Rural Economic Development Loan and Grant Programs

AGENCIES: Rural Business-Cooperative Service and Rural Utilities Service, USDA.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This action modifies the regulations for the Rural Economic Development Loan and Grant Programs. This revised regulation is written in a format that is simpler in design and should improve ease of use by the public and program beneficiaries.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 29, 2007.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jody Raskind, Director, Specialty Lenders Division, Rural Business-Cooperative Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, STOP 3225, 1400 Independence Ave., SW., Washington, DC 20250-3225, Telephone (202) 720-1400.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Classification

This final rule has been determined to be significant and has been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under Executive Order 12866.

Programs Affected

The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance number for the programs impacted by this action is 10.854, Rural Economic Development Loans and Grants.

Intergovernmental Review

Rural Economic Development Loans and Grants are subject to the provisions of Executive Order 12372, which requires intergovernmental consultation with State and local officials. RBS has conducted intergovernmental consultation in the manner delineated in RD Instruction 1940-J, "Intergovernmental Review of Farmers Home Administration Programs and Activities," and in 7 CFR part 3015, subpart V.

Civil Justice Reform

This final rule has been reviewed under Executive Order 12988, Civil Justice Reform. In accordance with this rule: (1) All State and local laws and regulations that are in conflict with this rule will be preempted; (2) no retroactive effect will be given this rule; and (3) administrative proceedings in accordance with the regulations of the Department of Agriculture National Appeals Division (7 CFR part 11) must be exhausted before bringing suit in court challenging action taken under this rule unless those regulations specifically allow bringing suit at an earlier time.

Environmental Impact Statement

This document has been reviewed in accordance with 7 CFR part 1940, subpart G, "Environmental Program." RBS has determined that this action does not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment, and in accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, 42 U.S.C. 4321-4374, an Environmental Impact Statement is not required.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

Title II of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA), Pub. L. 104-4, establishes requirements for Federal agencies to assess the effects of their regulatory actions on State, local, and tribal governments and the private sector. Under Section 202 of the UMRA, RBS must prepare a written statement, including a cost-benefit analysis, for proposed and final rules with "Federal mandates" that may result in expenditures to State, local or tribal governments, in the aggregate, or to the private sector, of $100 million or more in any 1 year. When such a statement is needed for a rule, section 205 of UMRA generally requires RBS to identify and consider a reasonable number of regulatory alternatives and adopt the least costly, more cost effective or least burdensome alternative that achieves the objectives of the rule.

This rule contains no Federal mandates (under the regulatory provisions of title II of the UMRA) for State, local, and tribal governments or the private sector. Thus, this rule is not subject to the requirements of sections 202 and 205 of UMRA.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

In compliance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601-602), the Agency has determined that this action would not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This regulation only impacts those who choose to participate in the loan or grant program. Small entity applicants will not be impacted to a greater extent than large entity applicants.

Executive Order 13132

It has been determined under Executive Order 13132, Federalism, that this rule does not have sufficient implications to warrant the preparation of a Federalism Assessment. The provisions contained in this rule will not have a substantial direct effect on states or their political subdivisions or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of Government.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The information collection and recordkeeping requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the provisions of 44 U.S.C. chapter 35 and were assigned OMB control number 0570-0035, in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no person is required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The revisions in this rulemaking, for 7 CFR part 4280, required an amendment to the burden package and this modification has been approved by OMB.

E-Government Act Compliance

The Rural Business-Cooperative Service is committed to complying with the E-Government Act, to promote the use of the Internet and other information technologies to provide increased opportunities for citizen access to Government information and services, and for other purposes.

Background

The proposed rule for the Rural Economic Development Loan and Grant (REDLG) programs was published on December 15, 1999, in the Federal Register, in Vol. 64, No. 240, pages 69937-69946, as 7 CFR part 4280. The proposed rule was originally structured in a format consisting of questions and answers. To provide for an easier understanding of these programs, inasmuch as it includes the participation of three distinct parties (the Federal Government, the intermediary, and the third-party ultimate recipient), this final rule has been restructured in the standardized format utilized by the Agency in its other regulations. Consequently, several section numbers and headings of the final rule have been modified due to the change in format.

The existing regulations for the REDLG programs are found at 7 CFR part 1703, subpart B, and will be removed from Part 1703 upon publication of this final rule.

