National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan; National Priorities ListAGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.ACTION: Final Notice of Partial Deletion at the Peterson/Puritan, Inc. Site from the National Priorities List.

SUMMARY: The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Region 1 announces the partial deletion of a portion of the Peterson/Puritan, Inc. Superfund Site (the Site), owned by Macklands Realty, Inc. and Berkeley Realty, Co. (herein Macklands and Berkeley properties), from the National Priorities List (NPL). The NPL constitutes Appendix B to the National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan (NCP), 40 CFR part 300, which EPA promulgated pursuant to section 105 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA). EPA, with concurrence from the State of Rhode Island, has determined that the release impacting the Site poses no significant threat to human health or the environment at the Macklands and Berkeley properties and therefore warrants no current response action at the properties. Further, this action does not preclude the State of Rhode Island from taking any response actions under State authority, should future conditions warrant such actions. This notice of partial deletion does not alter the status of the remainder of the Peterson/Puritan, Inc. Superfund Site, which has not been proposed for deletion and thus remains on the NPL.

DATES: Effective Date: May 9, 2005.FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David J. Newton, Remedial Project Manager, U.S. EPA Region I, 1 Congress St., Suite 1100 (HBO), Boston, MA 02114-2023, (617) 918-1243.SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The site to be partially deleted from the NPL is: A portion of two properties designated on the town of Cumberland Tax Assessor's Map Plat 14, Lot 2 and Plat 15, Lot 1, known locally as the proposed Berkeley Commons and River Run developments, and owned by Macklands Realty, Inc. and Berkeley Realty, Co. respectively.

This partial deletion involves 19.8 acres designated within the OU 2 boundary of the Peterson/Puritan, Inc. Superfund site.

A Notice of Intent to Delete for these parcels at this site was published on February 24, 2005 (70 FR 9023-9028). The closing date for comments on the Notice of Intent to Delete was March 28, 2005. EPA received no comments.

EPA identifies sites that appear to present a significant risk to public health, welfare, or the environment and maintains the NPL as the list of these sites. Sites on the NPL may be the subject of remedial actions financed by the Hazardous Substance Superfund Response Trust Fund (Fund). Pursuant to § 300.425(e)(3) of the NCP, any site (or portion thereof) deleted from the NPL are eligible for further remedial actions should future conditions warrant such action.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES45 CFR Parts 80, 84, 86, 90, and 91

RIN 0991-AB10

Office for Civil Rights; Amending the Regulations Governing Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Race, Color, National Origin, Handicap, Sex, and Age To Conform to the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Secretary amends the Department of Health and Human Services regulations implementing Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975 to conform with certain statutory amendments made by the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987 (CRRA). The principal conforming amendment is to add definitions of "program or activity" or "program" that correspond to the statutory definitions enacted under the CRRA.

DATES: These regulations are effective June 8, 2005.FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Peggy A. Schmidt, (202) 619-1279; TDD 1-800-619-3257.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 26, 2000, the Department of Health and Human Services (Department or HHS) published a notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM) in the Federal Register (65 FR 64194) proposing to amend its civil rights regulations to conform to certain provisions of the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987 (Pub. L. 100-259)(CRRA), regarding the scope of coverage under civil rights statutes administered by the Department. These statutes include Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 2000d, et seq. (Title VI); Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended, 20 U.S.C. 1681, et seq. (Title IX); Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, 29 U.S.C. 794 (Section 504); and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 6101, et seq. (Age Discrimination Act). Title VI prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, and national origin in all programs or activities that receive Federal financial assistance; Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities that receive Federal financial assistance; Section 504 prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in all programs or activities that receive Federal financial assistance; and the Age Discrimination Act prohibits discrimination on the basis of age in all programs or activities that receive Federal financial assistance.

The principal conforming change amends each of these regulations to add a definition of “program or activity” or “program” that adopts the statutory definition of “program or activity” or “program” enacted as part of the CRRA. We believe that adding this statutory definition to the regulatory language is the best way to avoid confusion on the part of recipients, beneficiaries, and other interested parties about the scope of civil rights coverage.

