SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-55677; File No. SR-CBOE-2007-32]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change Relating to Transaction Fees for Certain Electronically Executed Orders

April 27, 2007

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on March 29, 2007, the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated ("CBOE" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been substantially prepared by the CBOE. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to amend the CBOE Fees Schedule ("Fees Schedule") to increase transaction fees for certain electronically executed orders. The text of the proposed rule change is available at the CBOE, on the Exchange's Web site at <http://www.cboe.org/legal>, and in the Commission's Public Reference Room.

² 17 CFR 240.19b-4.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Currently, the Exchange charges $.25 per contract for broker-dealer transactions and $.26 per contract for non-member market-maker transactions, except for such transactions in options on the S&P 100 Index ("OEX" and "XEO") and options on the S&P 500 ("SPX"), which are charged $.30 per contract for broker-dealer and market-maker transactions and $.40 per contract for broker-dealer and market-maker transactions, respectively. The purpose of this proposed rule change is to amend the Fees Schedule to establish a higher fee for "electronically executed" broker-dealer and non-member market-maker orders, i.e., broker-dealer and non-member market-maker orders that are automatically executed on the CBOE Hybrid Trading System ("Hybrid").

The Exchange proposes to assess electronically executed broker-dealer and non-member market-maker orders a transaction fee of $.45 per contract. Manually executed broker-dealer and non-member market-maker orders would be assessed a transaction fee of $.25 per contract. The $.26 per contract non-member market-maker transaction fee would be deleted from the Fees Schedule. OEX, XEO and SPX broker-dealer and non-member market-maker fees would remain unchanged. Broker-dealer and non-member market-maker orders for options on the Morgan Stanley Retail Index ("MVR") would be charged $.25 per contract.³ A new Footnote 16 is proposed to be added to the Fees Schedule clarifying that the broker-dealer manual and electronic transaction fees apply to broker-dealer orders (orders with "B" origin code), non-member market-maker orders

³ OEX, MVR and SPX are currently non-Hybrid classes.

(orders with "N" origin code), and orders from specialists in the underlying security (orders with "Y" origin code).

No changes are proposed to Linkage order fees. The proposed broker-dealer electronic transaction fee is comparable to the RAES Access Fee assessed by the Exchange on certain orders executed through the RAES system in non-Hybrid classes, which is a fee assessed in addition to standard transaction fees.⁴ Like the RAES Access Fee, the Exchange believes the proposed broker-dealer electronic transaction fee will help allocate to such orders a fair share of the costs of running the automatic execution feature of Hybrid and related Exchange systems.

The proposed fees are modeled after the broker-dealer transaction fees of the NYSE Arca, Inc. ("NYSE Arca").⁵ The Exchange believes its proposed $.45 per contract fee is reasonable in that it is less than the $.50 per contract fee assessed by NYSE Arca on electronically executed broker-dealer and non-member market-maker orders.

2. Statutory Basis

The proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act,⁶ in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(4)⁷ of the Act, in particular, in that it is designed to provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among CBOE members and other persons using its facilities.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

CBOE does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing rule change establishes or changes a due, fee, or other charge imposed by the Exchange, it has become effective pursuant to

⁴ See CBOE Fees Schedule, Section 4.

⁵ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 54309 (August 11, 2006), 71 FR 48571 (August 21, 2006) (SR-NYSEArca-2006-25).

⁷ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(4).

Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act⁸ and subparagraph (f)(2) of Rule 19b-4⁹ thereunder. At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.¹⁰

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-55697; File No. SR-NASD-2007-027]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; Notice of Filing of Proposed Rule Change to NASD By-Laws Relating to SEC Section 31—Related Fees

May 2, 2007.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on April 17, 2007, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (“NASD”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been substantially prepared by NASD. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposal from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

NASD is proposing to allow member firms to voluntarily submit, within six months of the effective date of this rule proposal, funds previously accumulated by member firms to satisfy their, and subsequently NASD’s, obligation to remit SEC Section 31-related fees, to NASD. Below is the text of the proposed rule change. Proposed new language is in italics.

