

Title: 2008 Southwestern Willow Flycatcher Survey Training

The 15th Annual Southwestern Willow Flycatcher Survey Training workshop will be held May 6-7, 2008. The first day of training will be an afternoon classroom session held at the Summer Institute of Linguistics in the Town of Catalina (north of Tucson). The second day will be a morning field trip (gathering at Aravaipa College) located along the lower San Pedro River near the Town of Dudleyville.

Details are still being developed. Please contact Shaylon Stump at Arizona Game and Fish Department (623-236-7583 or SStump@azgfd.gov) to reserve your spot and receive more specific information when it becomes available.
