

waters at the Keowee-Toxaway Hydroelectric Project (FERC No. 2503), and has prepared an Environmental Assessment (EA) for the proposed non-project use. The non-project use of project lands and waters is located on Lake Keowee in Pickens County, South Carolina.

In the application, Duke Power requests Commission authorization to lease 63 acres of project land to Warpath Development, Inc. to construct and maintain a public recreation area at the Warpath Access Area. The public recreation area would include water related facilities and services, outdoor recreation opportunities, lodging, and dining. The EA contains Commission staff's analysis of the probable environmental impacts of the proposal and concludes that approving the licensee's application would not constitute a major federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment.

The EA is attached to a Commission order titled "Order Approving Non-Project Use of Project Lands and Waters," which was issued June 30, 2006, and is available for review and reproduction at the Commission's Public Reference Room, located at 888 First Street, NE., Room 2A, Washington, DC 20426. The EA may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "elibrary" link. Review of the North American Electric Reliability Council's Proposed Reliability Standards Federal Energy Regulatory Commission Technical Conference

July 6, 2006, 9:30 a.m.-3 p.m.

9:30 a.m.—Opening Remarks, Joseph T. Kelliher, FERC Chairman.

9:45 a.m.—Introductions, Joseph McClelland, Director, Division of Reliability, Office of Energy Markets and Reliability, FERC.

9:50 a.m.—Panel 1: Effectiveness of North American Electric Reliability Council's (NERC's) Proposed Reliability Standards.

Panelists will provide their views on the proposed Reliability Standards in the context of the May 11, 2006 Staff Preliminary Assessment, focusing on the following questions:

- Do the proposed standards meet the criteria established in Order No. 672¹ for Commission approval?
- To the extent some standards do not meet the criteria, which should be addressed first? Are there some that have a greater impact on reliability?
- Is it appropriate to focus on the Blackout Report recommendations that have not yet been addressed by the standards, or are there other standards that should receive a higher priority?
- Should all Reliability Standards have performance metrics to gauge the effectiveness of the standards? How quickly can such specific performance metrics be developed? Is there another process that could be used to develop metrics for existing standards?
- What are the implications of applying the E Pact definition of the Bulk Power System instead of the NERC definition of the Bulk Electric System?
- How do we define the "Users, Owners, and Operators" of the "Bulk-Power System"?
- How should a work plan be developed that schedules standards for revision? What are the opportunities for participation in this process by the interested stakeholders?
- What coordination is necessary with other State, Federal, and/or international regulators to ensure a good transition to mandatory reliability standards?
- What process should the United States, Canada, and Mexico follow for review and approval of Reliability Standards to meet possible time constraints?

Panelists:

Richard P. (Rick) Sergel, President and CEO, North American Electric Reliability Council.
 Michael Morris, President and CEO, American Electric Power, on behalf of Edison Electric Institute.
