BILLING CODE 7537–01–P

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: National Labor Relations Board.

ACTION: Notice of revised Privacy Act System of Records.

SUMMARY: The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) Office of Inspector General (OIG) is revising its Privacy Act System of Records, NLRB 18, Office of Inspector General Investigative Files, to include as routine uses the disclosure of information (1) to the public when a legitimate public interest exists; (2) to the public when it is necessary for the protection from imminent threat to life or property; (3) to members of the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency/Executive Council on Integrity and Efficiency (PCIE/ECIE) for the purpose of accurate reporting to the President and Congress on the activities of the Inspectors General; (4) to members of the PCIE/ECIE, the Department of Justice, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or the U.S. Marshals Service, as necessary, for investigative qualitative assessment review. The PCIE/ECIE is establishing a peer review process to ensure that adequate internal safeguards and management procedures continue to exist. The objectives of the review are to assess whether adequate internal safeguards and management procedures are met, foster high-quality investigations and investigative processes, ensure that the highest levels of professionalism are maintained, and promote consistency in investigative standards and practices within the Inspector General investigative community.

The revision also includes the addition of routine uses to allow the disclosure of information to the Agency's legal representative; other Federal agencies in response to their requests in connection with background investigations; State and local bar associations for disciplinary proceeding and inquiries; the Office of Government Ethics for any purpose consistent with that office's mission; in association with the collection of debt, Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act litigation; and to the Office of Management and Budget when seeking advice regarding the Agency's obligations under the Privacy Act.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The changes to this System of Records will become effective without further notice 30 days from the date of this publication (July 10, 2003), unless comments are received on or before that date which result in further modifications.

ADDRESSES: Written comments regarding proposed revisions to the NLRB Privacy Act Systems of Records, NLRB–18 may be submitted to the Executive Secretary, National Labor Relations Board, 1099 14th Street, NW., Suite 11610, Washington, DC 20570. Copies of all comments received will be available for inspection between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. in Room 11600.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David P. Berry, Counsel to the Inspector General, Office of Inspector General, National Labor Relations Board, 1099 14th Street, NW., Suite 9820, Washington, DC 20570, (202) 273–1960.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This publication is in accordance with the Privacy Act requirement that agencies publish their amended systems in the Federal Register when there is a revision, change, or addition. NLRB is amending the Routine Uses of System of Records, NLRB 18 Office of Inspector General Investigative files previously published at 57 FR 11523 (Apr. 3, 1992).

The Routine Use Notice is being amended to specifically allow for a legitimate public interest the disclosure of names of indicted or convicted individuals in the Office of Inspector General (OIG) Semiannual Report, monthly reports, and press releases or other forms of communication with the media. NLRB's objective in allowing disclosure of names is to enhance the deterrence of similar crimes against the Agency. In addition, the amended routine uses would allow the disclosure of information to the PCIE/ECIE for the preparation of reports to the President and Congress on the activities of the Inspectors General. Finally, the amendments would allow the disclosure of information to members of the PCIE/ECIE, the Department of Justice, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or the U.S. Marshals Service, as necessary, for the purpose of investigative qualitative assessment reviews to ensure adequate internal safeguards and management procedures are maintained.

The revision also includes the addition of routine uses to allow the disclosure of information to the Agency's legal representative; other Federal agencies in response to their requests in connection with background
