III. Eligibility Information

III.1. Eligible Applicants

Applications may be submitted by public and private nonprofit organizations, and by governments and their agencies, such as:

- Public nonprofit organizations.
- Private nonprofit organizations.

Organizations must be based in India.

III.2. Cost Sharing or Matching

Matching funds are not required for this program.

III.3. Other

If you request a funding amount greater than the ceiling of the award range, your application will be considered non-responsive and will not be entered into the review process. You will be notified that your application did not meet the submission requirements.

If your application is incomplete or non-responsive to the requirements listed below, it will not be entered into the review process. You will be notified that your application did not meet the submission requirements.

Applicants must have:

1. At least five years of experience in delivering HIV, STD and/or TB prevention and care programs in India.

2. At least three years of experience implementing programs to deliver and monitor care and support for HIV/AIDS at both the community and the home-based level in India. These programs must be ongoing and established in high risk communities in high prevalence states in India.

In December of 2003, the government of India made a landmark commitment to collaborate with the World Health Organization in implementing their initiative of "Treating 3 Million People by 2005" by providing antiretroviral treatment to a large population of people living with HIV/AIDS in India. As a result an urgent immediate need exists to support, expand and sustain activities for comprehensive community and home-based care for HIV positive individuals and family members.

Starting an effective community and home-based HIV care program from scratch, including establishing partnerships with key partners cannot be accomplished in the limited time required. To successfully address and meet the critical time sensitive need for rapid scale up, an established program with demonstrated partnerships within the HIV positive community and a proven track record must be identified and utilized to respond to the government's initiative and the CDC GAP.