The Department’s civil rights regulations, when originally issued and implemented, were interpreted by the Department to mean that acceptance of Federal assistance by an entity resulted in broad institutional coverage. In Grove City College v. Bell, 465 U.S. 555, 571–72 (1984) (Grove City College), the Supreme Court held, in a Title IX case, that the provision of Federal student financial assistance to a college resulted in Federal jurisdiction to ensure Title IX compliance in the specific program receiving the assistance, i.e., the student financial aid office, but that the Federal student financial assistance would not provide jurisdiction over the entire institution. Following the Supreme Court’s decision in Grove City College, the Department changed its interpretation, but not the language, of the governing regulations to be consistent with the Court’s restrictive, “program specific” definition of “program or activity” or “program.” Because Title IX was patterned after Title VI, Grove City College significantly narrowed the coverage of Title VI and two other statutes based on it: The Age Discrimination Act and Section 504. See S. Rep. No. 100–64, at 2–3, 11–16, reprinted in 1988 U.S.C.C.A.N. at 3–5, 13–18 (1987).

Then, in 1988, the CRRA was enacted to “restore the prior consistent and long-standing executive branch interpretation and broad, institution-wide application of those laws as previously administered.” 20 U.S.C. 1687 note 1. Congress enacted the CRRA in order to remedy what it perceived to be a serious narrowing by the Supreme Court of a longstanding administrative interpretation of the coverage of the regulations. At that time, the Department reinstated its broad interpretation to be consistent with the CRRA, again without changing the language of the regulations. It was and remains the Department’s consistent interpretation that—with regard to the differences between the interpretation of the regulations given by the Supreme Court in Grove City College and the language of the CRRA—the CRRA, which took effect upon enactment, superseded the Grove City College decision and, therefore, the regulations must be read in conformity with the CRRA in all their applications.

This interpretation reflects the understanding of Congress, as expressed in the legislative history of the CRRA, that the statutory definition of “program or activity” or “program” would take effect immediately, by its own force, without the need for Federal agencies to amend their existing regulations. See S. Rep. No. 100–64, at 32, reprinted in 1988 U.S.C.C.A.N. at 34. The legislative history also evidences congressional concern about the Department’s immediate need to address complaints and findings of discrimination in federally assisted schools under the CRRA definition of “program or activity,” and includes examples demonstrating why the CRRA was “urgently” needed. See S. Rep. No. 100–64, at 11–16, reprinted in 1988 U.S.C.C.A.N. at 13–18.

The regulatory amendments would address an issue recently raised by the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit in Cureton v. NCAA, 198 F.3d 107, 115–16 (1999) (Cureton). That court determined that, because the Department did not amend its Title VI regulation after the enactment of the CRRA, application of the Department’s Title VI regulation to disparate impact discrimination claims is “program specific” (i.e., limited to specific programs in an institution affected by the Federal funds), rather than institution-wide (i.e., applicable to all of the operations of the institution regardless of the use of the Federal funds). The Department disagrees with the Cureton decision for the reasons described in this preamble. That decision would thwart clearly expressed congressional intent.

Nevertheless, the regulatory changes incorporate definitions of “program or activity” or “program” that correspond to those enacted under the CRRA and thereby remove any doubt that the regulations apply institution-wide to both disparate impact discrimination and disparate treatment discrimination. (“Disparate treatment” refers to policies or practices that treat individuals differently based on their race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age, as applicable. Disparate treatment is generally barred by the civil rights statutes and regulations. “Disparate impact” refers to criteria or methods of administration that have a significant disparate effect on individuals based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age, as applicable. Those criteria or practices may constitute impermissible discrimination based on legal standards that include consideration of their necessity.)

The statutory definition, which is now incorporated into the regulations, addresses four broad categories of recipients: (1) State or local governmental entities; (2) colleges, universities, other postsecondary educational institutions, public systems of higher education, local educational agencies, systems of vocational education, and other school systems; (3) private entities, such as corporations, partnerships, and sole proprietorships, including those whose principal business is providing education, health care, housing, social services, or parks and recreation; and (4) entities that are established by a combination of two or more of the first three types of entities.

