

activities for reemployment services and determining whether the purpose of the funds was achieved. Specific reporting is necessary to adequately evaluate the reemployment services activities separately from regular employment and training program operations and recordkeeping.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions

This is a request for Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval of an extension to an existing collection of information previously approved for activities funded through reemployment services allotments, from current end date of December 31, 2004, to a new end date of December 31, 2007.
