

reporting burden due to fewer follow-up calls from the Federal Reserve.

All three commenters strongly opposed the shortened filing deadline for FR Y-9LP reports. They cited increased demands to prepare and complete required SEC filings, bank Call Report data, and the FR Y-9C data approximately one month after the reporting period date, and added that BHCs who wish to file their FR Y-9 data ahead of the deadline are not precluded from doing so. Further they stated that although data in the FR Y-9LP are used for completing the FR Y-9C, BHCs need to gather additional information (e.g., cash flow data, detail on investment in subsidiaries, memoranda information) for the FR Y-9LP that is not required on the FR Y-9C and additional analysis is required for the preparation of a parent company only presentation.

The Federal Reserve concurs with the commenters' argument that accelerating the filing deadline for the FR Y-9LP would impose additional burden to respondents. The Federal Reserve will retain the current filing deadline for the FR Y-9LP of 45 calendar days following the reporting date.

The FR Y-11 consists of a balance sheet and income statement; information on changes in equity capital, changes in the allowance for loan and lease losses, off-balance-sheet items, and loans; and a memoranda section. The FR Y-11S is an abbreviated form that collects four data items: net income, total assets, equity capital, and total off-balance-sheet items. The FR 2314 consists of a balance sheet and income statement; information on changes in equity capital, changes in the allowance for loan and lease losses, off-balance-sheet items, and loans; and a memoranda section. The FR 2314S is an abbreviated form that collects four data items: net income, total assets, equity capital, and total off-balance sheet items. The data are used to identify current and potential problems at the foreign subsidiaries of U.S. parent companies, to monitor the activities of U.S. banking organizations in specific countries, and to develop a better understanding of activities within the industry, in general, and of individual institutions, in particular. The FR 2314 is the only source of comprehensive and systematic data on the assets, liabilities, and earnings of the foreign bank and nonbank subsidiaries of U.S. SMBs, BHCs, and Edge and agreement corporations.

Current Actions: On October 25, 2004, the Federal Reserve issued for public comment proposed revisions to the FR 2314 reports (69 FR 62269) effective with the March 31, 2005, report date. The comment period expired on December 27, 2004. The Federal Reserve received one comment from a BHC.