The REDLG programs were originally implemented in 1989 as part of the rural economic development program of the Rural Electrification Administration, predecessor to the Rural Utilities Service (RUS). As a result of the United States Department of Agriculture reorganization, responsibility for these programs was transferred to Business Programs under the Rural Business-Cooperative Service (RBS), which provides financing for rural areas. These programs are administered at the State level through the Department of Agriculture's Rural Development State Offices.

Since its inception in 1989, these programs have had a substantial impact on economic development in rural areas. As of September 30, 2005, the REDLG programs have provided $217.5 million in loans and $92.7 million in grants, leveraged over $2.5 billion, and directly created an estimated 35,000 new jobs for rural areas.

Under these programs, loans or grants are provided to eligible electric and telecommunications utilities. The purpose of the programs is to encourage these utilities to promote rural economic development and job creation projects. The utility, previously referred to as the "RUS Borrower" now referred to as the "intermediary" can receive loans to help finance projects such as business start-up costs, business expansion, community development, and business incubator projects. The intermediary must use program loan funds to make a pass-through loan to an ultimate recipient such as a business. The intermediary is responsible for fully repaying its loan to the Government even if the ultimate recipient does not repay its loan.

The intermediary must use program grant funds, along with its required contribution, to create a revolving loan fund that the intermediary utility will operate and administer. Loans to the ultimate recipient are made from the revolving loan fund for a variety of projects.

Comments and Responses on the Proposed Rule

A total of 22 organizations responded within the official 30-day comment period. In addition to the comments solicited from the general public through the rulemaking process, RBS held a public meeting on August 2, 2000, to hear oral presentations on the proposed rule. Four public organizations made presentations. All comments, both written and oral, were considered and some revisions in the final rule are in response to those comments. Some of these revisions include clarifications to better explain the programs. The majority of the comments centered on the selection factors established in § 4280.42(b) for Agency use in evaluating and scoring the applications. Other comments pertained to the elimination of a previously eligible purpose and to supplemental funds use. The comments have been grouped into 8 categories and are discussed below based on the applicable section number of the final rule.

Comment. Some comments indicated that intermediaries do not want their supplemental contribution applied to the same project as funded by the Agency grant, but wanted their contribution available to lend to a separate project.

Response. The Agency is aware that intermediaries have experienced difficulty in full utilization of supplemental funds. RBS has considered these comments and has amended the final rule to give the intermediary the option to use its supplemental contribution for the same project the Agency is financing or to fund another eligible project. If the intermediary chooses to finance a separate eligible project, the matching funds must be used within 3 years from the date of the grant agreement or the grant will be terminated. Subsequent use of revolved funds will be managed in accordance with the Agency—approved revolving loan fund plan and the interest rates on those loans will be at the discretion of the intermediary as shown in the plan, but not to exceed the prevailing prime rate.

Comment. Some comments opposed the proposed exclusion of agricultural production as an eligible purpose. The commenting entities believe that agriculture is a vital business component of their state economy and providing for both value-added agriculture and priority markets for farmers is very important.

Response. Historically, funding under the REDLG program has not been heavily applied for or utilized by agricultural production projects. The Agency has decided to allow agricultural production as an eligible purpose only where the project benefits farmer-owned cooperatives or a similar farmer-owned organization through which benefits are passed directly to the farmer members.

Comment. Some comments stated that applications for advanced telecommunications or computer networks to facilitate medical, educational, or job training projects should not be eligible for priority points under two separate sections of the regulation, that is, § 4280.42(b)(1)(iii) and 4280.43(d). The comments stated that this type of project should be a priority of the programs since one of the ways rural America can be more competitive is to have advanced telecommunications systems for health care, job training, and business use. They believe, however, that there are other infrastructure and business assistance needs that must also be met.

Response. RBS agrees that advanced telecommunications and computer network projects should be a priority. To address this, RBS had initially added five points to those projects in addition to those added under § 4280.42(b)(1)(iii). RBS now agrees that there are other program priorities that must be met and Advanced Telecommunications and computer network projects should not receive two sets of priority points. Accordingly, § 4280.43(d) will be removed.

Comment. Some comments stated that using a selection factor that measures job creation per $100,000 of project costs is too limiting. Another comment supported the existing regulation that awards points for job creation under a subjective factor.

Response. RBS disagrees that a measure of jobs per $100,000 is too limiting. We agree that a broader approach to job creation is helpful. Therefore, we have maintained the selection factor of jobs per $100,000, but have expanded the definitions to include "direct", "indirect", "full-time", "part-time", and "seasonal" jobs as well as a formula for determining full-time job equivalents. These definitions clarify formulaic requirements for correct calculation of program job creation statistics in accordance with Agency requirements. To calculate full-time equivalent jobs, two part-time jobs are counted as one full-time job or three seasonal jobs as one full-time job. If the total number of part-time and seasonal jobs adds up to a fraction, round up to the next whole number after combining same.

