Synopsis

On February 1, 2005, a group of rural local exchange carriers (Rural LECs) filed a Petition for Declaratory Ruling with the Commission regarding the obligations of local exchange carriers when executing preferred interexchange carrier (PIC) changes. See The Rural LECs, Petition for Declaratory Ruling with Respect to Obligations of Local Exchange Carriers to Execute Primary Interexchange Carrier Changes with Incorrect Subscriber Information, filed February 1, 2005 by 3 Rivers Telephone Cooperative, et al. ("Petition"). The Petition requested a Commission declaration that the Commission's rules do not prohibit the practice by rural LECs of rejecting requests from Interexchange Carriers (IXCs) to change a subscriber's preferred interexchange carrier where the name or telephone number on the request does not match that of the subscriber of record or person authorized by the subscriber to make changes to the account. On June 9, 2005, the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau ("Bureau") issued a Declaratory Ruling ("Ruling") denying the Petition filed by the Rural LECs regarding the Commission's carrier change verification rules. Declaratory Ruling, CC Docket No. 94-129, DA 05-1618, released June 9, 2005 ("Ruling"), published at 71 FR 2895 (January 18, 2006). On July 8, 2005, the Rural LECs submitted an application for review requesting that the Bureau's Ruling be reversed and their Petition granted. See The Rural LECs, Application for Review, filed July 8, 2005. The Rural LECs argue that the Bureau's Ruling misreads their Petition, the Communications Act, the Commission's rules, and the law of agency. According to the Rural LECs, the Bureau ignored relevant appellate interpretation of the rules at issue and decided a significant question of law and policy not previously resolved by the Commission. Accordingly, the Rural LECs ask that the Bureau's Ruling be vacated and their Petition granted. In this document, the Bureau seeks comment on the issues raised by the Rural LECs.
