Cameron Interstate Pipeline, LLC; Notice of Application To Amend

October 14, 2005.

Take notice that on October 7, 2005, Cameron Interstate Pipeline, LLC (Cameron Interstate Pipeline), 101 Ash Street, San Diego, CA 92101, filed in the above referenced docket(s), an abbreviated application to amend its certificates of public convenience and necessity issued pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's regulations, 18 CFR Parts 157 and 284. In Docket No. CP05-119-001 Cameron Interstate Pipeline is seeking to amend its certificate to construct and operate its pipeline, and in Docket No. CP05-121-001 it is seeking to amend its blanket certificate to transport natural gas. The application is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

This filing is also accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). For assistance with any FERC Online service, please e-mail FERCOnlineSupport@ferc.gov, or call (866) 208-3676 (toll free). For TTY, call (202) 502-8659.

Any questions regarding Cameron Interstate Pipeline's application should be directed to: Carlos F. Peña, Senior Regulatory Counsel, HQ13 101 Ash Street, San Diego, CA 92101, phone (619) 696-4320.

Cameron Interstate Pipeline requests authority: (i) Approving its requested pipeline design change allowing for the use of thicker walled pipe, (ii) approving the replacement pro forma Tariff attached at Exhibit P and canceling the tariff originally submitted, (iii) approving Cameron Interstate Pipeline's updated rates and rate schedules; and

(iv) clarifying that the pipeline facilities are certificated to transport natural gas at levels up to 1.5 Bcf per day.

Cameron Interstate Pipeline requests that the Commission approve its revised estimated cost of its facilities from $73.4 million, as originally approved, to $105.3 million; its previously approved annual cost-of-service from $12,729,701 to $28,600,026; and, its previously approved firm transportation reservation charge from $.7087 per Dth to $.5278 per Dth. Cameron Interstate Pipeline also asks that the Commission approve a revised capital structure and rate of return for the project. Finally, Cameron Interstate Pipeline has filed for approval an updated and revised pro forma FERC Gas Tariff which reflects only natural gas transportation services it will now be offering under its certificates.

Any person wishing to obtain legal status by becoming a party to the proceedings for this project should, on or before the below listed comment date, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the NGA (18 CFR 157.10). A person obtaining party status will be placed on the service list maintained by the Secretary of the Commission and will receive copies of all documents filed by the applicant and by all other parties. A party must submit 14 copies of filings made with the Commission and must mail a copy to the applicant and to every other party in the proceeding. Only parties to the proceeding can ask for court review of Commission orders in the proceeding.

Motions to intervene, protests and comments may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper, see, 18 CFR 385.2001 (a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

Comment Date: November 4, 2005.

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. ER05-1467-000]

DC Energy Midwest, LLC; Notice of Issuance of Order

October 14, 2005.

DC Energy Midwest, LLC (DC Energy) filed an application for market-based rate authority, with an accompanying rate tariff. The proposed rate tariff provides for the sales of capacity, energy and ancillary services at market-based rates. DC Energy also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, DC Energy requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by DC Energy.

On October 12, 2005, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Market Development—South, granted the request for blanket approval under Part 34. The Director's order also stated that the Commission would publish a separate notice in the Federal Register establishing a period of time for the filing of protests. Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by DC Energy should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2004).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests is November 14, 2005.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, DC Energy is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of DC Energy, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of DC Energy's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Director's Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number filed to access the document. Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. See 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.
