DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

[CFDA No. 84.358A]

Small, Rural School Achievement Program

AGENCY: Office of Elementary and Secondary Education, Department of Education.

ACTION: Notice extending application deadline.

SUMMARY: Under the Small, Rural School Achievement (SRSA) Program, we will award grants on a formula basis to eligible local educational agencies (LEAs) to address the unique needs of rural school districts. In this notice, we are extending the deadline for eligible LEAs to apply for fiscal year (FY) 2004 funding under the program.

DATES: Application Deadline: All applications must be received electronically by August 25, 2004, 4:30 p.m. eastern time.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On June 30, 2004, we published a notice in the Federal Register (69 FR 39443-39444) establishing a July 30, 2004, deadline for LEAs to apply for funding under the program. We subsequently published a notice extending that deadline until August 6, 2004 (69 FR 47127 to 47128). As discussed in the initial notice, some LEAs that are eligible for FY 2004 SRSA funding are considered already to have met the application deadline based on their previously submitted application and do not have to submit a new application to the Department to receive their FY 2004 SRSA grant awards. The Department's Web site at <http://www.ed.gov/offices/OESE/> indicates which eligible LEAs must submit an application to receive a FY 2004 SRSA grant award.

We have recently learned that some eligible LEAs were unable to meet the extended deadline of August 6, 2004, because of unavailability of district personnel and for other reasons. In order to afford as many eligible LEAs as possible an opportunity to receive funding under this program, we are extending the application deadline to August 25, 2004, 4:30 p.m. eastern time. We have already notified each State educational agency of this extension and have also posted the new application deadline on the Department's Web site.

An eligible LEA that is required to submit a new SRSA application in order to receive FY 2004 SRSA funding and that has not done so by the original application deadline may apply for funds by the deadline in this notice.

We encourage eligible LEAs to submit their applications as soon as possible to avoid any problems with filing electronic applications on the last day. The deadline for submission of applications will not be extended any further as we must make awards by September 30, 2004.

Electronic Submission of Applications: To receive its share of FY 2004 SRSA funding, an eligible LEA that is required to submit a new SRSA application and that has not done so must submit an electronic application to the Department by August 25, 2004, 4:30 p.m. eastern time. Submission of an electronic application involves the use of the Department's Electronic Grant Application System (e-Application) available through the Department's e-GRANTS system.

You can access the electronic application for the SRSA Program at: <http://e-grants.ed.gov>.

Once you access this site, you will receive specific instructions regarding the information to include in your application.

The regular hours of operation of the e-Grants Web site are 6 a.m. Monday until 7 p.m. Wednesday; and 6 a.m. Thursday until midnight, Saturday (Washington, DC time). Please note that the system is unavailable on Sundays, Federal holidays, and after 7 p.m. on Wednesdays for maintenance (Washington, DC time).

ELECTION ASSISTANCE COMMISSION

Statement of Policy Regarding National Mail Voter Registration Form

AGENCY: United States Election Assistance Commission.

ACTION: Statement of Policy.

SUMMARY: The Commission intends to exercise its discretion in administering the National Mail Voter Registration Form by interpreting the waiver of the effective date for implementing the Computerized Statewide Voter Registration List required by the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA) to extend to all of the requirements of subsection (a) of Section 303 of HAVA, including the requirements of paragraph (a)(5) of that section. Therefore, a State that has obtained a waiver extending the effective date of Section 303(a)(5) until January 1, 2006 may use State-specific instructions for Box 6 that may change when Section 303(a)(5) becomes effective as to that State.

DATES: August 10, 2004.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John C. Vergelli, Attorney Advisor, 1225 New York Ave., NW., Suite 1100, Washington, DC 20005. Telephone: (202) 566-3100.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Title III of HAVA, entitled "Uniform and Nondiscriminatory Election Technology and Administration Requirements," imposes certain requirements upon States and local jurisdictions conducting federal elections. HAVA Sections 301-303. Among other things, a State or local jurisdiction must verify voter registration information. Specifically, paragraph (a)(5) of section 303 of HAVA requires the collection of certain identifying information from applicants, or, in certain circumstances, the assignment of a unique identifying number.

HAVA further provides that the requirements of subsection (a) of section 303, including paragraph (a)(5), became effective on January 1, 2004. HAVA Section 303(d)(1)(A). However, a State could have obtained a waiver that delays the effective date until January 1, 2006. HAVA section 303(d)(1)(B). Forty-four States obtained such a waiver.

The United States Election Assistance Commission (EAC) has succeeded to the responsibilities of maintaining the National Mail Voter Registration Application Form ("Form") authorized by the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA) (Pub. L. 103-31 (May 20, 1993)) (42 U.S.C. §§ 1973gg-1973gg-0). Box 6 of the Form is labeled "ID Number— (See Item 6 in the instructions for your state)." These "State-specific instructions" provide State-by-State guidance as to what information the relevant State's law requires the applicant to provide in Box 6.

Depending upon a given State's law, Section 303(a)(5) may affect that State's specific instructions for Box 6 when Section 303(a)(5) takes effect with regard to that State. The question has arisen of whether such a State, if it has obtained a waiver extending the effective date of Section 303(a)(5) until January 1, 2006, may, before January 1, 2006, use State-specific instructions for Box 6 that may change when Section 303(a)(5) becomes effective to such a State.

The EAC intends to exercise its discretion in administering the Form by interpreting the waiver of the effective date provided in Section 303(d)(1)(B) to extend to all of the requirements of subsection (a) of Section 303, including paragraph (a)(5). Therefore, a State that has obtained a waiver extending the effective date of Section 303(a)(5) until January 1, 2006 may use State-specific instructions for Box 6 that may change when Section 303(a)(5) becomes effective as to that State.

In issuing this Statement of Policy regarding the scope of the waiver provision in Section 303(d)(1), the EAC emphasizes that it is not stating its policy with regard to the substantive requirements of Section 303(a)(5) when that paragraph becomes effective with regard to a given State. The EAC also emphasizes that this Statement of Policy is only applicable to a State that has obtained a waiver of the effective date under Section 301(d)(1), and applies only before January 1, 2006.

Dated: August 10, 2004.

DeForest B. Soaries, Jr.,
Chairman, U.S. Election Assistance Commission.
