Administration

[TA-W-55,216]

ITW Insulation Systems, Nitro, WV;
Notice of Affirmative Determination
Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application of October 4, 2004, the United Steelworkers of America, Local Union 14614, Nitro, West Virginia requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance, applicable to workers of the subject firm. The denial was signed on August 11, 2004, and the notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on September 8, 2004 (69 FR 54320).

The petitioner has alleged that because the last separations occurred in August 2004, the relevant time period extends to the end of August 2004. The Union also alleged that the customer survey should have included primary customers located in the northeast part of the United States.

Because the investigatory period is limited to the petition date (July 7, 2004), the first request cannot be accommodated. However, the Department will conduct an expanded customer survey.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 11th day of January, 2005.

KM Company, Including On-Site
Leased Workers of AngKor, San Francisco, CA; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on October 19, 2004, applicable to workers of KM Company, San Francisco, California. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 12, 2004 (69 FR 65462).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that leased employees of AngKor were working on-site at KM Company, San Francisco, California.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers of AngKor working on-site at KM Company, San Francisco, California.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers at KM Company, who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-55,611 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of KM Company, San Francisco, California, including leased on-site workers of AngKor, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 1, 2003, through October 19, 2006, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 5th day of January 2005.

R&W Fashions, Inc., Formerly Known as Raymond Garment Cutting, San Francisco, CA; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on September 9, 2004, applicable to workers of R&W Fashion, Inc., San Francisco, California. The notice was published in the Federal Register on October 8, 2004 (69 FR 60426).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in women's and girls' apparel.

The subject firm originally named Raymond Garment Cutting was renamed R&W Fashion, Inc. following an earlier corporate decision. The State agency reports that some workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Raymond Garment Cutting, San Francisco, California.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of R&W Fashion, Inc., formerly known as Raymond Garment Cutting, who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-55,344 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of R&W Fashion, Inc., formerly known as Raymond Garment Cutting, San Francisco, California, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after July 22, 2003, through September 9, 2006, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 10th day of December, 2004.
