Termination of NRC-Licensed Facilities" (ML042310492, ML042320379, and ML042330385). The staff also found that the non-radiological impacts are not significant. On the basis of the EA, the NRC has concluded that the environmental impacts from the action are expected to be insignificant and has determined not to prepare an environmental impact statement for the action.

1. Purpose. The purpose of revising Privacy Act System of Records 3 (System) is to clarify the categories of records in the System and categories of individuals covered by the System, update policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining and disposing of records, and add a routine use to the System.

2. Authority. SBA's authority for collecting, maintaining, and using the information contained in this System is found in the following statutory provisions: 15 U.S.C. 637(b)(13), 648(i)(1), 657(c), 7105-10, Sec. 203 Pub. L. 106-50, and 44 U.S.C. 3101.

3. Potential Effect on the Privacy of Individuals. Categories of individuals covered by this System are individuals currently serving as members on SBA's federal advisory councils and individuals who formerly served. The additional routine use announced in this notice, which permits disclosure of information contained in this System to appointed liaisons in SBA program offices for the purpose of the vetting the individual for conflict of interest with SBA, will have a minimal effect on those categories of individuals. The SBA employees appointed to serve as liaisons are required to protect any personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended.

4. Minimizing the Risk of Unauthorized Access to System. SBA has taken steps to minimize the risk of unauthorized access to the System by restricting access to SBA Headquarters and SBA program offices and by securing the records with lock and key.

5. Compatibility Requirement. The proposed routine use of records in this System satisfies the Privacy Act's compatibility requirement, 5 U.S.C. 552a(a)(7), as it is a "collection, or grouping of information about an individual that is maintained by an agency" and "contains his name, or social security number, business address, personal address, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual.”

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Office of the Secretary

Notice on Honoring Tickets of Insolvent Airlines Pursuant to the Requirements of Section 145 of the Aviation and Transportation Security Act

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Department of Transportation.

SUMMARY: The Department is publishing the following notice to provide guidance to the aviation industry regarding the responsibility pursuant to section 145 of the Aviation and Transportation Security Act of certain air carriers to transport under certain conditions the ticketed passengers of a carrier that has ceased operations on a particular route or routes due to bankruptcy or insolvency.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dayton Lehman, Jr., Deputy Assistant General Counsel, or Jonathan Dols, Supervisory Trial Attorney, Office of Aviation Enforcement and Proceedings (C–70), 400 7th Street, SW., Washington, DC 20590, (202) 366–9349.

Notice

This Notice provides further guidance for airlines and the traveling public regarding the obligation of airlines under section 145 of the Aviation and Transportation Security Act, Pub. L. 107–71, 115 Stat. 645 (November 19, 2001) (“Act”), to transport passengers of airlines that have ceased operations due to insolvency or bankruptcy. In section 8404 of the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act of 2004 (Pub. L. 108–458 (Dec. 17, 2004)), Congress recently renewed the obligation of air carriers under section 145 to provide transportation to passengers of airlines that have ceased operations due to insolvency or bankruptcy. Prior to Congress’s most recent action, the Department had issued three notices providing guidance to carriers and the public regarding section 145.¹ The purpose of this notice is to respond to the many inquiries from airlines and the public regarding section 145 received since issuance of those notices, and to provide notice that we have reconsidered our earlier estimates of the direct costs to carriers of providing alternate transportation required by section 145 and have accordingly decided that the maximum amount that a carrier may charge a passenger accommodated under the law should be greater than originally believed.

Section 145 requires, in essence, that airlines operating on the same route as an insolvent carrier that has ceased operations transport the ticketed passengers of the insolvent carrier “to the extent practicable.” Our earlier notices set forth, among other things, our view that, at a minimum, section 145 requires that passengers who hold valid confirmed tickets, whether paper or electronic, on an insolvent or bankrupt carrier that has ceased operations on a route be transported on a space-available basis by other carriers that operate on the route for which the passenger is ticketed. We also stated our belief that Congress did not intend to prohibit carriers from recovering from accommodated passengers the amounts associated with the actual cost of providing such transportation. We indicated at that time that we did not foresee those costs exceeding $25.00 each way, or $50.00 on a roundtrip basis. However, we also made clear that we recognized that such charges might be determined to be higher, since the cost to a carrier of complying with section 145 could be affected by a variety of factors, including the number of affected passengers, the fuel costs to carriers in effect at the time of a cessation, and the markets and itineraries involved.

Since the renewal of section 145 in December 2004, we have received many inquiries from the airline and travel agent industries, the media, and the public about various aspects of the law. These questions involve, among other issues, the amount carriers may charge displaced passengers seeking to be accommodated, as well as questions regarding section 145’s applicability to international flights, code shared flights, passengers holding frequent flier tickets, and passengers whose transportation involves charter flights. As a result of these and other questions, including those raised on our own initiative, we have reviewed section 145 and are issuing this further notice, which updates and expands upon advice previously provided airlines and the public about the provision. This guidance is being provided in an attached question-and-answer format, which should assist readers in understanding the many issues involved.

Questions regarding this notice may be addressed in writing to Dayton Lehman, Deputy Assistant General Counsel, or Jonathan Dols, Supervisory Trial Attorney, Office of Aviation Enforcement and Proceedings, 400 7th St., SW., Washington, DC 20590, or they may be contacted by telephone at (202) 366–9342 or by e-mail at dayton.lehman@dot.gov or jonathan.dols@dot.gov, respectively.

Dated: June 1, 2005.

Karan Bhatia,

Assistant Secretary for Aviation and International Affairs.

Attachment to June 1, 2005, Section 145 Notice—Department of Transportation Guidance Regarding Section 145 of the Aviation and Transportation Security Act

In section 8404 of the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act of 2004 (Pub. L. 108–458 (Dec. 17, 2004)), Congress renewed the obligation of air carriers under section 145 of the Aviation and Transportation Security Act (Pub. L. 107–71, 115 Stat. 645 (Nov. 19, 2001) (“Act”)) to provide transportation to passengers of airlines that have ceased operations due to insolvency or bankruptcy. As amended, section 145 states in pertinent part:

(a) * * * Each air carrier that provides scheduled air transportation on a route shall provide, to the extent practicable, air transportation to passengers ticketed for air transportation on that route by any other air carrier that suspends, interrupts, or discontinues air passenger service on the route by reason of insolvency or bankruptcy of the other air carrier.

(b) * * * An air carrier is not required to provide air transportation under subsection (a) to a passenger unless that passenger makes alternative arrangements with the air carrier for such transportation within 60 days after the date on which that passenger’s air transportation was suspended, interrupted, or discontinued (without regard to the originally scheduled travel date on the ticket).

(c) * * * This section does not apply to air transportation the suspension, interruption, or discontinuance of which occurs after November 19, 2005.
