

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the date as indicated below. Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive email notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). [Docket No. EL05-123-000]

New York Power Authority, Complainant v. Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc., Respondent; Notice of Complaint

June 3, 2005.

Take notice that on June 2, 2005, the New York Power Authority (NYPA) filed a Complaint against Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. (Con Edison). The Complaint asserts that Con Edison is unlawfully interfering with the enrollment of NYPA generating plants in the Station Power Program of the New York Independent System Operator, and that Con Edison should be required to refund to NYPA, with interest, station power delivery charges that NYPA has paid to Con Edison.

NYPA states that copies of the Complaint have been served by e-mail, messenger, or overnight delivery on Con Edison, as well as the New York Public Service Commission.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest in any of the above proceedings must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214) on or before 5 p.m. eastern time on the specified comment date. It is not necessary to separately intervene again in a subdocket related to a compliance filing if you have previously intervened in the same docket. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Anyone filing a motion to intervene or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to