* * * * *

SCHEDULE A TO NASD BY-LAWS

Assessments and fees pursuant to the provisions of Article VI of the By-Laws of NASD shall be determined on the following basis.

* * * * *

Section 3—Regulatory Transaction Fee

Each member shall be assessed a regulatory transaction fee. The amount shall be determined periodically in accordance with Section 31 of the Act. Transactions assessable under this Section 3 that must be reported to NASD shall be reported in an automated manner.

IM-Section 3—Temporary Program to Address Accumulated Funds

Pursuant to Section 3 of Schedule A, NASD makes an assessment on member firms that NASD uses to pay fees owing to the SEC in accordance with Section 31 of the Act (“the Section 3 assessment”). The Section 31 fees payable by NASD to the SEC is determined based on the aggregate dollar amount of “covered sales,” as defined by SEC Rule 31, effected otherwise than on an exchange by or through any member of the NASD. Members, in many cases, have passed along the Section 3 assessment on a trade-by-trade basis to their customers or correspondent firms. For certain reasons, including the difference between the calculation of the Section 3 assessment on an aggregate basis and its collection by member firms from customers or correspondent firms on a disaggregated trade-by-trade basis, there has been an historical accumulation of funds collected by members that are in excess of their Section 3 assessment. Consequently, these funds were not remitted to NASD.

NASD has determined that it is appropriate for these accumulated funds, if remitted to the NASD, to be used to pay NASD’s current Section 31 fees, which conforms the use of those funds with the stated purpose for which they were collected. Consequently, members may voluntarily remit all or part of historically accumulated funds that were collected and are in surplus to the Section 3 assessment of such firms in accordance with the terms of this Interpretive Material.

This temporary program will automatically sunset six months after the effective date, and thereafter may not be utilized by members after a date certain. Members are reminded that the SEC stated in its release adopting new Rule 31 and Rule 31T that “it is misleading to suggest that a customer or [self-regulatory] member incurs an obligation to the Commission under Section 31.” Further, NASD has issued guidance to members in the form of two Notices to Members to ensure there is no confusion in the marketplace between

NASD’s “Regulatory Transaction Fee” and the “SEC’s Section 31 Fee.”

* * * * *

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, NASD included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. NASD has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and the Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Pursuant to Section 31 of the Act³ and SEC Rule 31, NASD and the national securities exchanges (collectively “SROs”) are required to pay a transaction fee to the SEC that is designed to recover the costs related to the government’s supervision and regulation of the securities markets and securities professionals. To offset this obligation, NASD assesses its clearing and self-clearing members a regulatory fee in accordance with Section 3 of Schedule A of the NASD By-Laws, which mirrors the SEC Section 31 fee in scope and amount. Clearing members may in turn seek to charge a fee to their customers or correspondent firms. Any allocation of the fee between the clearing member and its correspondent firm or customer is the responsibility of the clearing member.

Reconciling the amounts billed by NASD and the amounts collected from the customers historically had been difficult for member firms, causing surpluses to accumulate at some broker-dealer firms (referred to as “accumulated funds”). These accumulated funds were not remitted to NASD, despite the fact that these charges may have been previously identified as “Section 31 Fees” or “SEC Fees” by certain firms.⁴

³ 15 U.S.C. 78ee.

⁴ NASD’s rule also previously referred to this fee as an “SEC Transaction Fee.” The SEC stated in its release adopting new Rule 31 and Rule 31T that “it is misleading to suggest that a customer or [self-regulatory organization] member incurs an obligation to the Commission under Section 31.” See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 49928 (June 28, 2004), 69 FR 41060, 41072 (July 7, 2004). In response to this statement, NASD amended its rule to refer to this fee as a “Regulatory Transaction
