Self-Regulatory Organizations; Philadelphia Stock Exchange, Inc.; Notice of Filing and Order Granting Accelerated Approval to a Proposed Rule Change to Increase Position Limits and Exercise Limits for Options on Standard and Poor's Depository Receipts (SPDRs®)

January 21, 2005.

Pursuant to section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")<sup>1</sup> and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,<sup>2</sup> notice is hereby given that on January 19, 2005, the Philadelphia Stock Exchange, Inc., ("Phlx" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I and II below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons. In addition, the Commission is granting accelerated approval of the proposed rule change.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to amend Exchange Rule 1001, Position Limits, to increase position limits and exercise limits for options on the Standard and Poor's Depository Receipts ("SPDRs®").<sup>3</sup> The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Phlx's Web site (<http://www.phlx.com>), at the Phlx's Office of the Secretary, and at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it had received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in item III below. The Phlx has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to amend Exchange Rule 1001 to increase the position limits and exercise limits<sup>4</sup> applicable to options on SPDRs from 75,000 to 300,000 contracts on the same side of the market. The Exchange began trading options on SPDRs on the Exchange's electronic trading platform for options, Phlx XL, on January 10, 2005. Given the expected institutional demand for options on SPDRs, the Exchange believes that the current equity position limit of 75,000 contracts<sup>5</sup> is too low and could be a deterrent to the successful trading of the product. Options on SPDRs are 1/10th the size of options on the Standard and Poor's 500 Index ("SPX"). Thus, a position limit of 75,000 contracts in options on SPDRs is equivalent to a <sup>4</sup> Exchange Rule 1002, Exercise Limits, refers to exercise limits that correspond to aggregate long positions as described in Exchange Rule 1001. The position limit established in a given option under Exchange Rule 1001 is also the exercise limit for such option.

7,500 contract position limit in options on SPX. Traders who trade options on SPDRs to hedge positions in SPX options are likely to find a position limit of 75,000 contracts in options on SPDRs too restrictive, which may adversely affect the Exchange's ability to provide liquidity in this product.

Comparable products, such as options on the Nasdaq-100 Index Tracking Stock ("QQQ"),<sup>6</sup> are subject to a 300,000 contract limit.<sup>7</sup> The Exchange proposes that options on SPDRs similarly be subject to position limits and exercise limits of 300,000 contracts. The Exchange believes that increasing position limits and exercise limits for options on SPDRs would lead to a more liquid and competitive market environment for options on SPDRs that would benefit customers interested in this product.

Consistent with the reporting requirement for QQQ options, the Exchange would require that each member or member organization that maintains a position on the same side of the market, for its own account or for the account of a customer, report certain information.<sup>8</sup> This data would include, but would not be limited to, the option position, whether such position is hedged and if so, a description of the hedge and if applicable, the collateral used to carry the position. Exchange specialists and Registered Options Traders ("ROTs") would continue to be exempt from this reporting requirement as specialist and ROT information can be accessed through the Exchange's market surveillance systems. In addition, the general reporting requirement for customer accounts that maintain an aggregate position of 200 or more option contracts would remain at this level for options on SPDRs.<sup>9</sup>

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with section 6(b) of the Act,<sup>10</sup> in general, and furthers

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any inappropriate burden on competition.

Written comments on the proposed rule change were neither solicited nor received.

provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room. Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the Exchange. All comments received will be posted without change; the Commission does not edit personal identifying information from submissions. You should submit only information that you wish to make publicly available. All submissions should refer to File Number SR-Phlx-2005-05 and should be submitted on or before February 22, 2005.

IV. Commission's Findings and Order Granting Accelerated Approval of Proposed Rule Change

After careful review, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, applicable to a national securities exchange,<sup>12</sup> and, in particular, the requirements of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act.<sup>13</sup> Specifically, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change should ensure that the Exchange's position limits and exercise limits on options on SPDRs provide its members and member organizations with sufficient flexibility to participate in the market for such options in a manner that should provide greater depth and liquidity for all market participants.

The Commission finds good cause for approving this proposed rule change prior to the thirtieth day after publication of notice thereof in the Federal Register. Specifically, the Commission believes that granting accelerated approval to the proposed rule change should permit greater depth and liquidity in the options on SPDRs market that should benefit all market participants, including retail investors. Because the higher position limits and exercise limits mirror those that the Commission has previously approved for like products, the Commission believes it is consistent with sections 6(b)(5)<sup>14</sup> and 19(b)(2)<sup>15</sup> of the Act to approve the Phlx's proposed rule change on an accelerated basis.

V. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to section 19(b)(2) of the Act,<sup>16</sup> that the proposed rule change (SR-Phlx-2005-

OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

Determination Regarding Waiver of Discriminatory Purchasing Requirements With Respect to Goods and Services Covered by Chapter 15 of the U.S.-Australia Free Trade Agreement

AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative.

ACTION: Determination under Trade Agreements Act of 1979.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 24, 2005.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jean Heilman Grier, Senior Procurement Negotiator, Office of the United States Trade Representative, (202) 395-5097, or Melida Hodgson, Assistant General Counsel, Office of the United States Trade Representative, (202) 395-9512.

On May 18, 2004, the United States and Australia entered into the United States-Australia Free Trade Agreement ("the USAFTA"). Chapter 15 of the USAFTA sets forth certain obligations with respect to government procurement of goods and services, as specified in Annex 15-A of the USAFTA. On August 3, 2004, the President signed into law the United States-Australia Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act ("the USAFTA Act") (Pub. L. 108-286, 19 U.S.C. 3805 note). In section 101 of the USAFTA Act, the Congress approved the USAFTA and the statement of administrative action proposed to implement the USAFTA that the President submitted to Congress. The USAFTA entered into force on January 1, 2005.

Section 1-201 of Executive Order 12260 of December 31, 1980 (46 FR 1653) delegates the functions of the President under Sections 301 and 302 of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 ("the Trade Agreements Act") (19 U.S.C. 2511, 2512) to the United States Trade Representative.

Now, therefore, I, Robert B. Zoellick, United States Trade Representative, in conformity with the provisions of Sections 301 and 302 of the Trade Agreements Act, and Executive Order 12260, and in order to carry out U.S. obligations under Chapter 15 of the USAFTA, do hereby determine that:

1. Australia is a country, which, pursuant to the USAFTA, will provide appropriate reciprocal competitive government procurement opportunities to United States products and suppliers of such products. In accordance with section 301(b)(3) of the Trade Agreements Act, Australia is designated for purposes of section 301(a) of the Trade Agreements Act.

2. With respect to eligible products of Australia (i.e., goods and services covered by the Schedules of the United States in Annex 15-A of the USAFTA) and suppliers of such products, the application of any law, procedure, or practice regarding government procurement that would, if applied to such products and suppliers, result in treatment less favorable than accorded—