Comment. Some comments supported the proposed elimination of the rural restrictions pointing out the positive regional aspects that projects in larger communities have over the rural economy. Other comments urged the Agency to retain these restrictions, pointing out that the Agency should give priority to very rural locations.

Response. The Agency has revised its definition of rural to allow projects to be funded in areas with a population of 50,000 or less which is the statutory limit. However, the Agency will retain its historical practice to allow priority points to projects in rural areas with a population of less than 2,500.

Comment. The majority of comments opposed awarding points based on the award being an initial one for the intermediary or the county rather than focusing funding on the best possible projects.

Response. RBS has taken into consideration the fact that the majority of intermediaries that are active participants in the REDLG project are concentrated in a few states and these intermediaries have received the highest number of REDLG awards. The intermediaries in these states have access to affiliated economic development organizations that assist the intermediaries in seeking prospective business clients, providing technical assistance in promoting rural development, and in packaging applications. Not all intermediaries throughout the country have such technical expertise available. This discourages their participation in the REDLG program. To ensure that the greatest number of intermediaries has access to the benefits of the program, RBS will award priority points if the application is a first-time award for a new intermediary or if it is an award to an existing intermediary that will fund a project in a county not previously served.

Comment. Some comments stated that the requirement for a financial plan that covers the term of the loan was excessive.

Response. RBS has changed this section to require a 3-year financial plan from the ultimate recipient.

Comment. One comment stated that the selection of awards should be based on points, regardless of the number of previous awards given to the intermediary in a fiscal year.

Response. To ensure that the greatest numbers of intermediaries have access to the benefits of the programs, the Agency will retain the proposed provision that the Agency may limit an intermediary to one selected grant application and two selected loan applications in a fiscal year, depending upon availability of funds.

Other Clarifications to Final Rule

Section 4280.2: the reference to “loan” was changed to “REDG Zero-Interest Loan” and “REDL Zero-Interest Loan” to better reflect that REDLG encompasses two separate and distinct programs; the definition for “project” was revised to add “ultimate recipient activity” for clarification purposes; the nomenclature “RUS Borrower” was eliminated replaced with “intermediary.” A definition was provided for “intermediary” to meet the requirements of the programs. The definition indicates that RUS remains the final determinant of an intermediary’s eligibility for participation in the programs; a definition of “rural area” was added; and the definition for an “ultimate recipient” was revised to list all eligible entities.

Sections 4280.3 and 4280.15(a), are revised to clarify the definition of “start-up venture costs.”

Section 4280.15(g), clarifies that zero-interest loans are allowable for REDG projects in accordance with § 4280.21.

Section 4280.17, clarifies that payments on zero-interest loans are due in monthly installments; and provides guidance regarding disposition of partial loan payments made by ultimate recipients.

Sections 4280.19 and 4280.50, state that administration and termination of grants will be subject, where applicable, to 7 CFR parts 3015 and 3019.

Section 4280.21, a reference to Federally-recognized Indian tribes was inserted to clarify the definition of eligible ultimate recipients in connection with § 4280.3.

Section 4280.23, clarifies the intended use of the Intermediary’s contribution to the revolving loan fund and the reasons that will result in termination of the fund.

Provisions previously stated under Section 4280.24 have been combined with Section 4280.23 to maintain consistency in subject matter. The nomenclature “Non-Federal Funds” has been changed to “Revolved Funds” for clarification of the true nature of the funding. Section 4280.24 now clarifies “Revolved Funds.”

Section 4280.27, clarifies that program funds cannot be used to refinance existing indebtedness of the ultimate recipient project; and cites those instances where program funds may be eligible for agricultural production purposes.

Section 4280.29, reflects that either the intermediary or the ultimate recipient may provide the 20 percent supplemental financing required for the Ultimate Recipient Project.

Section 4280.36: clarifies Equal Employment Opportunity, nondiscrimination and civil rights requirements; clarifies that loans made from the revolving loan fund, when funds are derived from repayments or interest earnings, and not directly from the Government, are not subject to the Agency’s environmental clearance process; clarifies the need to comply with flood hazard insurance requirements; and provides audit requirements for assistance under this program.