Under the first part of the definition, if State and local governmental entities receive financial assistance from the Department, the “program or activity” or “program” in which discrimination is prohibited includes all of the operations of any State or local department or agency to which the Federal assistance is extended. For example, if the Department provides financial assistance to a State health agency, all of the agency’s operations are subject to the nondiscrimination requirements of the regulations. In addition, “program or activity” or “program” includes all of the operations of the entity of a State or local government that distributes the Federal assistance to another State or local governmental agency or department and all of the operations of the State or local governmental entity to which the financial assistance is extended.

Under the second part of the definition of “program or activity” or “program,” if colleges, universities, other postsecondary institutions, public systems of higher education, local educational agencies, systems of vocational education, or other school systems receive financial assistance from the Department, all of their operations are subject to the nondiscrimination requirements of the regulations. For example, if a college or university receives Federal financial assistance from the Department to support medical research, all of the operations of the college or university are covered, not solely the operations of the component performing the medical research.

Under the third part of the definition, in the case of private entities not already listed under the second part of the definition, if the Federally assisted entity or organization is principally engaged in the business of education, health care, housing, social services, or parks and recreation, then the entire corporation, partnership, or other private organization or sole proprietorship is the covered "program or activity" or "program." For example, if a private hospital receives financial assistance from the Department, it will be covered on an institution-wide basis under this portion of the definition of "program or activity" or "program" because it is an entity principally engaged in the business of providing health care. All of its operations are covered by the nondiscrimination requirements of the regulations.

Also under the third part of the definition, if a private entity is not principally engaged in the business of education, health care, housing, social services, or parks and recreation, and the Department extends financial assistance to the private entity "as a whole," all of the private entity's operations at all of its locations would be covered. If the Department were to extend general assistance, that is, assistance that is not designated for a particular purpose, to this type of corporation or other private entity, that would be considered financial assistance to the private entity "as a whole." In other instances in which the Department extends financial assistance to this type of entity, the coverage would be limited to the entire plant or other comparable geographically separate facility to which assistance is extended.

Under the fourth part of the definition, if an entity of a type not already covered by one of the first three parts of the definition is established by two or more of the entities listed under the first three parts of the definition, then all of the operations of that new entity are covered.

The regulatory changes also modify or delete some sections of the Department regulations that have become superfluous following the CRRA enactment, to conform with the CRRA definitions of "program or activity" or "program." These regulatory changes do not change the requirements of the existing regulations. This is consistent with the approach taken by other Federal agencies in the Title IX common rule NPRM, for example, in which it was noted that regulatory language in the Department of Education's Title IX regulations made superfluous by the enactment of the CRRA was omitted in that proposed rule (64 FR 58568, 58571). The Title IX, Title VI, and Section 504 regulations of the Department of Education and HHS are substantially similar because both were derived from the original Department of Health, Education and Welfare regulation.

The Department's Title IX regulations, promulgated in 1975, defined "recipient" as an entity "to whom Federal financial assistance is extended directly or through another recipient and which operates an education program or activity which receives or benefits from such assistance." 45 CFR 86.2(h). At that time, the words "or benefits from" were necessary to clarify that all of the operations of a university or other educational institution that receives Federal financial assistance—not just the particular programs receiving financial assistance—are covered by Title IX's nondiscrimination requirements. As previously discussed, this interpretation was rejected by the Supreme Court in 1984 in Grove City College, which held that Federal student financial aid established Title IX jurisdiction only over the financial aid program, not the entire institution. However, Congress's 1988 enactment of the CRRA counteracted this decision by defining "program or activity" and "program" to provide expressly that Title IX covers all educational programs of a recipient institution. Because of this statutory change, the words "or benefits from" and similar phrases are no longer necessary as a regulatory matter, and we deleted them from the Title IX regulation. For the same reason, we deleted the words "or benefits from" and similar language from the Department's Section 504 and Age Discrimination Act regulations. These deletions do not affect the reach of Title IX, Section 504, or the Age Discrimination Act.

