

collected by the private vending company as provided by the regulations in 34 CFR 395.32(b).

Accordingly, the panel made the following award: (1) USPS should terminate at the earliest practicable date the contract with the private vending company, thus allowing for an SLA-licensed blind vendor to operate the vending machine facility at P&DC; (2) USPS should promptly approve an appropriate permit agreement with the SLA for the continued operation of the vending facility at P&DC; and (3) USPS should pay to the SLA all sums received from the private vending company for the operation of the vending machines at P&DC and all sums to be received until the termination of the contract with the private vending company.

One panel member dissented.

The views and opinions expressed by the panel do not necessarily represent the views and opinions of the U.S. Department of Education.
