

Freeway
Operations
Committee

Specialty Conference on Traffic Incident Management

Sunday, January 9, 2005
Transportation Research Board Annual Meeting
Omni Shoreham Hotel, Washington, D.C.

Traffic Incident
Management
Committee

Keys to Success in Incident Management

8:30 a.m. Welcome, Gordon Paesani, NET Corp

8:35 a.m. Session 1: What Can We Learn About Incident Management from Major Planned Events (and Vice Versa)

Moderator: Steven Levine, Transcore

Incident Management During the Democratic National Convention in Boston
Paul Jodoin, Massachusetts Highway Department

Incident Management During the Republican National Convention in New York
Inspector Patrick J. McCarthy, NYPD

Incident Management During the 2004 Olympics in Athens
Bill M. Halkias, PE; Chief Executive Officer, Attikes Diadromes SA, Operation of Attiki Odos Motorway

Planned Special Events Conference Report
Steve Cyra, P.E.; Great Lakes Division ITS Director, HNTB Corp

9:30 a.m. Break

9:45 a.m. Session 2: Quick Clearance of Incidents

Moderator: Mal Baird, P.E.; Vanderbilt Center for Transportation Research

Florida Turnpike Towing
Paul Wai, Florida Turnpike Authority

ITS and Incident Management for the Transportation Expansion Project (T-REX)
Gary Gonzales, Colorado DOT

Proactive Traffic Management in Support of Major Highway Construction
Dave Roper, Roper and Associates

10:45 a.m. Break

11:00 a.m. Session 3: What's New in Incident Management

Moderator: Steven J. Cyra, P.E.; Great Lakes Division ITS Director HNTB Corp

National Coalition on Traffic Incident Management
John Corbin, P.E.; State Traffic Engineer, Wisconsin Department of Transportation

Session 3: (Continued)

MUTCD Chapter 6I Update

David Helman, Federal Highway Administration

Innovations and News in Incident Management

John O'Laughlin, PB Faradyne

Please bring copies of any studies, reports, brochures, news articles, legislation, policy statements, or other documents that would be of interest to others! The exchange of such information is an important part of the conference.

For more information, contact Katie Belmore at (414) 225-3729.