The existing Title VI regulation of the Department of Health and Human Services, promulgated in 1964 by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in 29 FR 16298 and 29 FR 16988 and in 1965 in 30 FR 16988, includes an assurance requirement for institutions in § 80.4(d)(2) that has created confusion with regard to the scope of "program or activity" and "program" under Title VI. One example is the previously referenced decision in Cureton. The current provision states, in part: "The assurance * * * shall be applicable to the entire institution unless the applicant establishes, to the satisfaction of the responsible Department official, that the institution's practices in designated parts or programs of the institution will in no way affect its practices in the program of the institution for which Federal financial assistance is sought * * *." 45 CFR 80.4(d)(2). We have deleted that portion of the assurance that begins with the word "unless" to avoid any further confusion. As previously stated, it was appropriate to apply the CRRA statutory definition of "program or activity" to the regulations. For the same reasons, we have deleted portions of the illustrations in § 80.5(c) and (e), since they could create similar confusion. Specifically, in § 80.5(c), which states that with regard to prohibited discrimination in university graduate research, training, demonstration, or other grants, the prohibition extends to the entire university, we deleted the language that states that "unless it satisfies the responsible Department official that practices with respect to other parts or programs of the university will not interfere, directly or indirectly, with fulfillment of the assurance required with respect to the graduate school." Similarly, in § 80.5(e), we have deleted the portion of the illustration that states: "In other construction grants the assurances required will be adapted to the nature of the activities to be conducted in the facilities for construction of which the grants have been authorized by Congress." These deletions would not affect the reach of Title VI.

In addition, we deleted references to "program" or "program or activity" in the regulations that do not refer to the CRRA broad definition of those phrases, in order to eliminate potential confusion in the use of these terms and to continue the longstanding Department interpretation of the statutes and regulations. For example, in the Title VI regulation § 80.2 refers to "Federal assisted programs and activities listed in Appendix A to this part." Appendix A is a list of Federal financial assistance triggering coverage under the civil rights laws. "Federal assisted programs and activities" as used in § 80.2 clearly refers to Federal programs of assistance. We have deleted "assisted programs and activities" in this subsection and substituted "financial assistance." We have made comparable conforming changes in our Title VI, Section 504, Title IX and Age Discrimination Act regulations, including both the government-wide coordinating Age Discrimination Act regulation and the HHS-specific Age Discrimination Act regulation. For example, in some instances, we deleted "program" or "program or activity" and substituted "Federal financial assistance," or "aids, benefits or services." These substitutions are not intended to change the scope or substance of the regulations. They are intended only to remove any confusion that might result from the adoption of the proposed definitions of “program or activity” or “program.” In other instances, we changed “programs and activities” to “programs or activities” to conform the regulations to the phrase used in the CRRA—when it is used in the broad manner defined in the CRRA. We did not modify the term “activity” when it appears separately from the phrase “program or activity” and is used in a manner unrelated to the CRRA phrase “program or activity.” These changes are not intended to change the scope or substance of the regulations, but to remove any confusion that might result from the proposed definitions.

These final regulations use the plural terms “programs” and “programs or activities” to refer generally to multiple programs or activities operated by multiple recipients. In other instances, the singular terms “program” or “program or activity” are used. Because the singular may be interpreted to encompass the plural, these regulations typically use the singular even though in certain cases the Department may fund a recipient that operates more than one program or activity that receives Federal financial assistance (such as when an individual recipient corporation has multiple plants, each of which is a separate program or activity). In addition, similar regulations of other Federal agencies may differ in the use of the singular or plural forms of these terms. Use of the singular or plural forms of these terms should not be interpreted to imply any legal difference in the intended scope of coverage.

It is important to note that these changes do not in any way alter the requirement of the CRRA that a proposed or effectuated fund termination be limited to the particular program or programs “or part thereof” that discriminates or, as appropriate, to all of the programs that are infected by the discriminatory practices. See S. Rep. No. 100–64, at 20, reprinted in 1988 U.S.C.C.A.N. at 22 (“The [CRRA] defines ‘program’ in the same manner as ‘program or activity,’ and leaves intact the ‘or part thereof’ pinpointing language.”).

