

(a) The quantity and value (landed, duty-paid but not including antidumping or countervailing duties) of U.S. imports and, if known, an estimate of the percentage of total U.S. imports of Subject Merchandise from the Subject Country accounted for by your firm's(s') imports;

(b) The quantity and value (f.o.b. U.S. port, including antidumping and/or countervailing duties) of U.S. commercial shipments of Subject Merchandise imported from the Subject Country; and

(c) The quantity and value (f.o.b. U.S. port, including antidumping and/or countervailing duties) of U.S. internal consumption/company transfers of Subject Merchandise imported from the Subject Country.

(9) If you are a producer, an exporter, or a trade/business association of producers or exporters of the Subject Merchandise in the Subject Country, provide the following information on your firm's(s') operations on that product during calendar year 2006 (report quantity data in units and value data in thousands of U.S. dollars, landed and duty-paid at the U.S. port but not including antidumping or countervailing duties). If you are a trade/business association, provide the information, on an aggregate basis, for the firms which are members of your association.

(a) Production (quantity) and, if known, an estimate of the percentage of total production of Subject Merchandise in the Subject Country accounted for by your firm's(s') production; and

(b) The quantity and value of your firm's(s') exports to the United States of Subject Merchandise and, if known, an estimate of the percentage of total exports to the United States of Subject Merchandise from the Subject Country accounted for by your firm's(s') exports.

(10) Identify significant changes, if any, in the supply and demand conditions or business cycle for the Domestic Like Product that have occurred in the United States or in the market for the Subject Merchandise in the Subject Country since the Order Date, and significant changes, if any, that are likely to occur within a reasonably foreseeable time. Supply conditions to consider include technology; production methods; development efforts; ability to increase production (including the shift of production facilities used for other products and the use, cost, or availability of major inputs into production); and factors related to the ability to shift supply among different national markets (including barriers to importation in foreign markets or changes in market demand abroad). Demand conditions to consider include end uses and applications; the existence and availability of substitute products; and the level of competition among the Domestic Like Product produced in the United States, Subject Merchandise produced in the Subject Country, and such merchandise from other countries.

(11) (Optional) A statement of whether you agree with the above definitions of the Domestic Like Product and Domestic Industry; if you disagree with either or both of these definitions, please explain why and provide alternative definitions.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[AAG/A Order No. 012-2007]

Privacy Act of 1974; Removal of a System of Records Notice

Pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), the Department of Justice (DOJ) is removing the published notice of a Privacy Act system of records entitled "Master Index File of Names, DAG-005," last published in the Federal Register on October 21, 1985, at 50 FR 42606.

The "Master Index File of Names" was a system for tracking individuals covered by the following systems of records: Appointed Assistant U.S. Attorneys Personnel System; Assistant U.S. Attorney Applicant Records; Presidential Appointee Candidate Records System; Presidential Appointee Records System; Special Candidates for Presidential Appointments Records System; and U.S. Judges Records System. The "Master Index File of Names" consisted of paper file cards containing individually identifiable information such as: date of birth; date of entry on duty in Federal Service; date of termination of Federal Service; and disposition of the records folder.

The file cards designated as "Master Index File of Names, DAG-005" were destroyed in accordance with National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) guidelines. The underlying records from which the information on these cards was extracted are all covered by other systems of records notices.

Therefore, the notice of "DAG-005, Master Index File of Names" is removed from the Department's listing of Privacy Act systems of records notices, effective on the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register.

Dated: April 19, 2007.
