

SAS No. 96, Audit Documentation, also stated that, “the auditor has an ethical, and in some situations a legal, obligation to maintain the confidentiality of client information,” and referenced Rule 301, Confidential Client Information, of the AICPA’s Code of Professional Conduct. Again, the Board’s proposed standard on audit documentation did not include this provision. In adopting certain interim standards and rules as of April 16, 2003, the Board did not adopt Rule 301 of the AICPA’s Code of Professional Conduct. In this standard on audit documentation, the Board seeks neither to establish confidentiality standards nor to modify or detract from any existing applicable confidentiality requirements.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule and Timing for Commission Action

Within 35 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the Board consents, the Commission will:

- (a) By order approve such proposed rule; or

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34–50020]

Extension of Order Regarding Broker-Dealer Financial Statement Requirements Under Section 17 of the Exchange Act

July 14, 2004.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) is extending its Order, originally issued on August 4, 2003 (the “2003 Order”) ¹ under Section 17(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”), regarding audits of financial statements of broker-dealers that are not issuers (“non-public broker-dealers”). The 2003 Order provided that non-public broker-dealers may file with the Commission and may send to their customers documents and information required by Section 17(e) certified by an independent public accountant, instead of by a registered public accounting firm, until January 1, 2005, unless rules are in place regarding Board registration of auditors of non-public broker-dealers that set an earlier date.

Section 17(e)(1)(A) of the Exchange Act requires that every registered broker-dealer annually file with the Commission a certified balance sheet and income statement, and Section 17(e)(1)(B) requires that the broker-dealer annually send to its customers its “certified balance sheet.” ² The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (“Act”) ³ established the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (“Board”) ⁴ and amended Section 17(e) to replace the words “an independent public accountant” with “a registered public accounting firm.” ⁵

The Act establishes a deadline for registration with the Board of auditors of financial statements of “issuers,” as that term is defined in the Act. ⁶ The Act does not provide a deadline for registration of auditors of non-public broker-dealers.

The 2003 Order expires January 1, 2005. Application of registration requirements and procedures to auditors of non-public broker-dealers is still being considered. The Commission has therefore determined that extending the Order is consistent with the public interest and the protection of investors.

Accordingly, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 17(e) of the Exchange Act, that non-public broker-dealers may file with the Commission a balance sheet and income statement and may send to their customers a balance sheet certified by an independent public accountant, instead of by a registered public accounting firm, for fiscal years ending before January 1, 2006, unless the Commission has approved rules regarding Board registration of auditors of non-public broker-dealers that set an earlier date.

By the Commission,
Margaret H. McFarland,
Deputy Secretary.