We replaced the current definition of “program” in the Title VI regulation in 45 CFR 80.13 with the definition of “program or activity” and “program.” We added the definition of “program or activity” and “program” to the Title IX regulation in 45 CFR 86.2. We added the definition of “program or activity” to the Section 504 regulation in 45 CFR 84.3, the government-wide Age Discrimination Act regulation in 45 CFR 90.4, and the HHS-specific Age Discrimination Act regulation in 45 CFR 91.4. The changes merely incorporate statutory language and do not alter the Department’s consistent position that the regulations must be read in conformity with the CRRA. Conforming changes to the nonregulatory guidance in Appendix B of Part 80 and Appendix A of Part 84 will be published in the Federal Register in a separate notice. Nothing in these changes affects coverage under the Federal employment nondiscrimination statutes, including Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act.

Except for minor editorial and technical revisions, there are no differences between the NPRM and these final regulations.

Analysis of Comments and Changes

In the NPRM, we invited comments on the proposed regulations. The Department received three comments. One commenter suggested that the Department take the opportunity to revise Part 1 of Appendix A of Part 80, the regulation implementing Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Part 1 lists Federal financial assistance to States. The commenter suggested a change to one of the citations in that list to address what the commenter viewed as an incorrect reference. The Department has not adopted the suggestion because it departs from the focus of our proposed changes, to amend the regulations to conform to the CRRA. Two other commenters advanced the view that the Department should not amend the regulations at this time because they believed amendment would be untimely due to a case then pending before the United States Supreme Court (Alexander v. Sandoval, 532 U.S. 275 (2001)). Sandoval did not, however, address the focus of this rulemaking—revising the regulations to conform them to the added definition of “program or activity” or “program.” Rather, Sandoval addressed a different issue—whether there is an implied private right of action to enforce disparate-impact regulations promulgated under Section 602 of Title VI and concluded that there was not such a right. The Department has decided to proceed with the amendment of its regulations because we believe it is important to conform the regulations to the civil rights statutes as amended by the CRRA. We are, however, mindful of the Supreme Court’s statements in Sandoval that call the validity of the Title VI disparate-impact regulations into question.¹

We have also reviewed the regulations, in consultation with the Department of Justice, since the publication of the NPRM and have made minor editorial and technical changes.

Collection of Information Requirements

These regulations do not contain any information collection requirements subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.

Regulatory Impact Analysis

We have examined the impacts of this proposed rule as required by Executive Order 12866, the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995, and the Regulatory Flexibility Act. Executive Order 12866 directs agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, when regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits, including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity. A regulatory impact analysis (RIA) must be prepared for major rules with economically significant effects of $100 million or more annually. We have determined that there probably will be no cost impacts because this regulatory action implements statutory amendments and longstanding Department policy. Recently the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit interpreted existing regulations inconsistently with the language of the CRRA and our existing practices. The Department disagrees with that decision. However, these regulations would clarify the Department’s policy and practice in light of that decision, and would do that only a short time after the court decision, thereby ensuring continuity in that policy and practice and avoiding changes in the behavior of recipients within the Third Circuit that could occur if Federal civil rights jurisdiction were changed. Therefore, it is possible that there will be no costs associated with the regulations. Since we believe that this rule would have no significant effect on program expenditures, we do not consider this to be a major rule. Accordingly, we have not prepared an RIA.

¹ See Sandoval, 532 U.S. at 286, 286n.6 (“[W]e assume for purposes of this decision that § 602 confers the authority to promulgate disparate-impact regulations”; “[w]e cannot help observing, however, how strange it is to say that disparate-impact regulations are ‘inspired by, at the service of, and inseparably intertwined with’ § 601 * * * when § 601 permits the very behavior that the regulations forbid.”).

The Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 also requires that agencies perform an assessment of anticipated costs and benefits before proposing any rule that may result in expenditures, in any given year by State, local, or tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million. See 2 U.S.C. 1532. These amendments make technical changes to existing regulations that enforce statutory prohibitions on discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, or disability. Therefore, these amendments will not result in the expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more in any one year, and they will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. They will not have a significant economic impact on the operations of a substantial number of small providers of health and human services. The rule implements statutory amendments and longstanding Department policy.

We have reviewed this rule under the threshold criteria of Executive Order 13132, Federalism. We have determined that it does not significantly affect the rights, roles and responsibilities of States.

In accordance with the provisions of Executive Order 12866, this regulation was reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget.