Section 4280.42(b)(5), the economic factor used has been changed to per capita personal income rather than median household income. Per capita personal income is a more appropriate indicator of current wages and economic wealth of the county where the project is located and has historically been used in the REDLG programs.

REDG Zero-Interest Loans are made by the Intermediary from the Revolving Loan Fund to Ultimate Recipients for the purpose of financing specific, approved Projects. Ultimate Recipients are responsible for repayment to the Intermediary. The Ultimate Recipient's loan repayments are to be retained in the Revolving Loan Fund, which is maintained by the Intermediary, to finance other rural economic development Projects. Only the initial loan made by the Intermediary from the Revolving Loan Fund has to be at zero interest.

§ 4280.23 Requirements for lending from Revolving Loan Fund.

(a) Supplemental contribution. The Intermediary must establish a Revolving Loan Fund and contribute an amount equal to at least 20 percent of the Grant. The supplemental contribution must come from Intermediary's funds which may not be from other Federal Grants, unless permitted by law.

(b) Use of supplemental contribution. The Intermediary's contribution will only be used to make REDG loans and not other investment purposes. The Intermediary's contribution must remain a permanent part of the Revolving Loan Fund until the Fund is terminated.

(c) REDG Zero-Interest Loan Requirements. The Fund is made up of Rural Development and Intermediary contributions and must be loaned in accordance with one of the following 2 options:

(1) The contribution may be used to fund the same Project that Rural Development is funding. The interest rate on that portion of the financing using Rural Development funds will be at zero percent. The interest rate on that portion of the financing using the Intermediary's contribution may be greater than zero percent but must be less than, or equal to, the prevailing prime rate. Using this option, loan security and recovery of loan losses must provide for the pro rata recovery and distribution between the Intermediary and Rural Development based on the respective amounts of each contribution to the total loan amount for the Project.

(2) The Intermediary's contribution may be used to fund Projects separate from the Project financed with Rural Development funds, provided that the Project is eligible in accordance with § 4280.21.

(3) Whether the Intermediary chooses the option under paragraph (c)(1) or paragraph (c)(2) of this section, its contribution must be used to fund an eligible Project within 3 years from the date of the Grant agreement. If the Intermediary fails to use its contribution within this 3-year period, Rural Development will terminate the Grant.

(d) Intermediary's supplemental funds. Once revolved, monies from the Fund may be loaned at an interest rate called for in the Revolving Loan Fund Plan, not to exceed the prevailing prime rate.

(e) Eligible purposes only. Until the total amount in the Fund has been loaned, all loans must be made for eligible purposes as stated in § 4280.21. After the Fund has been loaned, in accordance with § 4280.21 of this subpart, the Intermediary shall make loans to finance rural economic development purposes in accordance with the Revolving Loan Fund Plan. All loan repayments, including interest earned, must be deposited into the Fund.

(f) Termination for cause. Rural Development will terminate the Fund and require repayment of the Grant funds in accordance with 7 CFR parts 3015 and 3019 if Rural Development determines that the Fund is not being operated according to the approved Revolving Loan Fund Plan, this subpart, or for other good cause determined by Rural Development, such as questionable prepayment of initial loans.

(g) All REDG Loans must be made to Rural Ultimate Recipients.

§ 4280.24 Revolved funds.

Rural Development and the Intermediary's supplemental funds will be considered revolved after they have been loaned to Ultimate Recipients and subsequently repaid. Loans made from revolved funds will not require prior approval of Rural Development for creditworthiness or environmental clearance purposes. All other Federal compliance requirements, including those in this subpart, remain in effect.

§ 4280.25 Revolving Loan Fund Plan.

Each REDG Intermediary must adopt a Rural Development-approved plan that specifies that:

(a) The initial loan made from the Fund will be at zero percent interest and have a maximum term of 10 years;

(b) Loans made from loan repayments may carry an interest rate less than, or equal to, the prevailing prime rate. The Intermediary determines repayment terms and security arrangements on these loans.

(c) Loans made from repayments of REDG loans must be for eligible Program purposes;

(d) The Intermediary is solely responsible for the financial approval of Fund loans and all other Fund decisions and actions; and

(e) No changes will be made to a Rural Development-approved Revolving Loan Fund Plan without the prior written approval of Rural Development.

§ 4280.26 Administration and operation of the Revolving Loan Fund.

(a) The Intermediary will operate and administer the Revolving Loan Fund. The Intermediary may contract with a third party for administrative services regarding the Fund. However, the Intermediary must permanently retain all Project review, approval, and monitoring authority and responsibility. This authority and responsibility cannot be delegated to any other person or entity.

