

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange is proposing to amend PCXE Rule 4.11(b)(1) relating to late filings of FOCUS Reports to implement a higher late charge schedule.

Currently, PCXE Rule 4.11(b)(1) requires ETP ("Equity Trading Permits") Holders to file with the Exchange a FOCUS Report as set forth in SEC Rules 17a-5 and 17a-10. ETP Holders who fail to file such a FOCUS Report in a timely manner are subject to late filing charges. If an ETP Holder is late 1-30 days, the late fee is $200; for 31-60 days, the late fee is $400; and for 61-90 days, the late fee is $800.

The Exchange proposes to amend PCXE Rule 4.11(b)(1) to reflect a higher late charge schedule. For a first occurrence, an ETP Holder who is 1-30 days late in filing a FOCUS Report will be charged $100 per day (capped at $500); for 31-60 days, the ETP Holder will be charged $750; and for 61-90 days, the ETP Holder will be charged $1000. For a second occurrence, an ETP Holder who is 1-30 days late will be charged $100 per day (capped at $1000); for 31-60 days, the ETP Holder will be charged $1500; and for 61-90 days, the ETP Holder will be charged $2000. For a third occurrence, an ETP Holder who is 1-30 days late will be charged $2000; for 31-60 days, the ETP Holder will be charged $2500; and for 61-90 days, the ETP Holder will be charged $3000. Occurrences for late FOCUS Report filings will be calculated on a running two-year basis.

The Exchange will retain its flexibility to refer repeated or aggravated failure to file such reports or failure to file such reports, regardless of the number of days late, to the Enforcement Department. The Exchange believes that implementing a higher late charge schedule is necessary to convey the importance of FOCUS Reports to ETP Holders and to encourage the ETP Holders to file FOCUS Reports in a timely manner.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with section 6(b) of the Act⁴ in general, and furthers the objectives of section 6(b)(4) of the Act⁵ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among its members.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments on the proposed rule change were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii)⁶ of the Act and subparagraph (f)(2) of Rule 19b-4⁷ thereunder because it establishes or changes a due, fee, or other charge imposed by the Exchange. At any time within 60 days of the filing of such proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange is proposing to amend PCX Rule 2.12(b)(1) relating to late filings of FOCUS Reports to implement a higher late charge schedule.

Currently, PCX Rule 2.12(b)(1) requires each Member Organization to file with the Exchange a FOCUS Report as set forth in SEC Rules 17a-5 and 17a-10. Members who fail to file such a FOCUS Report in a timely manner are subject to late filing charges. If a Member is late 1-30 days, the late fee is $200; for 31-60 days, the late fee is $400; and for 61-90 days, the late fee is $800.

The Exchange proposes to amend PCX Rule 2.12(b)(1) to reflect a higher late charge schedule. For a first occurrence, a Member who is 1-30 days late in filing a FOCUS Report will be charged $100 per day (capped at $500); for 31-60 days, the Member will be charged $750; and for 61-90 days, the Member will be charged $1000. For a second occurrence, a Member who is 1-30 days late will be charged $100 per day (capped at $1000); for 31-60 days, the Member will be charged $1500; and for 61-90 days, the Member will be charged $2000. For a third occurrence, a Member who is 1-30 days late will be charged $2000; for 31-60 days, the Member will be charged $2500; and for 61-90 days, the Member will be charged $3000. Occurrences for late FOCUS Report filings will be calculated on a running two-year basis.

The Exchange will retain its flexibility to refer repeated or aggravated failure to file such reports or failure to file such reports, regardless of the number of days late, to the Enforcement Department. The Exchange believes that implementing a higher late charge schedule is necessary to convey the importance of the FOCUS Reports to the Members and to encourage Members to file the FOCUS Reports in a timely manner.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with section 6(b) of the Act⁴ in general, and furthers the objectives of section 6(b)(4) of the Act⁵ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among its members.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments on the proposed rule change were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii)⁶ of the Act and subparagraph (f)(2) of Rule 19b-4⁷ thereunder, because it establishes or changes a due, fee, or other charge imposed by the Exchange. At any time within 60 days of the filing of such proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