(b) Up to 10 percent of Rural Development Grant funds may be applied toward operating expenses over the life of the Fund. Operating expenses include the costs of administering the Fund and Technical Assistance provided to Project owners by Independent Providers.

(c) In cases where the Intermediary uses its supplemental contribution to the Revolving Loan Fund for a Project other than the Project that resulted in the Intermediary being awarded the Grant, the loan terms must not exceed 10 years and the interest rate must be less than, or equal to, the prevailing prime rate.

§ 4280.27 Ineligible purposes.

Zero-Interest Loans may not be used:

(a) For activities that would adversely affect the environment, or activities that limit the choice of reasonable alternatives prior to satisfying Rural Development environmental requirements;

(b) To pay off or refinance any existing indebtedness or costs of the Project that were incurred prior to Rural Development receipt of the Intermediary's completed application;

(c) For any electric or telecommunications purpose or for the Intermediary's electric or telecommunications operations, for affiliated operations of the Intermediary, or for the benefit of other Intermediaries or their affiliated operations, except those purposes contained in § 4280.15(f);

(g) Where there is directly or indirectly a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest in the Project; for Intermediaries this would include a situation in which the Intermediary, its officers, managers, Board of Directors, employees, their spouses, children, or close relatives, have a financial or ownership interest in the Project being funded, including its construction or development;

(h) For any purpose when receipt of loan funds is conditioned upon the requirement that the Ultimate Recipient acquire electric or telecommunications service from the Intermediary or its affiliates;

(i) For any gambling activity;

(j) For a Project that would result in the transfer of existing employment or business activity more than 25 miles from its existing location;

(k) For proposed Projects located in areas covered by the Coastal Barrier Resources Act (16 U.S.C. 3501–3510);

(l) For any illegal activity or any activity involving prostitution;

(m) For Agricultural Production, except where the Project is a farmer-owned cooperative or similar organization where the benefits of the Project are passed on to the farmer-owners, and the Agricultural Production is part of an integrated business that processes the agricultural products, and the Agricultural Production portion of the loan will not exceed 50% of the loan amount;

(n) For any pass-through Grant funding activity (a Grant by the Intermediary to the Ultimate Recipient);

Initial compliance reviews will be conducted with the Intermediary when Form RD 400–4, "Assurance Agreement," is signed. For each loan or Grant an Intermediary receives, a new Form RD 400–4 must be completed. Each Ultimate Recipient must go through the same pre-award compliance review process and must also sign Form RD 400–4. For loans and Grants, a pre-award review is required before loan or Grant approval or any disbursement of funds. For Intermediaries, a post-award compliance review is required 90 days after closing the loan or Grant. This review is not required for Ultimate Recipients. Subsequent compliance reviews will be conducted 3 years from the date the post-award compliance review is completed for Intermediaries and 3 years from the date the pre-award compliance review is completed for Ultimate Recipients. Where Grant funds are used for a Revolving Loan Fund, compliance reviews are required for the Intermediaries for as long as the Fund is in operation. For Ultimate Recipients, compliance reviews are conducted until the loan is repaid to the Fund.

Adjustment of the Immigration and Naturalization Benefit Application and Petition Fee Schedule

AGENCY: United States Citizenship and Immigration Services, DHS.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This rule adjusts the fee schedule for U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) immigration and naturalization benefit applications and petitions, including nonimmigrant applications and visa petitions. These fees fund the cost of processing applications and petitions for immigration benefits and services, and USCIS' associated operating costs. USCIS is revising these fees because the current fee schedule does not adequately reflect current USCIS processes or recover the full costs of services provided by USCIS. Without an immediate adjustment of the fee schedule, USCIS cannot provide adequate capacity to process all applications and petitions in a timely and efficient manner. In addition, the revised fees will eliminate USCIS' dependency on revenue from interim benefits, temporary programs, and premium processing fees. This rule also merges fees for certain applications and petitions so applicants and petitioners will only have to pay a single fee. In addition, the rule expands the classes of aliens that will be exempt from paying filing fees for certain immigration benefits, and modifies the criteria for waiving the filing fee due to an individual's inability to pay. Based on comments received by USCIS during the public comment period, this rule changes the fees for adjustment of status applications, and the fee waiver and exemption eligibility criteria for several immigration benefits. This final rule will provide sufficient funding for USCIS to meet national security, customer service, and processing time goals, and to sustain and improve service delivery.
